

PLOT CHARGED TO INMATE
EX-BURNS MAN

Government Claims Efforts Are Being Made To Persecute Star Witness in Jury Fixing.

WIFE LOSES JOB
IN PHILADELPHIA

Federal District Attorney Issues Warning of Penalty for Intimidation of Witnesses.

(The Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)
Washington, November 17.—Definite evidence of highly organized efforts to intimidate William J. Mullin, the government's star witness in the Teapot Dome jury-fixing scandal, has come to District Attorney Peyton Gordon and will be submitted to the grand jury, it was announced today.

Information now in his hands, according to Gordon, indicates that persecution of Mullin not only through whispering campaigns set afoot in his Philadelphia home neighborhood but in the public statements of W. Sherman Burns attacking Mullin's character, may warrant indictments for obstruction of justice and intimidation of witnesses.

Penalty Is Provided.
The law, Gordon pointed out tonight, provides a penalty of six years in prison and a $5,000 fine for intimidation of witnesses.

Mullin is the Burns Detective Agency operative, "Philadelphia Investigator, 136," who revealed to the grand jury last Saturday that he had been ordered to prepare a false affidavit charging Special Assistant Attorney General Harris B. Lamb with attempting to influence one of the jurors in the Sinclair-Fall conspiracy trial.

Mullin had hardly told his sensational story to the grand jury before a corps of his former fellow sinners were set to work investigating his whole life and according to Gordon, reports reflecting on his character soon appeared. One in the form of an affidavit was offered to newspapermen outside the grand jury room by W. Sherman Burns, himself, who warned, however, that he refused to touch for his truth.

Campaign Rehearsed.
Charles G. Ruddy, who was nominally in charge of the Burns operations employed by Sinclair interests to shadow the Teapot Dome jurors, returned to his post as manager of the Burns agency branch in Philadelphia a few days ago, and according to Gordon, reports reflecting on his character soon appeared. One in the form of an affidavit was offered to newspapermen outside the grand jury room by W. Sherman Burns, himself, who warned, however, that he refused to touch for his truth.

Henry Mason Day, vice president of the Sinclair Exploration Company, who was held under a $25,000 bond as a co-conspirator with Harry F. Sinclair and Sheldon Clark, of Chicago, in the alleged jury tampering plot, made an unsuccessful effort today to have the amount of his bond reduced. Day asserted that the bond was excessive, in view of the fact that Clark was required to post only $10,000, but Edmund Shaw argued that the government was compelled to insist on the higher figure in Day's case because the latter has no American residence.

STORK LEAVES
TRIPLETS AT HOME
IN NORTH GEORGIA

Dalton, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—The oldest stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Teasler, residing on Rural Route No. 4, from this place, near Waring, last night and increased the population of Whitfield county by three—two boys and a girl. The mother and triplets are doing well.

The family consists of eight other children. The Waring community is rejoicing over the distinction visited upon that section and citizens are suggesting many names for the new arrivals.

Having named the other children for the various relatives of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Teasler state they will receive the suggestion of names for the two boys and girl, and the most appropriate names will be selected and the little fellows will be duly christened.

A Call to Action!

Just like the alarm clock that wakes you up in the morning for your work, The Constitution daily wakes you up to opportunities in merchandise of the finest type at prices that mean actual cash savings to you.

Do as thousands of others have learned to do—Read Constitution ads for savings.

ADVERTISING IN THE CON-STITUTION PAYS THE AD-VERTISER AND SAVES
THE BUYER

Atlanta To Honor
Bobby With Gift
Of Home Tonight

Presentation To Be Made Informally at Dinner at City Home of Athletic Club.

MANY TAKE PART IN SWELLING FUND

Gift To Be Tribute to World's Greatest Golfer and Token of Esteem as a Friend.

COMMITTEE INVITES ALL DONORS TO FUND

Following is the invitation issued Thursday by Henry C. Heinz, chairman of the Atlanta Athletic Club gift committee:

"Invitations have been issued to all donors to the Bobby Jones home fund to attend a buffet supper at the Atlanta Athletic Club town house at 6 o'clock today.

"The purpose of this meeting is to formally present to Bobby a home of his own selection, to be built immediately with the funds subscribed by his friends in the city of Atlanta.

"This notice is given solely to assure that all donors shall have notice and know that their presence is desired."

BY DICK HAWKINS.

The career of every national figure, be it in the field of sports, politics or pedagogy, reaches a climax sooner or later, and tonight at 6 o'clock in the magnificent town house of the Atlanta Athletic Club the career of Robert Tyne Jones, Jr., the greatest living golfer, will reach its apex. Looking back it might seem that the career of Bobby Jones' life had reached the greatest possible height on more than one occasion when he was referred to as the greatest golfer of the world in this or that international tournament. But those triumphs were only incidents leading to the crowning moment which will come tonight when his friends show their love for the world's premier golfer by giving him a beautiful home.

A fund of many thousands of dollars has been voluntarily subscribed by hundreds of Bobby's friends as a token of their esteem and with but one object in view—the thought of telling Bobby Jones in concrete terms just how much his friends think of him as a man, a golfer and a gentleman.

Hundreds of friends of Bob who have added to the gift are invited to attend the supper tonight and undoubtedly there will be several hundred.

Continued on Page 16, Column 3.

L.R. POWELL NAMED
SEABOARD LEADER

Successor to Davies Warfield Is 43 Years Old; Formerly Vice President and Controller.

New York, November 17.—(AP)—L. R. Powell, Jr., 43-year-old vice president and controller of the Seaboard Air Line railway, today was elected president of the company, to succeed the late S. Davies Warfield.

Robert L. Nutt, vice president and treasurer, was elected chairman of the board.

Continued on Page 8, Column 4.

TARIFF REDUCTION
APPEAL BY NAGEL
HIT BY PRESIDENT

Executive Declares It Would Bring Deflation in Agriculture; Warns of Perils of Prosperity.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER.
Philadelphia, November 17.—(United News.)—Tariff reduction would cause a drastic deflation of agriculture, industry, wages and general standards of living, President Coolidge declared in an address tonight at the Union League, one of the most exclusive and wealthy political clubs in the country and a stronghold of conservative, protective-tariff republicans.

The president took direct issue with the proposal set forth in the recent report of the Nagel business men's committee, which, after prolonged study of the farm problem, reported that gradual reduction of the protective tariff would enable European nations to sell more goods in America, and with the profits thus made, buy more farm products here.

Without specifically mentioning this report, the president assailed its basic recommendation with more vigor than is customary with him.

Because of the prominence of the Nagel business men's committee, its proposal is being seized upon by democrats as an attack on the republican protective tariff policy and by farm organizations which have long clamored for the removal of the tariff as the source of one of their troubles. Apparently the president desired to speak out strongly before the issue gained headway and caused any trouble within the republican organization.

President Coolidge also took occasion, while addressing one of the

Continued on Page 5, Column 2.

F. E. TWITTY DIES
AT BRUNSWICK

Lawyer One of Outstanding Factors in Civic and Industrial Life of South Georgia City.

Brunswick, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Hon. F. E. Twitty, outstanding factor in the civic and industrial life of this city for the past decade, died suddenly, late this afternoon at his home here. A heart attack brought on by an attack of acute indigestion is believed to have caused his death.

Born 50 years ago in Rome, Ga., Mr. Twitty came to Brunswick shortly after his graduation from the University of Georgia and for almost 40 years had made this city his home and the object of his undying civic efforts. During the past few years he had given increasingly of his time to public and religious affairs of the city.

At the time of his death Mr. Twitty was chairman of the good roads committee of both the Brunswick Board of Trade and the Boys' Club. He was an active member of the law firm of Brown, Twitty & Reese.

As deacon in the First Baptist church Mr. Twitty took a keen interest in the conduct of the church's affairs and particularly in the activities of its young people. He had been long known in this section of the state as a crusader in the cause of good roads.

Mr. Twitty was unmarried and his next living survivor is his sister, Mrs. L. M. Williams, of Macon, Ga., for two daughters, Miss Elmore and Miss Mae, and her son, Mr. J. E. Twitty, of Macon.

Mr. Twitty is survived by many nieces and nephews, several of them residing in Atlanta. They are Miss Jessie E. Twitty, 21 Third street, N. E.; Miss Minnie Twitty of the same address; Mrs. Addison Martin, 1107 Oxford road; Mrs. E. A. Steer, 800 Spring street; Mrs. J. E. Dodger, Rosedale drive, and Mrs. Gertrude Simper, Forrest avenue.

His other surviving nephews are H. C. Williams, West Andrews drive, Atlanta; Paul E. Twitty, Savannah; James C. Twitty, New York city; Marshall Twitty, Manchester, Ga.; and Joseph E. Twitty, Deland, Fla.

Funeral services for Mr. Twitty will be held here Saturday afternoon.

GASOLINE DROPS TO TWELVE CENTS
AT GREENSBORO

Greensboro, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Greensboro motorists today were greeted with 12-cent gasoline, a falling station on the edge of town reducing the price to that figure.

More than 20 cents per gallon has been paid heretofore.

Crowd Packs Courthouse as Speakers Debate Merits of Power Company's Compromise Plan

MAJOR J. H. GREEN
FAVORS PROPOSAL

Hooper Alexander Denounces Pact; Says City Would Face 10 Cent Rate in Future.

Before a crowd of Decatur citizens which packed the courtroom of the DeKalb county courthouse, Thursday night, four prominent citizens and business men of Decatur debated the proposed new contract offered by the Georgia Power company to supplant the present 5-cent fare pact.

Dr. W. S. Elkin, Jr., proprietor of the Elkin Drug company, presided at the meeting, and introduced first, Major J. Howell Green, president of the Decatur Bank and Trust company, and former Decatur city attorney, who spoke in favor of adoption of the power company's proposal.

Major Green gave the history of Decatur's long fight over the 5-cent fare contract and pointed to the controversies which have been a continual bone of contention and a permanent source of expense to the city government. He explained thoroughly the power company proposal, showing that the present system is the only one of its kind left in Georgia.

He said that on the last occasion the power company contested the 5-cent fare contract that Decatur narrowly missed losing the fight to keep the low fares, and he stated that if the contract again became the center of legal battle, that the city of Decatur was almost sure to have the pact abrogated.

Major Green said that the power company, in its present proposal and contract, was offering something really worthwhile to the citizens of Decatur, and he urged adoption when that paper comes before the public to be voted on Saturday.

As Hooper Alexander, former United States district attorney, and first speaker against adoption of the proposed contract was introduced, a hundred round of applause created pandemonium in the audience.

Fights Proposed Pact.
Mr. Alexander said that unless the people of Decatur held on to their present 5-cent fare contract, that a 10-cent fare would be established in Atlanta by the Georgia Power company and that consequently the matter should be of intense interest to Atlantans.

"If Decatur allows the old contract to be abrogated, the new contract now offered by the Georgia Power com-

Continued on Page 8, Column 6.

OCTOBER BUILDING
TOTALS $1,747,300

City Forges Ahead of Macon as State's Most Prosperous Municipality, Report Shows.

Out of approximately $4,000,000 in contracts for new building and engineering let in Georgia in October nearly one-half was for work in Atlanta according to figures made public Thursday by the F. W. Dodge corporation of New York. Contracts in Atlanta totaled $1,747,300 and an evidence of permanency is shown in these figures by the fact that 51 per cent of this amount was for new residences.

Almost simultaneously with this announcement came a statement from the Standard Statistics company, of New York, the world's largest statistical organization, that Atlanta forged ahead of Macon during October as the most prosperous city, with an increase of 22 points over September's figures, according to the scoring system used by this company.

Statistical Report.
The report of the Standard Statistics company, of New York, gives the volume of business transacted here as 51 per cent above the average for the years 1920-24, an increase of 22 points over September and 10 points over October, 1926. Similar figures for the state give the business volume as 28 per cent above the average, an increase of 11 points over September and 6 points over October, 1926.

Some of this improvement is a reflection of the early marketing of the cotton crop, but other conditions must be considered here—cotton mills are running on full time with the outlook promising for continued activity; lumber and furniture industries have experienced seasonal gains which seem likely to continue; the insurance business is in a prosperous condition. All these factors enter into Atlanta's prosperity and promise further expansion in industrial purchasing power.

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

WINTER DUE TODAY
IN REAL EARNEST
WITH 36 MERCURY

Whole South To Be Affected by Frigid Wave Coming on Heels of Wind From North.

The chill and icy heels of Old Man Winter, himself, will crunch down on the necks of Atlantans in earnest today with a new low temperature of 36 degrees slated to be in effect, according to C. E. von Herrmann, local meteorologist.

The stormy skies of Thursday will clear today, however, and lend a sharp and clear brilliance to the biting chill of real winter. The first real visit of winter will be experienced all over the south today also, according to national forecasters, with frost probable in sections as far south as the northern part of Florida.

Thursday light snow flurries and rain descended in a temperature of 33 degrees on Nashville, Tenn., and Memphis, Tenn. Cold rains were also general in Kentucky, with a minimum of 32 registered at Louisville.

Overcoats were brought out Thursday for the first time in New Orleans by a low temperature of 44 degrees, and similar weather prevailed at Pensacola, Fla., another gulf city.

Storm warnings were issued for the Atlantic coast as far south as Jacksonville, Fla. The high temperature in Atlanta Thursday was 48 degrees, in the morning, and it steadily declined to the 40 mark during the early night. Overcast skies prevailed all day.

PREVENTION OF AIR ACCIDENTS SOUGHT

Committee on Aviation To Present to Council Ordinance Regulating Flying at Candler Field.

Regulations governing flying at Candler field, with a view to the prevention of accidents such as recently caused the death of two passengers and the serious injury of the pilot, will be incorporated into a tentative ordinance for presentation to council following a meeting of the council committee on aviation Thursday afternoon.

After considerable discussion of the problem of regulating the use of the landing field, members of the committee authorized Alderman W. B. Hartfield, chairman, to draw an ordinance which will incorporate the rules and regulations of the federal department of commerce as they apply to local airports. This tentative ordinance will be prepared by Mr. Hartfield within the next few days, and submitted to the committee at a later date for approval.

As suggested Thursday afternoon at the committee meeting, the ordinance will require that a pilot must have at least a limited transport license of the department of commerce before he is at liberty to take passengers for hire from Candler field, and that no unidentified purchaser of an airplane will be permitted to fly his new ship until he has passed a written examination at the hands of a licensed pilot. This latter provision will be incorporated, it is said, because of an accident six months ago at Candler field in which a man bought an airplane and without previous experience at the controls, attempted to fly. The ship cracked up at the end of a wild run across the field, and endangered lives and property, it was said.

Prevention of Accident.
The ordinance, as suggested at Thursday's meeting, is to provide for the issuance of permits for the use of the field to properly licensed pilots and will be designed so as to prevent, as far as possible, any accidents which might arise from an inexperienced person attempting to fly without proper instructions. Other phases of the ordinance are to provide penalties for willful damage to the lighting system, to prohibit autohobby parking on the landing field, and to prohibit spectators from endangering their lives by trespassing upon the landing field. The ordinance will also cover the possibilities of fire, as it will require at least two approved fire extinguishers in each end of the hangars.

Candler field legislation has been uppermost in the mind of the aviation committee for some time and is now possible with the passage of an act by the legislature giving the city ordinances enforcing power at the landing field. Action upon the proposed ordinance is said to have been hastened by the recent tragedy at the field, with a view to preventing similar occurrences in the future.

Continued on Page 8, Column 5.

Confederate Veteran
In Atlanta With Bride

COL. DEATHERAGE OF KENTUCKY SEES GOOD IN YOUTH

Prediction of Freezing Weather Today Add to Fear That Considerable Suffering Will Result.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.,
IS HEAVY LOSER

Damage at Naval Air Station Will Exceed $200,000; White House Escapes.

Washington, November 17.—(United News.)—One dead, nearly 200 injured and property damage exceeding $1,000,000 was the toll taken by a 93-mile-an-hour tornado which ripped through the capital and neighboring towns shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A torrential rain and predictions of freezing weather by tomorrow added to the fear that considerable suffering homes were demolished or partly wrecked. The Red Cross assumed charge of relief work and distributed coats and blankets to the homeless.

Negro Is Killed.
The only death reported was that of Jane Carter, negress, who was struck by lightning, which accompanied the twister.

Lights in the stricken sections were put out of commission and police, firemen and marines from the navy yard patrolled the debris-strewn streets in darkness and a steady downpour of rain.

Of the number injured, only 55 were held in hospitals. The others were treated and allowed to return to their shattered homes.

Alexandria Suffers.
Alexandria, Va., across the Potomac river from Washington, was severely hit by the twister. Four city blocks were practically leveled. Property damage there is estimated at $200,000.

In the capital, the tornado hit the modest home sections of northeast and southeast. Workers at the navy government clerks and small shopkeepers will bear the brunt of the damage.

White House Safe.
The sections most seriously affected by the tornado are about two miles from the white house and the center of the city, but the white house itself was spared.

Many persons heard the clap of thunder and a roar sounding like a "thousand locomotives." Some ran for the streets. Above was a black cloud. The next instant the roar of the twister was drowned out by

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

AMERICAN FIRM
WINS OIL VICTORY

Court Sustains Company's Contention That Oil and Land Laws Are Not Retroactive.

Mexico City, November 17.—(United News.)—American oil interests won a signal victory today when the supreme court enjoined the Mexican government from enforcing a section of the oil and land laws against the Mexican Petroleum company.

By a vote of nine to two, the court declared that the laws, as embodied in the 1917 constitution and made effective by the regulatory decrees of January, 1927, could not be interpreted to deprive the company of the rights it had acquired before 1917.

Magistrate Salvador Urbina, who was regarded as chiefly responsible for the supreme court decision, told the United News tonight that it still was necessary for American companies to seek confirmatory rights—that is, that the concerns would have to have their titles confirmed by the government.

"However, the law cannot set a limitation on those rights," he added. "Asked if the government then must respect the concessions acquired before 1917, the magistrate said 'Yes.'"

Urbina's principal argument against the article which provides that the

Continued on Page 8, Column 5.

REMUS IS GIVEN
REBUKE BY COURT

Cincinnati, Ohio, November 17.—(AP)—George Remus got a pointed warning from the bench today that continuation of his participation as counsel for himself in his trial for narcotic dependence upon his adherence to rulings of the court.

Remus clashed spectacularly and wordily with Charles P. Taft, II, Hamilton county prosecutor, and continued a one-sided debate after Judge Chester R. Shook had rendered a decision.

He was brought up short, however, with this from the court:

"Now, Mr. Remus, if you are going to remain in this case as an attorney, you must abide by the ruling of the court."

Makes Apology.
Remus sat down with a muttered "I beg your pardon, your honor."

Attorneys said that the warning did not necessarily consider Remus' status of a disbarred attorney.

For the fourth time in the four days of the tedious period of examination of verities, Remus provided the fireworks which lifted the court

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Prediction of Freezing Weather Today Add to Fear That Considerable Suffering Will Result.

ALEXANDRIA, VA.,
IS HEAVY LOSER

Damage at Naval Air Station Will Exceed $200,000; White House Escapes.

Washington, November 17.—(United News.)—One dead, nearly 200 injured and property damage exceeding $1,000,000 was the toll taken by a 93-mile-an-hour tornado which ripped through the capital and neighboring towns shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A torrential rain and predictions of freezing weather by tomorrow added to the fear that considerable suffering homes were demolished or partly wrecked. The Red Cross assumed charge of relief work and distributed coats and blankets to the homeless.

Negro Is Killed.
The only death reported was that of Jane Carter, negress, who was struck by lightning, which accompanied the twister.

Lights in the stricken sections were put out of commission and police, firemen and marines from the navy yard patrolled the debris-strewn streets in darkness and a steady downpour of rain.

Of the number injured, only 55 were held in hospitals. The others were treated and allowed to return to their shattered homes.

Alexandria Suffers.
Alexandria, Va., across the Potomac river from Washington, was severely hit by the twister. Four city blocks were practically leveled. Property damage there is estimated at $200,000.

In the capital, the tornado hit the modest home sections of northeast and southeast. Workers at the navy government clerks and small shopkeepers will bear the brunt of the damage.

White House Safe.
The sections most seriously affected by the tornado are about two miles from the white house and the center of the city, but the white house itself was spared.

Many persons heard the clap of thunder and a roar sounding like a "thousand locomotives." Some ran for the streets. Above was a black cloud. The next instant the roar of the twister was drowned out by

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

The Weather
FAIR AND COLDER.

Washington—Forecast:
Georgia—Fair and colder Friday; Saturday, fair and continued cold.

Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 48
Lowest temperature 42
Normal temperature 51
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins. 35
Deficiency since Jan. 1st, ins. 45
Total rainfall since Jan. 1st, ins. 25.52

Dry temperature 48
Wet bulb 47
Relative humidity 92

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER
Temperature Rain
AND STATE OF WEATHER
7 a.m. 12 m. High Low

Atlanta, cloudy 42 48 T
Augusta, clear 30 32 T
Birmingham, raining 26 34 T
Boston, cloudy 20 24 T
Buffalo, snowing 20 26 T
Charlotte, pt. cldy. 64 74 T
Chicago, snowing 28 32 T
Cincinnati, clear 48 52 T
Des Moines, pt. cldy. 28 32 T
Galveston, clear 58 58 T
Hartford, clear 28 32 T
Havana, clear 12 16 T
Jacksonville, cloudy 60 74 T
Kansas City, cldy. 38 48 T
Memphis, clear 34 38 T
Mobile, cloudy 42 48 T
Montgomery, cloudy 44 48 T
New Orleans, clear 58 62 T
New York, raining 62 68 T
North Platte, cloudy 38 42 T
Oklahoma City, clear 44 52 T
Phoenix, clear 72 82 T
St. Louis, cloudy 38 42 T
St. Paul, snowing 32 32 T
Salt Lake City, cloudy 52 58 T
Savannah, cloudy 54 58 T
Tampa, cloudy 68 70 T
Tulsa, cloudy 50 52 T
Vicksburg, clear 42 44 T
Washington, raining 62 70 T

Metecologist, Weather Bureau.

American Beauties Dropped From Skies for Ruth Elder

GIRL ADVISED TO RETURN TO HUSBAND

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Daily Tribune.)

New York, November 17.—A man in his late 60's, who left no card behind him, but who said that years ago he stood in Lyle Womack's shoes, sent Ruth Elder, six dozen American Beauty roses this afternoon. He arranged to have them dropped from the clouds, one by one.

Attached to each rose was a typewritten message, urging her, in substance, to "say it ain't so, Ruth; say it ain't so."

The stranger drove on the flying field at Teterboro airport, New Jersey, in a big automobile.

"How much will it cost," he asked Irving Gates, "to make a flight over Manhattan?"

"Forty dollars," said Gates, who makes his living hawking people around in an airplane.

"Here's a hundred," said the old fellow. "I want this job done right."

He went back to his automobile and brought out two huge florists' boxes.

"I want you to take these over and drop them," he said.

Each box contained three dozen big roses wrapped separately in tissue paper. Tied with a ribbon to each rose was an envelope, which read: "Please deliver to Ruth Elder, Helms Manger."

To convince the pilot that he had nothing to conceal, he opened one of the letters and permitted him to read it. It was this:

"To Miss Elder:

"History repeats. Years ago fame called to a woman, and I, who loved her, sat passive. Misery and heartache followed. She died unknown, unhappy. I, her husband, who also fact which should interest local merchants.

OCTOBER BUILDING TOTALS $1,747,300

Continued From First Page.

The report of the F. W. Dodge corporation covering building activities is as follows:

"Georgia had $3,914,700 in contracts for new building and engineering work during October. Of this amount, $1,747,300 was for work was 24 per cent in excess of the September figure.

"Analysis of last month's construction record in Georgia showed the following items of importance: $1,637,700, or 43 per cent of all construction, for residential buildings; $629,700, or 17 per cent, for public works and utilities; $515,200, or 13 per cent, for commercial buildings; and $307,000, or 9 per cent, for industrial plants.

"Included in the October building report for Atlanta were $881,500, or 51 per cent of all construction,

FOES IN ROMANIA ASSAIL BRATIANO

TWO-THIRDS RULE FIGHT IS PENDING

Washington, November 17.—(AP)—When the democratic national committee meets in Washington in mid-January its membership probably will be asked to consider once again whether the rule requiring a two-thirds vote for nomination of a presidential candidate should be abolished.

Chairman Sherer and other party managers take the view that the question, whether a bare majority or two-thirds of the convention opposing any nominee is one for the convention itself to decide, but there is increasing talk about the capital that the committee itself may be soundly out of the subject during its session here.

The primary purpose of the January gathering is to select a convention city. Already, however, other features have been added to the tentative program, including a Jackson day banquet at which the prospective democratic presidential candidates will meet and through their papers as after dinner speakers.

Some of the most determined opponents of the candidacy of Governor Smith of New York, are opposing any deviation from the two-thirds rule, but today Senator Walsh, of Montana, who has not been friendly to the Smith cause since he served as chairman of the 1924 convention, said he favored nomination by a simple majority, "regardless of whom it may help."

Another senate dry, Senator Cawley, of Arkansas, is a proponent of the two-thirds rule, but he said today that he believed enough votes had been pledged to secure its abandonment. He added that if a majority rule was adopted he believed, Smith would not.

Other democrats, including some of the younger, whose ranks are fairly solid for retention of the two-thirds rule, are prepared to fight the abolition move, declaring, in some instances, their willingness to have the party adopt the change at this convention to take effect four years hence.

CONFEDERATE VET HERE WITH BRIDE

Continued From First Page.

Atlanta, the last being about a year ago.

"The work doesn't seem to have progressed much, to the naked eye," he said Thursday. "But they tell me a lot of preparatory work is involved, getting rid of stone, and so on, and I reckon they are moving as fast as possible."

"There isn't as much interest in the memorial in Kentucky as there might be, but I suppose that's natural. The generation of the Confederacy has almost gone, and the young folks have other things to think about. That's as it should be."

"No, I don't find much wrong with the youngsters of today. Fact is, I think they're heaps better than the young 'uns of my boyhood were, in lots of ways."

Colonel Deatherage doesn't think Al Smith would carry Kentucky, but he does think the New York governor has the best chance of any democrat for carrying the country as a whole. "Too much prejudice about liquor and religion in Kentucky," he believes. "But I like Smith and it would have to be a far better man than any I've heard of yet, running against him, for me to vote against Smith."

"No, I'm not a wet. Never take a drink, unless I'm visiting and it's necessary for politeness to accept a small tot. But anyone with sense can see that there's got to be a change in this prohibition situation. I wouldn't want the licensed saloon boys. But it's against reason to say that a man who makes cider of the apples out of his own yard, or wine of the grapes off his own vines, is breaking a law."

Colonel Deatherage was sheriff of his county—Madison—for eight years, serving four terms of two years each. He served four years, quit, and after unsatisfactory experience with his successor, the county asked him to take the place again, without opposition.

"In the saloon days I used to say it was wrong to lock a man up for getting drunk on liquor that another man was licensed to sell to him at 10 cents a glass. Why, at that price, somebody had to get drunk if the saloon-keeper was to make enough to pay his license."

"I used to say the town ought to keep a comfortable bed in a comfortable room and put its drunks to bed to sleep off their liquor and then send them home after providing a pick-me-up."

Colonel Deatherage is a farmer. And at 83 years of age he is enthusiastic in his belief that he is a "retired farmer."

"No, sir," he said in his room in the Austin hotel Thursday afternoon. "When a man of my age who has worked all his life, retires, he won't live long. Lolling don't agree with him. And besides, I like farming."

"Why, young fellow, I haven't missed to run the binder on my farm a year since I was honorably discharged out of the Confederate army. And that wasn't because I couldn't, but because I was too busy doing something else."

"It isn't no little farm either, let me tell you. It's big, and it's good and it pays."

About this time Francis Price announced that he was ready to take pictures of Colonel and Mrs. Deatherage and the interview had to be abandoned in favor of an argument as to which of the two should sit, and which stand, for the picture. If you'll look at the picture accompanying this story you'll see that Mrs. Deatherage won.

FOES IN ROMANIA ASSAIL BRATIANO

Bucharest, November 17.—(United News).—The Bratiano government was impeached in parliament today by M. Junian, peasant party deputy.

Junian presented a long list of alleged illegalities, which the government had committed, beginning with the arrest of M. Manolescu, the Carol emperor, and ending with the acquittal of the former emperor's financial manager on charges of conspiracy.

The move marked the first step in the new anti-Bratiano offensive which Professor Nicolae, leader of the peasant party, and M. Maniu, the party's leader in parliament, had organized with a view to overthrowing the premier.

Deputy Junian expressed disapproval of the verdict of the military court which the government itself had appointed.

The court acquitted Manolescu by a vote of three to two. The former Crown Prince Carol had written to his mother and Rumanian newspapers, Minister of the Interior Octavian Goga, replying to Junian, warned the peasant party that the government would not tolerate any more of its attempts to embarrass Premier Ion Bratiano.

Defiant, Junian retorted that he would not concede a single inch. He said he had no interest in cooperating with Bratiano's party.

CYCLONE RIPS THROUGH WASHINGTON, D. C.

Continued From First Page.

the sound of rending and tearing of walls and roof tops.

As if cut by a giant knife, debris was scattered into the streets and chairs, tables and household goods sent flying into the air.

The cyclone struck first from the south, traveling at a speed estimated at 95 miles an hour, crossed over the Potomac river and into southern Washington around the naval air station and the navy yards, swept past the eastern outskirts of the city and whipped back again in the north, going out at Hyattsville to the north.

Alexandria appeared to be more severely hit by the tornado than Washington, as 30 persons were reported in the hospital there and at least 75 more treated by doctors and unable to obtain hospital beds.

Air Station Injured.

Washington's casualty list, including the ten injured at the naval air station, rested at 25, exclusive of many who were treated for minor bruises and cuts.

No government buildings were damaged, although the naval air station at Anacostia was badly wrecked. Ten enlisted men at the station were slightly injured, but none seriously.

One hangar was almost destroyed, its metal sides being ripped from the steel girders. Angus Kingbaum, an enlisted man, was knocked unconscious as he ran across the landing field to escape the storm. Another enlisted man clung to a girder throughout the storm, which lasted about 10 minutes.

So suddenly did he had no opportunity to descend from the place where he had been working.

Ten Planes Damaged.

One of the most severely damaged was a Ford metal monoplane which cost $41,000. Another of the damaged planes was valued at $20,000. One hangar was unroofed, another was partly unroofed, one barracks was damaged and the roof was blown off the carpenter shop.

Collision Had Gone.

President Coolidge left Washington by train to speak before the Union League at Philadelphia just as the storm broke. The presidential yacht, Mayflower, directly in the path of the twister, was hauled out into the stream by navy tugs to ride out the tornado.

The storm in the northeast section wrecked buildings in an area of about one-quarter of a square mile. In the southeast section the storm roared through a lane one-half mile wide and two miles long.

No houses in this section were badly damaged, either by being unroofed or having their walls caved in.

Part of the stone wall of the St. Cyprian church fell in under the wind pressure.

The plant of the American Ice company at 17th and Locale streets, southeast, was practically demolished.

Lieutenant Walbrin, officer of the day at the navy yard, said the cyclone swept to the east of the government reservation, over a vacant field, but that many windows were blown out of the federal machine shops.

Walbrin said the storm came from the south and swept across Bolling field, the army air station, badly damaging the station. The navy yard was unable to communicate with Bolling field but the officer said he saw the damage to the flying field through field glasses.

The wind sweeping across the yard blew over a number of trees, and tore patches from roofs.

No one was injured at the yard.

Sees Ominous Cloud.

Standing in front of his drug store in the southeast section, H. E. Smith said he saw an ominous black cloud whirl up suddenly just before the twister struck.

"It looks like smoke," a friend remarked, he said when the cloud quickly dipped down to a roof 100 feet away and rose lightly into the air again like a gigantic feather. The roof sailed 150 feet across a nearby market and smashed in the front of a store.

Harbor police also observed the black cloud which preceded the storm.

Hanging over the trees near the golf course of Potomac park it looked like a great mass of black cotton, said Lieutenant W. P. Hess. "Shifting suddenly over the Washington channel it dipped again and then a great gust of wind ripped the cloud to shreds."

"I never saw such clouds whirling in every direction. In a moment they gathered again and swung off to the east in the direction of the navy yards."

Building Caves In.

Alfred T. Conter was driving his automobile on Pennsylvania avenue when suddenly everything became so dark that he was unable to see the road ahead. He halted his car and ran to an apartment occupied by some friends nearby. The entire upper section of the building caved in just as he entered, and he assisted women and children to leave the wrecked building.

Housewives who were shopping rushed in mad haste for their homes when the storm struck. In some cases they found their houses roofless and twisted from their foundations, but in others the damage was confined to shattered windows. In some cases the ruins resembled damage done by big shells in France during the war.

Shortly after the storm had passed over, a cloudburst hit the tornado area, and within a few minutes the streets were running rivers. Intersession from dreary routine to the status of vivid drama.

REMUS IS STERNLY REBUKED BY JUDGE

Continued From First Page.

George Awrey, 42-year-old retired buyer of oil property, was under examination as to his qualifications for jury service when the storm broke.

Roaring out in his great voice which even in its middle tones fills the courtroom, crowing as if to a holy, Remus asked if he, as a juror, who had depicted for the full jury Remus' estimation of his position.

The fact that my life is in the balance would not influence you, would it?" Remus asked in low and sincere tones.

"No," was the response.

"And the fact that I am an ex-convict, an ex-convict and a disbarred lawyer," Remus boomed with his face grimacing and a tone of scorn in his voice as he analyzed himself, "is that going to influence you? Are you going to charge that against me?"

"No," came again from the venireman.

Taft Objects.

It was when Remus softly asked the aged venireman if he would not consider all circumstances surrounding the case that Taft leaped to his feet with an objection.

"Heated exchanges between the two included the prosecutor's demand that the jury be sent out and Remus' assertion that a suggestion for such a maneuver was 'ridiculous.'"

Judge Shook got control of the situation and delivered his ultimatum to the defendant-counsel, the only break in the dry routine of qualifying jurors.

At 7 Faces Changed.

At the adjournment, two women and nine men sat as tentative jurors, the same as at the opening of court, excepting that seven faces had been changed by the prosecution exercising two and the defense five peremptory challenges.

The defense still had six peremptories left and it was thought there was small chance of obtaining a jury tomorrow.

There will be no session of court Saturday. A total of 84 veniremen has been examined in the four days of the trial.

In the day's big argument, Taft asked that Remus be told not to repeat an objectionable statement, and Remus said he would conduct the examination of veniremen in legal manner but not by dictation from the prosecutor.

While Remus was interrogating Venireman Awrey, he stated in a question that he sought no sympathy nor compassion, and in a direct remark that he would hold it against no juror who heard full evidence and sentenced him to death.

Mr. Awrey formerly lived at Ann Arbor, Mich., and Remus used its proximity to Lansing to bring into the case anew the name of Franklin L. Dodge, Jr., former prohibition agent, who Remus says is responsible for his conviction and sentence in federal court and for bringing about the conditions which led him to shoot the kill Mrs. Remus here October 6, last.

Senate Chaplain Dies.

Washington, November 17.—(AP)—The Rev. Joseph J. Muir, chaplain of the United States senate, died at his home here early today. A Baptist, he was appointed senate chaplain in 1914.

$100 or $200 A Week Will Do

Clothing for the Family

$2 DOWN OPENS YOUR ACCOUNT

Just Say "CHARGE IT"

MEN'S and YOUNG MEN'S SUITS and O'COATS $22.50—$29.50

(Others $35.00)

Finely tailored garments fashioned of warm, long wearing woolen materials. All the new fall colors and styles. Dress up now for Thanksgiving on our Easy Credit Terms.

WOMEN'S and MISSES' COATS $35.00

Handsome fur trimmed Coats in a wide range of the new fall colors and materials.

(Others $18 to $49.50)

THE FAIR

127 Whitehall Street, S. W.

Old Number 93

STILL FASTER TIME

NORTH PONCE DE LEON

Beginning November 21st

6:00 P. M.

Through Sleeping Cars

CINCINNATI DETROIT CHICAGO
LOUISVILLE TOLEDO CLEVELAND
INDIANAPOLIS DAYTON COLUMBUS

2—ADDITIONAL TRAINS—2

ROYAL PALM Leaves 7:15 A. M.
SUWANEE RIVER SPECIAL... Leaves 3:25 P. M.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

City Ticket Office, 48 N. Broad St. Phones Walnut 1961-1962

Next time you buy calomel ask for

Calotabs

TRADE MARK REG.

The thoroughly purified and refined calomel combined with assistant and corrective agents.

Nausealess—Safe—Sure

Men! Here Are the Season's Newest SUITS AND OVERCOATS

In a Startling 10-Day SALE!

Starting This Morning

Stylish Clothes to suit every purse and person, with the assurance of a real saving on every suit and overcoat. The suits are nearly all TWO-PANTS SUITS. Note prices and buy now!

O'Coats	Suits
$17.50 O'Coats, Now $13.75	Special Lot No. 1 $9.75
$20 and $22.50 O'Coats, Now $15.75	Special Lot No. 2 $13.75
$25 and $27.50 O'Coats, Now $19.75	Special Lot No. 3 $19.75

All Our Fine $35 O'Coats Now $24.75

All Our Fine $40 Suits Now $29.75

Our Finest Clothes in This Sale

Suits and O'Coats

$45.00 Suits and Overcoats—Now $33.75
$50.00 Suits and Overcoats—Now $37.50
$55.00 Suits and Overcoats—Now $41.25

Allen M. Pierce

Clothing—Hats—Furnishings

17 Marietta Street

40 Fathom FISH

Right out of the Ocean!

40-FATHOM Fish reaches your home as fresh as when it came from the sea. Really fresh—never frozen. Heads, tails, backbones, fins and scales are removed at the dock. Then the savory white fish meat is wrapped in pure parchment, iced and fast-expressed to your dealer. 40-Fathom Fish is ready to cook yet moderate in price. Order from your meat, provision or fish dealer today.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS!

40-Fathom Fish is sold ONLY in our trade-marked wrapper. BAY STATE FISHING COMPANY, 30 Fish Pier, Boston, Mass.

U. S. FILMS HIT BY GREAT BRITAIN

London, November 17.—(United News).—Great Britain's effort to break the United States monopoly of the British motion picture film market took another step toward realization today when the House of Commons passed the British film bill.

Passage by a vote of 223 to 125 came after three days of acrimonious debate.

The bill, which provides theaters must book a certain percentage of British films each year, was vigorously opposed by numerous theater owners, who asserted the popularity of their houses would be seriously impaired by the measure.

Baltimore, November 17.—(AP)—Reporting without indictments, the federal grand jury investigating importation of Dempsey-Tunney fight films, today recommended that theaters be ordered to show fight films. The grand jurors said the district attorney acted correctly in seizing films at three theaters and that seizure should continue.

A Harvest of Fine Foods at KAMPER'S

Cheese

EDAM—Each $1.79
PARM-ET—Each 2½ lbs. 3 for69
SWISS GRUYERE—Solids (Regular 50¢)39
Portions (Regular 60¢)49

BAKE THE FRUIT CAKE—NOW!

Salt Fish

BABY SALT MACKEREL—5-lb. Kits. $1.25
SALT FISH ROE—Pound60
WHOLE SHAD ROE—Pound, Cans, 75¢; Dozen 8.00
NORWEST MACKEREL ROE—(Whole) Can, 25¢; 3 for69

OUR FRUIT CAKE MATERIALS ARE THE FINEST TO BE HAD

Let Us Do Your Baking

BAKING TURKEYS ... $1.00
BAKING AND WITH DRESSING AND GRAVY ... $1.50
(No Deliveries)

OUR OWN FINE FRUIT CAKE
1, 2, 3, 5 and 10-lb.

Real Good Quality, lb.65c
Our Finest Quality, lb. $1.00

HENARD'S Mayonnaise

TELLAM'S Fresh PEANUT BUTTER

Our Own Baking

QUAKER HEALTH BREAD—Loaf 10c
BRAN ROLLS—Dozen 20c
RYE BREAD—Loaf 10c
COTTAGE BREAD—Loaf 15c

Our trade will find that our bakery products are different from the machine-made breads. They are more like homemade breads.

SEND A "GOODY BOX" TO THE BOY OR GIRL AT SCHOOL. We will pack and ship it for you.

PURE GEORGIA CANE SYRUP—Gallon tins $1.00
PLAIN BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Pound 10c

WILD RICE FOR GAME DISHES .50c and $1.00

Our Vegetable Counter

TELEPHONE PEAS—Pound 30c
LIMA BEANS—Pound 20c
BUTTER BEANS—Pound 20c
SNAP BEANS—Pound 15c
CABBAGE—Pound 15c
BELL PEPPERS—Dozen 25c
BRUSSELS SPROUTS—Quart 40c
BURN ARTICHOKES—Each 15c
BUNCH TURNIPS—(Large) Bunch 10c
TURNIP SALAD—Peck 15c
SPINACH—Peck 35c
MUSHROOMS—Pound 15c
GROUND ARTICHOKE—Pound 10c
HUBBARD SQUASH—Pound 5c
PUMPKINS—Pound 21c
IMPORTED CHESTNUTS—Pound 35c
CELERY HEARTS—Bundle of three 20c
PINEAPPLES—Each, 35¢, and 40c

(BROCCOLI TO ARRIVE FRIDAY)

Kamper's Four Stores

FOR SALE

Flat newsprint paper suitable for small publishers and job printers. The price is right.

P. O. Box 1731, Atlanta, Ga.

J. SAUL HONORED BY ATLANTA JEWS

J. Saul, well-known Georgia merchant and active philanthropic worker, was honored Thursday night with a banquet given by his friends and co-workers of the United Palestine appeal on the occasion of his 56th birthday and his unanimous election to the national campaign committee of the U. P. A. The gathering was held at the Jewish Progressive club.

Mr. Saul recently was notified of his election to the national campaign committee of the U. P. A. at the annual conference held in Cleveland several years ago. Mr. Saul has been particularly active in the work conducted among American Jews to raise funds for the rebuilding of a Jewish nation, serving as the first chairman in Atlanta of the United Palestine appeal. During the last annual campaign, Mr. Saul was one of the most zealous workers and served as vice chairman. Tribute for his long years of service was paid the community leader in addresses delivered by Joseph Goldberger, president of the Ahavath Achim congregation; Mrs. Sam E. Levy, president of the Hadassah; I. J. Paradise, chairman of the U. P. A.; Hyman S. Jacobs, vice president of the Ahavath Achim; Sol Romm, Charles Glazer and others. Presiding over the ceremonies as toastmaster was L. J. Levitt, chairman of the Atlanta Zionist district.

Mr. Saul recently was notified of his election to the national campaign committee of the U. P. A. at the annual conference held in Cleveland several years ago. Mr. Saul has been particularly active in the work conducted among American Jews to raise funds for the rebuilding of a Jewish nation, serving as the first chairman in Atlanta of the United Palestine appeal. During the last annual campaign, Mr. Saul was one of the most zealous workers and served as vice chairman. Tribute for his long years of service was paid the community leader in addresses delivered by Joseph Goldberger, president of the Ahavath Achim congregation; Mrs. Sam E. Levy, president of the Hadassah; I. J. Paradise, chairman of the U. P. A.; Hyman S. Jacobs, vice president of the Ahavath Achim; Sol Romm, Charles Glazer and others. Presiding over the ceremonies as toastmaster was L. J. Levitt, chairman of the Atlanta Zionist district.

At DANIEL'S

Nettleton
SHOES
$13.50
To $15

ALTERNATE the shoes
you have with a pair of Nettletons first one then the other

You'll soon find out why we say there are no finer shoes made.

Daniel Bros. Co.

"The Home of Nettleton Fine Shoes"
Founded 1886 45-49 Peachtree active in the work conducted among American Jews to raise funds for the rebuilding of a Jewish nation, serving as the first chairman in Atlanta of the United Palestine appeal. During the last annual campaign, Mr. Saul was one of the most zealous workers and served as vice chairman. Tribute for his long years of service was paid the community leader in addresses delivered by Joseph Goldberger, president of the Ahavath Achim congregation; Mrs. Sam E. Levy, president of the Hadassah; I. J. Paradise, chairman of the U. P. A.; Hyman S. Jacobs, vice president of the Ahavath Achim; Sol Romm, Charles Glazer and others. Presiding over the ceremonies as toastmaster was L. J. Levitt, chairman of the Atlanta Zionist district.

LEAGUE OF VOTERS TO STAGE DEBATE ON SCHOOL CHANGE

J. Allen Couch, alderman of the fifth ward and chairman of the school committee of city council, and George Powell, school commissioner from the ninth ward, will debate proposed charter amendments affecting schools at a meeting of the Atlanta League of Women Voters to be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce. A special invitation has been extended to all Parent-Teacher workers through Mrs. Charles Foster, president of the P-T. A. council.

Mr. Couch will favor the amendments which would make the chairman of the school committee an ex-officio member of the school board, give the mayor the right to pass on a school budget to be submitted to him not later than January 10 of each year and empower him to veto the budget. Mr. Powell will oppose the proposed amendments.

Following the debate, three minutes will be allowed so that members of the audience may ask questions on both sides of the question.

T. P. A. TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY TONIGHT

The first anniversary of the organization of Post C. P. Travelers Protective association, will be celebrated with a dance and card party tonight on the Ansley hotel roof, it was announced by H. S. Butler, chairman of the program committee.

Members of Atlanta post R and Decatur post F have been invited to attend the celebration as guests of Post C. P., of which L. O. Surles is president.

DR. HELLER TO SPEAK AT SYNAGOGUES AGAIN

Dr. Nachman Heller, rabbi and author of New York, who addressed congregations of the Ahavath Achim and Shearith Israel synagogues last Saturday and Sunday, will again speak at the synagogues this week-end.

Dr. Heller will speak in the course of the morning and evening services on Saturday and Sunday. He is in Atlanta as the guest of Rabbi Abraham P. Himmels, of the Ahavath Achim synagogue.

Order Your Greeting Cards Now!

The holiday season rapidly approaches. More than ever before engraved greeting cards will be used to convey personal and intimate messages. It is essential that orders be placed now.

By placing your orders now you will be assured timely and satisfactory delivery. You will be enabled to give thought to your message. Engraving departments will be unburied, and complete satisfaction is definitely made possible.

The most beautiful line in the city.

ORDER NOW!

HAWKES

(A. K. Hawkes Co.)

67 Whitehall St., S. W.

The Amazing Adventures Of Anarchist Aber

By Lawrence Aber.

As Told to Ben Cooper, Staff Representative of The Constitution.

CHAPTER VIII.—SOVIET ACTIVITIES; REMINGTON'S DEATH.

SYNOPSIS.

In previous installments of his amazing and thrilling narrative, Aber traced his ancestry to the British peerage and told of his birth in 1880 in Wales. Descent from a British naval schoolship, he roamed the streets of New York for a time and enlisted for the Spanish war. Following the Cuban conflict, Aber went to the Boer war in South Africa and was one of the defenders of Ladysmith.

After the Boer war, Aber shipped around Cape Horn and landed in the Fiji Islands, joining up with a trading schooner. He turned up in Manila later, and after being involved in a shooting affray, escaped to Sulu, where he professed Mohammedanism and married one of the daughters of the sultan of Sulu. His story tells of leading Moro troops against American soldiers, and of enlisting in the Canadian army and going to France.

After a brief service with the Canadians, Aber came back to America, and then went to Mexico where he became a member of Villa's army. His experiences in Mexico included service in the American troops as a Mexican spy.

Aber tells of his rescue from four sinking ships during the war, and of being ordered to St. Louis, Mo., by the radical organization to aid in a plot to blow up the Mississippi river bridges. The plot failed, however, and the continuous strain of his activities resulted in his being placed in a government hospital. He escaped and went to Peru.

My checkered career as a soldier of fortune and anarchist very narrowly escaped a permanent check-mate in Peru. Together with other soviet agents I started a campaign of labor agitation for the Legion of Workers, a red organization. Our activities extended also in Chile, but my work was concerned principally with agitation among the Indian laborers at Cerro del Pasco, or the Pass of the Mountains, a spot connected with the history of the ancient Aztecs.

We blew up the power plant at the Pass of the Mountains and undertook a general program of sabotage throughout the section. Strikes were called and industry brotled. The Peruvian had thousands of sympathizers and members in both Chile and Peru and the entire countries were rocked to their foundations, even the army joining in with a mutiny.

ABER, COMPANIONS ORDERED EXECUTED.

The government got busy and I and my companions were rounded up, together with many native radicals, and all were ordered executed. Pressure was brought to bear, however, and the president of Peru ordered us exiled. The native radicals were all sent to Juan Fernandez island of Robinson Crusoe fame, while I was sent to Panama and thence to the United States. In the states I was committed to a hospital again but, as usual, escaped and this time I went to California.

In California I met a man by the name of Earl C. Remington. Remington was engaged in "running guns, booze and aliens between California and Mexico. His wife did not know his real business, but imagined, as everyone else did, that he was a respectable business man. Remington, while not actually separated with his wife, was at outs with her, and on a party at the Log Cabin in Venice, Calif., he and Mrs. Remington got into a terrible argument.

I took Mrs. Remington's part in the quarrel and the episode broke up in a grand fight in which everybody was arrested but later released. Unfortunately, however, I had spilled the beans about Remington's business, and my connection with it, in talking too much, and I was arrested on a rum-running charge. Remington promised to bail me out but did not do so, and later I managed to bail myself out. That night I took a ship for the Philippines and the next morning Remington was found dead in front of his home. The clever police knew my trouble with him, checked up, and found that I had departed for parts unknown to them, and put two and two together. I was ordered arrested, but among my friends in the Moro country I was perfectly safe, as a Mohammedan will not give his brother away to a Christian.

SOVIET AGENTS KEPT POT BOILING.

Soviet agents in the island were keeping the pot boiling and I was in Sulu when the fight came off in 1923. I was captured and tried for defying the laws and smuggling, and sentenced to 20 years in Bilibid prison. My friends quickly secured a pardon for me and I was returning to the states to answer charges in the Remington case on the transport Sherman. A ship headed for Guam and in passing Magdalene straits went within a quarter of a mile of the beach. I was at liberty on deck, since the ship was out for the sea, when I dove over the rail into shark-infested waters. How I reached the shore is a mystery, but not a shark touched me, though plenty of them flashed by frequently. I made good my escape but subsequently was arrested again and brought to the states and the case was quashed and I was released as a mental case.

Escaping from the hospital at Ukiah, Calif., within a month I went north and met with arrest again in Tacoma for being a radical, but again I was sent to hospital, this time at American Lake, Washington, from where I escaped.

Early in 1925 I went to Florida, got in touch with the red officers and secured a job smuggling aliens and rum into the United States from Cuba. I have never seen a rum runner or an alien smuggler who was not a red. My run was from Cuba to the west coast of Florida and to Alabama, putting in at harbors near Tampa and Pensacola. I made nine trips in all with Chinese, Greeks, South Italians, Slavs and Russian red agents as passengers.

GIGANTIC SCALE OF ALIEN SMUGGLING.

Smuggling of aliens from Cuba to the United States was conducted on a gigantic scale with 12 to 15 boats maintained by the man for whom I worked. Many others were also in operation. These boats smuggled booze, aliens, narcotics, perfume and other things on a wholesale and massive scale. In Cuba the aliens bound for the states were trained so as to pass for Americans, given fake papers and schooled so as to be able to account for their presence in this country before they left Cuba. The average cost to each alien was approximately $750, of which $500 was clear profit to the smuggler. Landed on the Gulf coast the aliens were taken in charge by guards, who escorted them by rail, motor truck and other means to St. Louis, Cincinnati, Dayton, Cleveland and other northern cities. Through Atlanta at least one party was handled in this way every three days. The smugglers had stations in the cities along the route where the aliens passed the nights and are fed.

The alien smugglers were heavily armed and quite capable of putting up a stiff battle with interfering government boats. On one occasion I had a narrow brush with the coast guard cutter Yamacraw near Key West. One of the cutter's small motor boats gave chase but I ran behind a key, darkness fell, and I slipped away easily.

When cornered by government boats it was the practice of some of the smugglers to pitch their passengers overboard in order to escape arrest. Personally I never did anything like this, though there may have been dark episodes elsewhere in my career. Graft was a big factor in the success of alien smuggling from Cuba to the United States. I believe that fully 50 per cent of the officials, including Cubans who deal with smuggling, get a rake-off.

After eight months as an alien smuggler working out of Cuba I fell in with a plot which carried me to Nicaragua.

(To Be Continued.)

LEISTER CONTINUES TENACIOUS FIGHT AGAINST DEATH

Clinging tenaciously to a life which doctors say is in momentary danger of being snuffed out, 12-year-old Loren Leister passed another day Thursday in his remarkable fight against death, which began 10 days ago on Halloween night, when he was struck by a stray bullet said to have been fired by E. F. Kelley, proprietor of a Marietta street lunch stand.

The boy's mind is still active despite the fact that the bullet is lodged in a lobe of his brain and his entire right side is paralyzed. Attendants at the boy's bedside Thursday said they sensed an improvement in Loren's condition, but doctors said they could not affirm this.

DEAN JOHNSTON ENDS PSYCHOLOGY LECTURE SERIES

The final of a series of six lectures on psychology by Dean Thomas Johnston, of St. Philip's cathedral, was given Thursday night at the chapter house at East Hunter and Washington streets before a large audience. Dean Johnston is one of the best known lecturers in the southern states and has devoted a large part of his time to the study of psychology. Three of the lectures were given last week and the final three were given on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday night of this week. Unusually large crowds have attended and the proceeds derived from the ticket sales will go into a fund of the St. Mary's Guild, an auxiliary of the cathedral.

MUST PAY FINE AND NOT OPERATE CAR FOR 90 DAYS

Under condition that he donate $10 to the city government in the way of a fine, and solemnly promise not to operate an automobile for 90 days, W. C. Howard, 30, of 908 Hampton street, was given a 30-day suspended sentence in Recorder Murphy M. Holloway's court Thursday.

Howard was arrested Wednesday night on charges of drunk and reckless driving, after he had figured, police say, in a collision with two other cars on Spring street near Mills street. The officers at the time of the accident were nearly investigating circumstances surrounding the plunging of a roadster over an embankment.

Congressman Brand Speaks on Farm Relief To Lexington Audience

Athens, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Congressman Brand spoke at Lexington on the subject of farm relief legislation and particularly the McNary-Haugen bill. He is an ardent supporter of the bill which was vetoed by President Coolidge and contends that this or a similar bill will be reintroduced and passed by the next congress. Reports from the audience he has made upon this subject over his district indicate that his audiences are in hearty sympathy with this legislation.

The Oglethorpe Echo, in commenting upon Judge Brand's Lexington speech, says:

"Congressman C. H. Brand was here Monday and delivered a speech in the courtroom during the noon recess of court. He covered a number of matters now before congress of interest to our people, especially farmers, and made it clear what the provisions for this legislation meant to the farmers and those dependent upon the success of farmers. He was given rapt attention by a full house and his speech highly praised by many who heard it. Judge Brand is ever on the alert when legislation that directly affects his constituency is before congress."

PRESBYTERIAN LEAGUE IN FALL RALLY TONIGHT

Fall district rally of the Presbyterian Young People's league will be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the Grady Street Presbyterian church. W. T. Gordy, president of the Atlanta district, will preside.

After the business session, which will be featured by several addresses, a social hour will be held. All Presbyterian young people and their friends are invited to attend, it is announced.

Sandlot Elevens To Play Benefit For Leister Boy

The popular appeal of a benefit football game to be played for Loren Leister by his buddies of the Sandlot league was given an official touch Thursday when School Commissioner Roy D. Warren asked that parents, teachers and all pupils of the Atlanta public schools support the match.

Gamely fighting death from a wound inflicted by a stray bullet Halloween night, 12-year-old Loren Leister at Grady hospital, while his friends are completing arrangements for the game, to be staged at 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning at Spiller's ball park.

The opposing teams which will clash in behalf of a former playmate and comrade are the Peachtree Road Terriers and the O'Keefe Panthers, as game a pair of grid machines as Atlanta can muster, for all their 105-pound average.

Use of Spiller's ball pack has been donated by the management, while officials will contribute their services, thereby insuring delivery of the total gate receipts to Leister's hard-pressed family.

Admission prices will be 25 cents for children and 50 cents for adults, and the Sandlot teams are expecting a large attendance in view of the attraction offered and the cause in which it was conceived.

Slayers Escape.
St. Louis, November 17.—(Special.)—Pascual Sanino was shot and killed here today by two unidentified assailants in what police believed was a renewal of gang warfare in which 11 Italians have been killed since last August 8. The slayers escaped.

You Know a Tonic is Good when it makes you eat like a hungry boy and brings back the color to your cheeks. You can soon feel the Strengthening, Invigorating Effect of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. 60c.—(adv.)

DON'T LET THE WEATHER MAN WORRY YOU THIS WINTER

GET YOUR OVERCOAT HERE
and get correct style by

Hart Schaffner
& Marx

$39

You've never seen more thoroughly masculine overcoats than the ones here by Hart Schaffner & Marx.

With raglan shoulders or set-in sleeves, they have a swing as brisk as a frosty morning. They'll keep you stylish and comfortable, no matter how stiff the weather.

Hart Schaffner & Marx
suits, too, with one or two trousers.

$35 $45 $50

ZACHRY

116 Peachtree St.

Hart Schaffner & Marx
Clothes exclusively

WHY PAY CASH FOR NEW WINTER CLOTHES

It is no longer necessary for you to pay for your new clothes for yourself or your family out of your savings. Buy your new Winter Clothing here and pay for them out of your income.

ABSOLUTELY FREE—Your choice of a beautiful Bridge Lamp, Mahogany End Table or Aluminum Set
FREE with any purchase of $20 or more.

When you shop here you are assured of the newest styles, of the lowest prices and of the most generous
EASY PAYMENT TERMS.

A small amount down and just small time to time payments is all you need to get immediate possession of your new winter clothes.

ONLY $2.00 DOWN

Men's and Young Men's

OVERCOATS

$24.50

Good-looking, long-wearing fabrics, woven by prominent American mills. An unusual variety of shades and patterns.

Boys' Fine

SUITS, O'COATS

$11.98

They are made from finest materials and are sure to last him all winter.
The styles are the newest.

Women's and Misses'

COATS

$22.98 Up

Fur-trimmed styles fashioned from venise and broadcloth, which is the rage this season.

Stylish New Winter

DRESSES

$14.98

Styles that combine youth and grace. Silks, satins, velvets. A remarkable collection of the newest styles at such low prices.

Your Money Back If You Can Buy These Garments Cheaper for Cash

The OLSHINE CO.
Store of Values!

135 WHITEHALL, S. W., CORNER MITCHELL

Men's and Young Men's

Two-Pants

SUITS

$29.50

Two and three, single and double breasted models, all expertly tailored of the highest quality woolens.

Old-Time Fiddlers To Open Veterans of Many Contests Will Be on Hand Today and Tomorrow Annual Convention Tonight

Fiddlers from all over Georgia, with perhaps a dozen from near-by states, will assemble at the Atlanta auditorium at 8 o'clock tonight ready for the two-day session of the Old Time Fiddlers' association and its annual contest for the fiddling championship of the south.

Scores of the old timers, veterans of a dozen contests, will be on hand, some to try again and some to cheer for their friends. With them will be sons and grandsons and a few cousins, for the country fiddler brings his audience with him, and admirers of county champions are as loyal and enthusiastic as any follower of football star or boxing champ.

The opening session will begin at 8 o'clock tonight. Saturday two sessions will hold the interest, a matinee at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the final and clean-up meeting at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. The night sessions will last until about 11 o'clock.

Fiddler John Carson, for years the most famous of Georgia country musicians, will be there, saving an "Old Time" and surrounded all day by a circle of admirers. Old Tinner, from Gwinnett county, who sings falsetto and bass, will give his usual lessons, without fee, for the country fiddler is generous in imparting his art to rival the year. No seats are reserved, and first comers hurry to the front rows an hour before the starting time. Late arrivals find places where they can.

The fiddlers this year will "break into the movies," as a telegram from New York to the local management of the Metro-Goldwyn company instructed the camera man to "shoot the fiddlers" for a national news reel.

ADAMS ON TRIAL TODAY AS SHOOTING SUSPECT

J. M. Adams, Hewlett road farmer, charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the firing on Claud E. Webb and Charles E. Lyle, county policemen, on August 24, will go on trial this morning before Judge Earl Camp, of the Dublin district, who is presiding in Judge G. H. Howard's division of Fulton superior court.

The case was called shortly after noon Thursday and a jury was selected to hear the case. Court was recessed a few minutes later, however, out of respect to Fred Smith, Fulton county deputy sheriff, who died recently.

Adams was indicted August 25 following his arrest by county police, who found two shotguns and a pistol in his home. The officers were members of a raiding party which was looking for a cache of liquor in Grosvenor's district, just off Howlett road. The police were fired on from ambush shortly after dusk and Officers Lyle and Webb were shot in the legs. They were carried to local hospital, where they were confined for more than two weeks pending recovery.

ATLANTA HUMANE SOCIETY REFLECTS J. CARROLL PAYNE

J. Carroll Payne was unanimously selected president of the Atlanta Humane society at its annual meeting held recently in the Chamber of Commerce building. Other officers included Mrs. Joseph Moore and Mrs. Tracy Hill, vice presidents; Miss Grace Milliken, secretary, and William Wallace Lyons, treasurer.

The board of directors was named as follows: Mrs. H. S. Wagner, Mrs. A. V. Gude, Mrs. R. K. Rando, Mrs. T. F. Stouffer, Mrs. J. R. Pettit, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. E. P. McBurney, J. P. Stevens, R. F. Shedd, Dr. Spencer Stone, Charles F. Palmer, Lewis Beck and Julian Boon.

The society is one of the agencies fostered by the Community Chest, and maintains a hospital for sick and injured animals. The organization also employs a field officer, who cares for animals injured in the streets and prosecutes cases of cruelty. Persons desiring to report such cases can do so by calling Hemlock 3347.

DUNLAP AGENCY GETS CREDIT APPOINTMENT

The Edgar Dunlap Insurance Agency, with offices in the Candler building, has announced its appointment as agents of the American Security Credit company of St. Louis, Mo. James C. Dunlap, secretary, in announcing the appointment, said that under the Dunlap agency offering business houses a contract which "is new in character and sound in every particular."

Antrim and Leavett Head Avondale Community Club

H. C. ANTRIM.

A. S. LEAVETT.

At the annual meeting of the Avondale Community club held Thursday evening, H. C. Antrim, of the Jessup Ice Cream Co., was elected president for the ensuing year, succeeding S. G. Gilbreath. Mr. Antrim is one of Atlanta's best known business men, active in the affairs of the ice cream and dairy interests and was recently elected president of the Dairy Products Manufacturers' association of Georgia. He is also a member of the advisory board of the Georgia association.

The Avondale Community club is now completing its first year of existence. It has a large membership, limited to residents and property owners of Avondale Estates, and is the center of the social life of that suburb.

Many High Schools Will Enter Plays In One-Act Tourney

High schools of Atlanta, Marietta and Decatur will present entries Friday and Saturday for a one-act play tournament which will be conducted in Marietta under the auspices of the Marietta Young Women's Christian association. The tournament will be held at the home of Mrs. Reginald Rambo Benson, president of the "Y. W." and Mrs. Alice Stewart Stephens, chairman of the tournament committee.

From Atlanta, dramatic clubs will be represented from Girls' High school, Boys' High school, Commercial High school and Fulton High school. The Decatur High school will send a company to present a one-act play, while Marietta will be represented by the Blue Devils' club and the Girl Reserves.

The company presenting the prize play will be awarded a silver loving cup. A cup also will be given to the ablest individual actor in the casts.

C. M. E. CONFERENCE HONORS MEMORY OF BISHOP HOLSEY

Unveiling of a monument to the late Bishop L. H. Holsey, at South View cemetery, featured Thursday's program of the annual state conference of the Colored Methodist Episcopal churches, which convened Wednesday afternoon in the West Mitchell C. M. E. church.

Over 200 ministers and delegates are in attendance at the conference. Bishop R. A. Carter, of Chicago, Ill., is presiding and assisted by elders, administered the communion after a special sermon by Rev. W. F. Kelley, of Sparta, Ga.

Rev. G. H. Carter, of Atlanta, was elected secretary, with W. B. Kelley, assistant, and J. A. Martin was selected as reporter to the press. Two daily sessions of the conference are being held at the West Mitchell church, West Mitchell and Tattall streets.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE IS NEARING CLOSE

Milledgeville, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—The second day's session of the annual conference of the A. M. E. church, holding annual sessions daily in Wesley chapel, was opened by Rev. G. B. Lancaster, pastor of the church, who presided, presiding, is rushing the business of the conference to a close. Rev. G. P. Dunn conducted the religious services at the morning session. The minutes of previous sessions were approved.

The following transfers were announced by the bishop: Rev. W. Boyd Lawrence and J. G. Brown from Atlanta conference to Macon conference; Rev. C. K. Knight and E. G. Harris from the North Georgia conference to Macon conference; Rev. C. G. Wiley, Americus conference, Rev. S. Fields and Rev. A. J. Jones from Augusta conference to Macon conference.

The superannuated preachers, widows and orphans were listed today by the bishop for connectional beneficiaries. The brotherhood, an auxiliary membership, which entitles a definite sum at death to wife and family of the departed minister, was reviewed by the bishop and renewals granted today.

Certificates of membership and alternates were given to those elected to the general conference in their order as follows: Revs. B. S. Hanna, E. Grimes, J. H. Jones, A. Towles, J. W. English, G. B. Lancaster, J. W. Mitchell, John Harmon, L. H. Smith, W. C. Kelley, alternates, Revs. G. H. Jones, J. H. Jones, J. D. Brown, David Norris, H. H. Johnson, R. L. Smith, R. E. Romans, J. D. Gray, C. G. Wiley, J. M. Fleminster.

The transfer of Rev. E. Johnson from the Atlanta conference to the Macon conference was announced by the bishop.

A. Wingfield, state superintendent of Sunday school work, plans "model work" of a class Sunday morning. Friday night is educational conference. The speakers will be Dr. John H. Lewis, president Morris-Brown university; Dr. W. G. Alexander, Dean Turner Theological seminary.

The Conference Missionary society, according to reports submitted to conference, led the state in the work. Alma Williams is president; J. T. Smith, treasurer; Laura Thomas, secretary. Beginning with Macon district, the pastors submitted reports on the progress of conversions and accessions to the entire activity of the church, throughout the bounds of the conference.

Rev. Noah Williams, of St. Louis, addressed the conference today. Dr. John Harmon responded to the address. The Morris-Brown university sextette will feature the educational program on Friday night. Rev. E. D. Newsome, head of the state evangelism bureau, is in attendance at the conference.

SUIT NOT TO DELAY TRACK LOWERING

Despite court action to prevent erection of the Pryor street and Central avenue viaducts, B. E. Brooks, of the Brooks-Callaway Contracting company, will begin preliminary work today to lower tracks over which the bridges are to be constructed, it was announced Thursday.

At the same time Mayor I. N. Ragsdale announced that J. J. Pelly, president of the Central of Georgia railway, signed agreements to lower the spur track maintained by that road in part of the depression area.

Work on the project will be pushed as rapidly as possible unless Fulton county courts order it stopped, Mr. Brooks said.

General belief in city hall circles was that the suit, which was filed before Judge E. D. Thomas in Fulton superior court Thursday morning seeking an order restraining work on the lowering of the railway tracks, would not materially delay any of the improvement work.

Waldron Files Suit.

The suit was brought by R. P. Waldron, a taxpayer, through his attorney, W. Paul Carpenter and Aladine and Hewitt Chambers, and charged that the city had no right to contract with the Brooks-Callaway Contracting company with other concern for having the railroad tracks lowered. Nullification of the contract and an injunction perpetual restraining the city from further contract for such work was asked.

Judge Thomas set hearing on the petition for November 22, but declined to sign the restraining order clause.

The principal contention in the petition is that there is not enough money in the city treasury to pay for the project, and that the city has no right to sign a contract without having the funds for payment.

The city is depending on Fulton county for $500,000 to go toward the project, and the county at the present time has no such sum and will not have it at the time it was promised. The appropriation by the county is illegal, it was also averred.

The Georgia Power company's contribution of $400,000 to the bridges was attacked as illegal.

SALVATION ARMY MISSIONARIES HERE ON SPEAKING TOUR

Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Noble, engaged in missionary work under auspices of the Salvation Army in India, arrived in Atlanta Thursday for a short visit here.

Dr. Noble, who also has the rank of major in the Salvation Army, is a graduate of Emory university and lived here for several years prior to his foreign service.

Dr. Noble plans to leave Atlanta today in the course of a speaking tour which will take him to Shreveport, New Orleans and other points on the Gulf coast. Mrs. Noble, a former Atlanta girl, Miss Ethel Dodd, will remain in Atlanta long enough to address services at the Salvation Army temple Sunday night, it was announced.

Local staff officers will go to Griffin during the coming week to participate in a Salvation Army day celebration there. Among those will be Commissioner W. A. McIntyre, Lieutenant Colonel Peacock, the field secretary and other officials. The local band will attend the Atlanta delegation, it was announced.

Colonel Alfred A. Chandler, chief secretary, will conduct a special campaign at Birmingham, Ala.

GAULTNEY GETS YEAR IN AUTO DEATH CASE

W. F. Gaultney, convicted of involuntary manslaughter in connection with an automobile accident on March 1 in which E. J. Hodges was killed, was sentenced to serve from one year to a year and a day imprisonment Thursday by Judge Earl Camp, presiding in Fulton superior court.

Hodges was a passenger in the car alleged to have been driven by Gaultney which crashed into a trolley car at the intersection of Whitehall and Brotherton streets. He received injuries in the crash from which he succumbed.

After deliberating on the case for more than five hours Wednesday night, the jury returned a sealed verdict which was read in open court Thursday morning and was followed by the sentencing.

The defendant was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter in the commission of an unlawful act in that he is alleged to have been driving too far over on the left side of the street.

Judge Camp, of the Dublin circuit, is presiding in Judge H. Howard's division of the court. Judge Howard is on a brief vacation.

TWO COUNCILMEN HAVE OPPOSITION AT ATHENS

Athens, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Entries for the democratic primary here November 22 have closed and announced is made by Charles E. Martin, chairman of the county executive committee, that only two of the city wards report opposing candidates. In the fourth ward George D. Bennett, Clarke county legislator, is opposed by J. P. McCall and in the fifth ward Vincent Matthews is opposed by H. L. Howland. Howland retired from council last year.

The incumbents in the first, second and third wards are unopposed. They are H. T. Culp, H. B. Heywood and Bolling DuBose. Mayor A. G. Dudley

MIKELL TO SPEAK BEFORE NEW YORK SOUTHERN SOCIETY

New York, November 17.—(Special.) Among the speakers at the 42d annual dinner of the New York Southern society at the Waldorf Astoria on December 14, will be Bishop H. J. Mikell, of Atlanta. Judge John C. Knox, senior judge of the United States district court for the southern district of New York, will also address the meeting.

Train S. Cobb, as chairman of the dinner committee, which includes William G. Fitzwillson and Charles S. McCain, announces an interesting program. For the first time in the history of the society, ladies will be invited to the dinner.

SCHEDULE CHANGES GEORGIA RAILROAD

Effective Sunday, November 20, 1927, train No. 3, arriving Atlanta 3:30 p. m. and train No. 6, leaving Atlanta 12:15 p. m., will be discontinued.

Train No. 8 leave Atlanta 2:30 p. m. instead of 3 p. m.

Train No. 3 arrive Atlanta 5:25 a. m. instead of 5:30 a. m.

Train No. 1 arrive Atlanta 12 noon instead of 12:30 p. m.

Train No. 7 arrive Atlanta 5:45 p. m. instead of 8:10 p. m.

Train No. 13 from Social Circle Sunday only discontinued.

Train No. 14, Atlanta to Social Circle daily except Sunday, no change leaving Atlanta. Slight changes between Conyers and Social Circle, arriving Social Circle 9:10 p. m. instead of 9:20 p. m. J. P. BILLY, G. P. A.—(adv.)

When you buy
CANNED SOUPS
Remember to buy a bottle of LEA & PERRINS' SAUCE

CRICHTON'S
Shorthand
Take our FREE DEMONSTRATION LESSON and you will understand how this wonderful shorthand can be mastered in four months or less.
SEND FOR CATALOG.
Nearly 40 Years in Atlanta. Crichton's Business College. Whitehall and Trinity

70% of Your Child's School-work is in the Morning! Give QUAKER OATS
The Breakfast that "Stands By" You

Sheaffer Pens, Pencils and Desk Sets—The Ideal Gift
A. K. HAWKES CO., Opticians
A Repair Department For All Makes of Pens
67 WHITEHALL ST., S.W. ATLANTA, GA.

Are you carrying a little white dot on your fountain-pen?

The little white dot, the telltale white dot, is visual evidence of the fact that you have been wise enough to buy the highest priced pen made, because you could be satisfied with nothing less than the best. It is the mark of distinction in penmanship. It means for you flawless writing guaranteed unconditionally for a lifetime. It symbolizes your good taste for beautiful things and enduring. The Lifetime pen costs more, is worth more. It is the pen that spends most days in the writing hand and least in the repair shop. And the sturdy Titan pencil is its worthy companion.

"Lifetime" pens in green or black, $8.75; Ladies' $7.50; pencil, $4.25. Others lower.

At better stores everywhere

SHEAFFER'S
PENS - PENCILS - SKRIP
W. A. SHEAFFER PEN COMPANY - FORT MADISON, IOWA

SHEAFFER SERVICE
MILLER'S BOOK STORE
64 NORTH BROAD

DESK SETS
$7.50 to $100.00

Sheaffer Pens $3.00 to $15.00

FIGHT FILM CASE HEARD BY SIBLEY; DECISION LATER

Argument and evidence on the petition of the Metropolitan theater and Frank H. Hicks for the return of the Dempsey-Tunney fight films seized by the government on a search warrant, was presented to Federal Judge Samuel H. Sibley Thursday morning in the United States district court. Judge Sibley reserved his decision pending his reading of the record in the case.

The petition heard Thursday was an appeal for a review of the decision of United States Commissioner L. S. Leubetter in ruling that the search warrant under which the films were seized was entirely legal.

FRATERNITY HOUSE OF SIGMA NU LOSES TO UNKNOWN THIEF

Collegiate attire, fraternity pins and loose change in large quantities was garnered from the Sigma Nu fraternity house at 115 Fifth street, N. W., by burglars who broke into the premises early Thursday and escaped without disturbing anyone, police were told. This robbery is the latest of a long series of thefts from the fraternity house residents of the vicinity.

A negro passerby, seeing Mrs. J. R. Brewer park her car and enter her home at 277 Hunt street, opened the automobile door and helped himself to a pocketbook she had left in the trunk of her little son's car. Police have been unable to locate the man.

WALDROP TO HEAD BECK DETACHMENT OF MARINE LEAGUE

T. M. Waldrop was elected commandant of the Marcus W. Beck, Jr., detachment of the Marine Corps League at a regular monthly meeting recently. Other officers elected are: Anstey A. Cranston, vice commandant; L. H. Lanes, paymaster; Milton Waroker, adjutant, and Dr. E. C. Swanson, sergeant-at-arms.

R. C. Anderson, chairman of the entertainment committee, reported that more than 1,000 tickets have been sold for the grand military ball to be held in the city auditorium on December 16.

Mr. Anderson, whose term of office as commandant recently expired, was voted a life member of the detachment in appreciation of his efforts during his term of office.

For Raging Headache

SOOTHING AND QUIETING RELIEF

Take B. C. to break up raging, nervous or dizzy headaches. B. C. relieves all kinds of pain and aches—rheumatism, rheumatoid, sciatica, neuralgia, toothache, headache and women's pains. Checks colds and breaks up flu and grippe. No bad after effects. Ends insomnia and brings rest. Simple, safe and sure. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. From dealers everywhere. B. C. Remedy Co., Durham, N. C.

BLACK APRIL

An authentic social document, an intense, unforgettable story.

—DuBose Heyward

92 So. All Stores Bobbs Merrill

PILE SUFFERERS

Get this handy tube
Instant, soothing relief and guaranteed cure. No surgery. No pain. No expense. The Dermatologist will refund money if it fails to relieve. Write for free literature. P. O. Box 100, New York, N. Y.

Style-Value EASY CREDIT
Just Say "Charge It"

MEN'S SUITS AND Overcoats
$40 AND $45

Ladies' COATS AND Dresses
$16.75 TO $34.75

LIBERAL TERMS
Our plan of credit requires only $2 down and the remainder in easiest weekly payments.

COOK Clothing Co.
18 BROAD ST., N. W.

FULTON
as a Business Counsellor

It may not be once in a year that you need the counsel of an experienced banker-business man. It may be that you want, week by week, someone outside your business with whom you may confidently and confidentially discuss it in detail.

Whether you are at one extreme or the other, or somewhere between, the Fulton National is the bank to which you may turn, knowing that your affairs will have the benefit of many years of practical business administration, plus the calm, judicial viewpoint of the banker.

For Fulton executives, before they are bankers, are sound business men. Many of them have made outstanding successes in their own enterprises. All of them have had a hand in guiding the enterprises of Friends of Fulton to successful conclusions.

And that wealth of practical experience is at your disposal, freely, gladly, whenever you step into our doors on Marietta Street. It is just as much a part of our service to you as any other feature of our complete banking service.

FULTON NATIONAL BANK
MARIETTA STREET—Just 67 Steps from Five Points

Stationery Dept., Davison-Paxon Co., Street Floor

"Innocent Bystander" Plea Fails as Negro Is Held on Wet Charge

The "innocent bystander" got it in the neck again Thursday. Henry Murphy and James Davis, negroes, both of Clayton county, appeared before United States Commissioner L. S. Ledbetter on charges of being in suspicious proximity to a moonshine still. In fact, prohibition agents said, the two defendants were standing by the still.

Murphy told Judge Ledbetter that he was just passing by on a hunting trip, ran across the still, and stopped a moment to get a drink when the agents arrived. Davis, however, admitted that he was working at the still, although he denied ownership. Davis said that he took his pay out in whisky.

Both defendants were held for the federal grand jury under $200 bond each.

Church Address.

A. T. Walden, Atlanta colored attorney, will address the South Atlanta Methodist Episcopal church tonight at 8 o'clock. An interesting program has been arranged for tonight. Music will be furnished by students from Clark university.

RADIO-ING The Air Waves.

FEATURE PROGRAMS ON AIR FRIDAY

7:00 p. m.—Cities Service Orchestra. WEAF and 16 stations.
7:30 p. m.—Royal Stenographers. WJZ and seven stations.
8:00 p. m.—Anglo-Persians. WEAF and 20 stations.
8:30 p. m.—Dodge Brothers Hour. WOR and 15 stations.
8:45 p. m.—Mediterranean Dance Band. WJZ and Blue Network.
9:00 p. m.—La France Orchestra. WEAF and 12 stations.
9:15 p. m.—Money Honey Hour. WJZ and Blue Network.
9:30 p. m.—Herbert Hoover address. Academy of Political Science. WEAF and 16 stations.
9:45 p. m.—Red Network. Cap'n Kidd program. WOR and 15 stations.
10:00 p. m.—Ed Nichols' Charleston Chasers. WOR and 15 stations.

WSB PROGRAMS FOR FRIDAY

10 a. m.—homemakers' chat, weather and market news; 10:30 a. m.—public school of the air; 11:00 a. m.—"Doing on Thanksgiving Day," by Mary Hale Martin; noon, Dinnerbell R. P. D. club program from the Sears-Roebuck tower; 1:00 p. m.—radio farm program; 1:30 p. m.—University of Georgia program; 2:30 p. m.—market broadcast; 7:00 p. m.—program sponsored by the North Carolina society; 8:00 p. m.—concert featuring talent from Fort McPherson; 10:45 p. m.—concert.

PROGRAMS TONIGHT

By the Associated Press. Program in Standard Time. All times in P. M. unless otherwise indicated. Wives on right. Left on left letters, Kites on right.
7:30—WBAL, Baltimore—1050—5:30. Dance orchestra. 6:00. Mated Quartet. 7:30. Royal Stenographers. 8:00. Dance orchestra. 8:30. WEEL, Boston—1050—5:30. Dance orchestra. 6:00. Cities Service Orchestra. 8:00. Anglo-Persians. 8:30. Commodore Hotel Orchestra. 9:00. Dodge Brothers Hour. 9:30. Cap'n Kidd program. 9:45. Red Network. 10:00. Blue Network. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:01—WEAF New York—610—5:30. Wal-dorf Astoria orchestra. 6:00. The Seven Rivers. 6:30. Cities Service Orchestra. 8:00. Wal-dorf Astoria orchestra. 8:30. La France Orchestra. 9:00. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:30. WJZ New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:05—WFLA, Tampa—1050—5:30. Adeline Walcott orchestra. 6:00. WFLA orchestra. 8:00. WFLA orchestra. 8:30. WFLA orchestra. 9:00. WFLA orchestra. 9:30. WFLA orchestra. 10:00. WFLA orchestra. 10:30. WFLA orchestra.
8:15—KDKA, Pittsburgh—580—6:00. ad. address. University of Pittsburgh. 7:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Royal Stenographers. 9:00. Royal Stenographers. 9:30. Royal Stenographers. 10:00. Royal Stenographers. 10:30. Royal Stenographers.
8:20—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:25—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:30—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:35—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:40—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:45—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:50—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
8:55—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:00—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:05—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:10—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:15—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:20—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:25—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:30—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:35—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:40—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:45—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:50—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
9:55—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:00—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:05—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:10—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:15—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:20—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:25—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:30—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:35—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:40—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:45—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:50—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
10:55—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:00—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:05—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:10—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:15—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:20—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:25—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:30—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:35—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:40—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:45—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:50—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
11:55—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.
12:00—WJZ, New York—680—5:30. George H. Ruggie orchestra. 6:00. Savoy Plaza Orchestra. 7:30. David Taylor. 8:00. Royal Stenographers. 8:30. Mediterranean Dance Band. 9:00. Ruth Watson, soprano. 10:30. Shmober Music.

Admiral Brings New Mother Home to Family of Seven

Charleson, S. C., November 17.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Newton A. McCully, and his bride came home today to the Charleston navy yard, there to be welcomed by their happy Russian children, the admiral's adopted family, who had spent the afternoon in excited anticipation of the homecoming of the bride and bridegroom.

The family of nine, the admiral and his eight orphans—for Mrs. McCully like the children, is an orphan—was united in the big house under the live-oaks.

"I didn't tell anybody about my plans before I left," the admiral said. "Because I wasn't sure that it would be pulled off, myself. I only found out a few months ago that Olga had been divorced from the young Russian she married while I was still in Russia and although I had written to her on somewhat different footing when I heard the news, I was not sure that she would be agreeable."

But, as a naval officer, trained in the careful preparation of campaign plans, he built his bridges behind him. And with somewhat more experience than ordinary in the art of winning the heart of a Russian, the admiral, he must have had an idea that he would not be refused.

In Washington with the state department, the admiral had been in quest of his bride, a written request for a passport for the Mrs. McCully. They had not seen each other in ten years, having parted in Russia in 1917, when the admiral was 50 years old and the future Mrs. McCully 19.

At Royal, now Tallin, since it became Estonian territory, she had been and there, October 15, was solemnized the wedding of Mrs. Olga Krutshoff, 29, to Rear Admiral Newton A. McCully, 60.

The seven children were in a peak of excitement for hours before the bride and bridegroom's arrival, interrupting their games and reading to rush to the window at the purr of every passing motor. And at 5:30 o'clock, when the official car finally arrived, the whole retinue leaped outside to be the first to extend greetings. The admiral got out of the car first and hugged and kissed Antonina, 18, and Nintelka, 12, the two girls who were first to reach him. He passed on to the others and the two little girls clambered into the car to see their new mother.

Foodie, the younger boy, shook hands with the admiral, refusing to be kissed, while Nikolai, the elder, was all smiles as he unloaded the suitcases. Anastasia, 16, went to the joy as she embraced the admiral, and Luidmila, 17, who once had been worried when she thought the admiral had married another Olga, whom she had seen with him in Russia, smiled contentedly. Tonetchka, 9, was in a hubbub all during the ceremony of welcome.

Mrs. McCully was quiet throughout the proceedings. She is pretty, with a shock of bobbed hair which she brushed back from her forehead. She uses no make-up. She speaks a little English, slowly and deliberately, although Admiral McCully says that she reads and writes it very well, having studied the theory of the language for a long time. But Russian, of course, is the home language of the children, like the admiral, speak both Russian and English-Russian at home among themselves and with their governess, and English with visitors and reporters.

tion as compared with 24.2 for the corresponding quarter last year, and 17.8 for 1926.

In connection with the lowering birth rate, Dr. Halliday Sutherland of London, said "the time is rapidly approaching when the population of England will consist of a large number of old people, supported by the work of a small number of young."

NOTICE

Important Schedule Changes Southern Railway System.

Effective Nov. 21, SUWANEE RIVER SPECIAL through winter train to West Coast of Florida re-established, leaving Atlanta 12:15 P. M.

Northbound leaves Atlanta 8:25 P. M., commencing Nov. 23, for Cincinnati, Chicago, Detroit, etc.

Effective Nov. 21, No. 21 from Chattanooga arrives 11:15 A. M. No. 31 from Chattanooga arrives 7:15 P. M.

No. 25 from Macon 12:25 P. M. continued. No. 24 from Macon 2:50 P. M. discontinued.

No. 136 for Charlotte, Washington leaves 7:30 P. M.

No. 39 from Washington and intermediate points arrives 4:15 P. M. (cont.)

REPEAL OF AUTO SALES TAX URGED

Washington, November 17.—(AP)—An amendment to the revenue law designed to prevent holding corporations from evading the tax on corporation incomes was approved today by the house ways and means committee for incorporation in the tax bill, which it is now drafting.

Chairman Green said that the committee after considerable discussion approved a provision that would materially strengthen section 220 of the present act, which deals with the tax on incomes of corporations that fail to declare dividends to stockholders.

The question of either rewriting entirely or revising that section has been a contested subject. The recommendations of the advisory committee on the joint congressional committee on internal revenue legislation was bitterly opposed by several members, and Mr. Green indicated that the provision approved represented somewhat of a compromise.

During the day at the white house, a delegation representing the automobile industry appealed to President Coolidge to exert his influence in behalf of the repeal of the 3 per cent tax on automobile sales, and at the capitol Speaker Longworth said he believed the $225,000,000 recommended by the treasury as the maximum tax on automobile sales, and at the slice suggested by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States represented the extremes for prospective tax reduction.

While the speaker himself did not propose a specific figure he said he hoped it would be possible for congress to repeal all of the present excise taxes, including those on automobiles, sales, theater tickets and club dues; reduce the tax on corporation incomes from 15 1/2 per cent to at least 12 per cent and provide a downward revision for surtax rates on incomes in the intermediate brackets.

ENGLAND, WALES REPORT LOWEST RATE OF BIRTHS

London, November 17.—(United News.)—England and Wales recorded the lowest birth rate in their history for the quarter ended September 30. The figures, published today, show only 16.7 births per thousand population as compared with 24.2 for the corresponding quarter last year, and 17.8 for 1926.

Prevent Dandruff

Liquid Zemo Keeps Scalp Clean

Pleasant, healing, Liquid Zemo massaged into the scalp destroys dandruff. Irritations, soreness and itching frequently disappear overnight. Zemo penetrates, soothes and cleanses the scalp, keeps it healthy and prevents dandruff. It is a clean, safe, healing liquid—convenient to use at any time. All druggists—25c, 50c and $1.00.

zemo FOR SKIN IRRITATIONS

Many a man has lost his heart because of beautiful wavy hair. It does attract men. Pretty women have found Queen Hair Dressing brings out every beauty of their hair no matter how coarse, dull, thin and wavy it may have been. Queen keeps it beautiful, too. Besides, Queen magically cures away dandruff. 10,000,000 (ten million) treatments of Queen were used last year. Pretty women prefer Queen and generally use the entire treatment. Send 5c in stamps for complete treatment now or 25c for Queen Hair Dressing alone. AGENTS WANTED: Double money surpluses free present plan. Write and find out about it.

Newbro Mfg. Co. 14-D Newbro Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

No Extra Charge For CREDIT

Less to pay and easier to pay, that's the A. & B. way. First quality clothing at reasonable prices. No need to wait until you can pay cash—come to us and pay for your clothing as you wear it. We trust you.

MEN'S SUITS and O'COATS

Suits of quality and style. Finely tailored of pure woolen materials. 2 and 3 button, single and double breasted models. A style and color to suit every one.

Big warm coats. Medium weights and light linings. A night and day style to suit every taste. All are tailored to fit perfectly and are made of long wearing pure woolen fabrics.

$29.50 UP $29.50 UP

TERMS

EASY $2 DOWN

Opens Your Account

Boy's Suits $9.95 UP

Ladies' LUXURIOUS COATS $16.98 up

LOVELY NEW DRESSES $14.98 up

Clever fall models that you may buy on easy terms. They have just come from the manufacturer and are the season's latest.

A. & B. CLOTHING CO.

174 MITCHELL ST., S. W., (OLD NUMBER 10)

Now AC Electric Radio

Without the uncertainty of untried apparatus

And without any sacrifice in quality of reception

There are two ways you can own an AC receiver. One is to discard your present radio set and buy a new and untried receiver, using a new and untried type of tube, at a sacrifice of quality of reception.

The other way is simply to add Balkite Electric "AB" to your present radio set. Balkite Electric "AB" replaces both "A" and "B" batteries and supplies radio power from the light socket. Entirely batteryless, it makes any standard set an electric receiver.

With this method there is

Balkite ELECTRIC AB

Contains no battery

no sacrifice in reception. For it makes possible the use of the standard type of set end of standard type tubes, both of which are tried and proved and give by far the clearest and truest reproduction. There is no waiting for tubes to warm up. No difficulty in controlling volume. No noise, no AC hum. No crackling, no booming, no blasting. Instead the same high standard of reception to which you are accustomed.

And if you already own a radio set, the cost of equipping it with Balkite is only a fraction of the cost of buying a new receiver.

By all means go to AC reception. Its convenience is the greatest radio improvement you could buy. But let your AC receiver be a standard radio set equipped with Balkite Electric "AB."

Two models, $64.50 and $74.50. Ask your dealer. Fansteel Products Co., Inc., North Chicago, Illinois.

Chicago Civic Opera on the air Thursday Evenings, 10 o'clock Eastern time. Overstations WJZ, WJZ-A, WJZ, KDKA, KYW, WGN, WMAQ, WBAL, WHAM, WJR, WLV, 10:30 Eastern time: WBBH, KDK, WOC, WOV, WCCO, WHO, WDAF.

BALKITE HOUR

Fired One Shot As Girl Sped By, Officer Admits

Selma, Ala., November 17.—(AP)—A single shot "fired into the air" by Police Chief H. E. Blake, of Calera, Ala., was added late today to the tangle of circumstantial evidence with which state investigators hope to disprove the official verdict that Miss Louise Montebello, 24, committed suicide last Monday night after Blake and another officer had arrested her for speeding.

Chief Blake said today that he "fired one shot into the air while speeding 50 miles per hour in attempt to capture the girl, who was driving from her home in Berlin, Ala., to Birmingham."

"Immediately after the shot was fired a bottle was thrown from the car," Blake added.

The officer said the girl "was very polite to them" when they stopped her when she started to drive her car to Calera, she drew a small automatic pistol and shot herself through the head.

An autopsy by Dr. F. G. Duhose, of Selma, disclosed the fact that there was no powder burn around the bullet wound.

"Powder burns are almost invariably found in suicide cases," Dr. Duhose said. "The physician who found that the bullet which caused the girl's death was of a larger caliber than that used in the pistol which she carried."

A report of Dr. R. B. Ross, state chemist, who is examining the girl's viscera for traces of alcohol, has not yet been made, Dr. Duhose said.

A sum of money, the girl is known to have had shortly before she left on her fatal trip was found to be missing, Dr. Duhose said.

Miss Montebello was a traveling saleswoman.

Two officers of the state law enforcement department were detailed to the case last night by Chief Walter K. McAdore of Montgomery.

Prosecutor Judge Eddle, of Columbia, Ala., decided it was a case of suicide. Investigation was started, however, at the request of the girl's family.

Constitution Truck Turns Fire Truck: Jonesboro Thankful

Among bricks heated by the public at the time of the fire in the Constitution on Thursday, the city of Jonesboro, Ga., is now and then, as attested by a "thank-you" note received by The Constitution on Thursday from the city of Jonesboro, Ga.

It seems that a truck driver, while distributing The Constitution Monday morning, pulled up alongside the Jonesboro fire department listening to a local blaze. The volunteers were somewhat breathless from hauling a hose-car.

"Hook it on and let's go," invited the driver.

Hurriedly the apparatus was attached, and that enabled the fire fighters "to save other homes in the vicinity," according to the mayor.

Whatever befell the first home, not disclosed, it did not deter the mayor and city council from adopting, by unanimous vote, an expression of appreciation.

COLE'S HOT BLAST HEATER

Will Protect Your Loved Ones From This Freezing Weather. Plenty of Extra Help to Assist Our Experts on Immediate Installation---This Cold Weather Is Here to Stay.

DON'T WAIT

ORDER YOUR STOVE TODAY

For cozy comfort

CABINET CIRCULATOR COLE'S ORIGINAL

Three Sizes, One to Ten-Room Capacity

Air is a light substance, especially when heated to 250 degrees. Cole's No. 704 will lift a maximum of 2,400 pounds of air per hour by putting it into circulation. This means powerful circulation throughout the home of heated air. Built like a furnace of great durability, powerful heat circulation, beautifully designed cabinet.

COLE'S HOT BLAST HEATER

Your Choice of Eight Sizes From 1 to 10-Room Capacity

The largest selling heater on the market. Your heating troubles are over the very minute you have installed a Cole's Hot Blast. It will pay you to investigate the many features of this wonder heater. A size for every need.

$1 Down Delivers It

Balance on Terms to Suit You

Installation free. Heavy-gauge pipe, sheet-iron to cover grate, Wabash wood-lined mat, shovel and poker.

OUR GUARANTEE

- 1.—We guarantee a saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, lignite or slack.
- 2.—We guarantee that in homes using open fire places Cole's Hot Blast Heater will mean a saving of one-half on fuel bill.
- 3.—We guarantee Cole's Hot Blast to use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with same size fire pot.
- 4.—We guarantee that the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the fuel put in the stove the evening before.
- 5.—We guarantee that the stove will hold fire with soft coal or hard coal on Saturday evening to Monday morning.
- 6.—We guarantee a uniform heat day and night with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- 7.—We guarantee every stove to remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
- 8.—We guarantee the feed door to be smoke and dust proof.
- 9.—We guarantee the anti-puffing draft to prevent puffing.

The above guarantee is made with the understanding that the stove be operated according to directions, and connected up with a good flue.

ED and AL MATTHEWS-158 Edgewood Ave.

3 Blocks From High Rent and 5 Points---Phone WA. 2245

ARKANSAS PARTY VISITS GEORGIA

Columbus, Ga., November 17.—(AP) The southern Arkansas development tour, composed of 105 leading business men, manufacturers, state and civic leaders, arrived in Columbus at 6 o'clock this morning on a special train from Athens, Ga. The party was met by a committee from the chamber of commerce and taken to the Raleigh hotel, where they were guests at a breakfast.

HEADACHE

One or two Anti-Kamnia Tablets quickly banish headache. Also stop pains of rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, neuralgia, toothache, women's pains, etc. End insomnia and nervousness. Prescribed by doctors and dentists the world over for more than 25 years. Druggists everywhere sell "A. K." Tablets in flat tin—25 cents, 25 millions used annually. A-K on each tablet.

Anti-Kamnia
Quick Relief from Pains and Aches

the various industries in Columbus. Governor John E. Martin, of Arkansas, who was a member of the party until yesterday, was called to Washington to attend a meeting of a committee on flood control.

The party left Columbus this afternoon for Montgomery and Selma, Alabama.

ATHENS GIVES BANQUET TO PARTY.
Athens, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Athens was host Wednesday to 104 citizens of Arkansas headed by Governor John W. Martin and ex-Governor George W. Donaghey. The latter discussed the industrial future of his state at the banquet tendered the delegation by a group of Athens business men.

The visitors were carried over the city, inspecting several of the industrial plants here and the University of Georgia, as well as the State College of Agriculture. They are on a tour of various sections in the south in the interest of their own state's industrial development.

ADmits THEFT OF CAR; GETS 15 MONTHS' TERM
On a plea of guilty to transporting a stolen automobile from Alabama to Georgia, Howard L. Bannister was sentenced Thursday by Federal Judge Samuel H. Shibley to 15 months in the

POISON MYSTERY DEATHS PROBED

Baltimore, November 17.—(AP)—In this city of 11 deaths from alcohol in three weeks police today learned that "powerful poison" and grief attended the strange passing of three others—a druggist, his wife, and their best friend.

Records state that the 11 died from overdoses, from green moonshine, from a dash of poison, or from any one of the many ways in which alcohol is said to strike down its victims. But so little was known in the death of Albert Curran—the druggist—his wife, Helen, who was the mother of several children, and their friend, Merrill Stevens, a tugboat captain of Newark, N. J., that permits for burial were withheld.

Tell of Big Party. Neighbors, some reluctant and others anxious to tell police what they knew of the deaths that have terrified every person who gets prescription liquor at Curran's store, said that the druggist, disconsolate over the loss of his wife, had threatened to send himself to the grave. Others told of a "big party" preceding Mrs. Curran's death.

Post-mortem examination revealed

AIRPLANE WRECKED NEAR GREENSBORO

Greensboro, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—An airplane en route from Augusta to Atlanta, piloted by a Mr. Turner, of Augusta, was forced to make a landing near here Wednesday, the plane being wrecked. Turner was not hurt and returned to Augusta with a passing motorist.

WOMAN IS RELEASED IN NEWSOME SLAYING

Soperton, Ga., November 17.—(AP) Mrs. Dessie Wheeler, one of seven women held in connection with the death of Clayton Newsome at a farm house near here recently, was released today after a conference of state attorneys on agreement that she would appear as a material witness when needed.

Newsome was slain at the home of Mrs. Emma Coates early the morning of November 6. In addition to Mrs. Wheeler, Frank Miller, accused by Mrs. Coates of shooting Newsome; Mrs. Coates and several daughters were arrested in connection with the case.

Preliminary hearing for the others held has not been set as defense counsel has not asked it and state authorities are continuing their investigation.

FORMER INDIAN CHIEF CONVICTED

Antlers, Okla., November 17.—(AP) Modern law of the white man prevailed over the unwritten code of the Indian when Major Victor M. Locke, Jr., 51, former chief of the Choctaws, was sentenced to ten years in prison for killing Abner Battiest, a young tribesman.

A jury in Pushmataha county district court found him guilty of manslaughter, deciding he was not temporarily insane the night of September 16 when he took a rifle and walked to Battiest's home and shot him.

Locke, high in the councils of the tribe, to uphold an Indian chief's pledge to protect womanhood, accused Battiest of adultery with a tribal girl. On the witness stand, Major Locke said he failed to remember the shooting.

Defense witnesses, some of whom could speak only their native Choctaw, spoke of the shooting, the testimony developed, the major's aged father, "Uncle Dick" Locke, was cursed and struck in the face by Battiest when the former remonstrated with the young Indian for his relations with the girls. Hearing of this, Major Locke followed Battiest and shot him to death.

That Locke, formerly in comfortable circumstances, had been virtually penniless for four years was brought out in the testimony. Witnesses said that this condition had changed him from a happy, carefree man to one addicted to brooding. Major Locke in 1923 was dismissed as superintendent of the five civilized tribes.

He has been at liberty on $5,000 bond since soon after the killing, but was taken into custody by the sheriff when the jury gave its verdict. His attorneys announced that they would appeal.

TECH HIGH ALUMNI PLAN TO CREATE PERMANENT BODY
Organization of a permanent Tech High School Alumni association will be effected Wednesday night, November 30, at the Ansley hotel, it is announced.

William A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools and former principal of Tech High, and W. O. Cheney, present principal of the school, are announced as speakers on the tentative program of entertainment for the evening.

Howard Moss was elected chairman of a temporary committee to arrange for the November meeting, at a preliminary meeting held recently at the Central Y. M. C. A. It was decided at that time that each graduating class would be represented.

All Tech High graduates are requested to communicate with Mr. Moss at 1535 Gordon street, S. W., WE-1 3679, for reservations for the dinner.

NEW TROLLEY CAR, ONE OF TWO-SCORE BOUGHT, ARRIVES
Controlled by a motorman housed as completely as if he had been in his own parlor, a huge trolley car sped down Peachtree and Whitehall streets Thursday morning, one of two-score new cars recently contracted for by the Georgia Power company.

About 30 of the new cars have been delivered, and the remainder are coming in at the rate of one of two each week, according to Georgia Power company officials.

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH OF U. S. IS SHOWN BY RAILWAY MAGAZINE
Industrial and agricultural growth of the United States since 1850 are interestingly presented in the current issue of "The Pee Flash," semi-monthly publication issued by J. B. Jones, general agent of the Texas & Pacific railroad, with offices at 217 "L" building.

The value of manufactured products in the limits of Atlanta during 1925 was about 14 times greater than those produced by the entire state in 1850, the magazine sets forth, and during the same period the value of Georgia's manufactured products increased from about $7,000,000 to approximately $650,000,000.

HORNE COMPANY OPENS BRANCH ON PEACHTREE
An uptown branch for its extensive line of office fixtures and furnishings has been opened by the Horne Desk & Fixture company at 281 Peachtree street, the addition illustrating the growth of this well-known concern with headquarters at 89 North Pryor street.

The new location is in the heart of one of the city's most rapidly developing commercial centers and was made necessary by heavy increase in the company's business, Mr. Horne states. The Horne company has been in operation for 12 years at its Pryor street location, which will remain at its present location as headquarters.

CONFERENCE OPENS IN HOT SPRINGS
Hot Springs, Ark., November 17.—(Special.)—Bishop J. N. Russ, of Washington, D. C., convened the West Arkansas annual conference after conducting the devotional services.

Presiding Elders H. H. King, of the Hot Springs district; John Wesley Stinson, South Hot Springs; S. P. Perry, Magnolia, and J. M. Sutton, Texarkana districts, helped in the service.

BOTTLED OF U. S. DECIDE ON ADS IN NEWSPAPERS

New Orleans, La., November 17.—(AP)—The American bottlers of carbonated beverages will employ centralized newspaper advertising in a new educational campaign to cover 800 cities in the United States to further remove prejudices against these beverages, announced Fred Mills, of Indianapolis, general advertising counsel for the National Bottlers' association meeting here.

Mr. Mills declared the carbonated beverages wholesome and said that judicious advertising during the past two years had lessened the prejudice against the beverages on the score that they were injurious to health.

RUSSELL IS NAMED CHAMBER DIRECTOR
Horace Russell, councilman from the ninth ward and prominent civic worker, has been named vice president and director of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, it was announced Thursday by George W. West, president.

Mr. Russell succeeds W. H. Glenn, who tendered his resignation because of numerous out-of-town engagements.

KEMPER BIBLE CLASS WILL MEET TONIGHT

The Charlotte Kemper Bible class of the Druid Hills Presbyterian church will hold its November meeting today at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Stiles Hopkins, 1202 Springdale road, N. E.

This will be a social meeting and each member is urged to be present, and to bring her husband or friend. Hostesses are Mesdames J. H. Beasley, McLaren Fox, G. L. Archer, J. J. Clark, J. B. Wingham, W. H. Wilkinson, G. W. Sargent and W. P. Sloan.

Countess Improves.

London, November 17.—(AP)—Vera, Countess of Cathcart, who is ill at her London residence, was reported much improved today. The countess, whose detention at Ellis Island last year for "moral turpitude" caused suffering from angina pectoris, The Daily Express said yesterday that there was little hope for her recovery.

COMPARE! Kibler & Long TOPCOATS

Kibler & Long Topcoats and Overcoats have no equal at our low featured prices for styling—for quality of woollens—for value.

FEATURE VALUES
$15 | $22.50
5 Decatur St. Store | 70 Peachtree St. Store
At Five Points | At Poplar St.

Kibler & Long
CLOTHES
"Most For Your Money"

Beginning Monday, November 21st

And continuing during period of construction of viaduct near the Union Station

The following trains of the Louisville & Nashville R. R.
and
Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Ry.

Will depart from
Terminal Station

7:25 A. M. ("The Southland" for Cincinnati, Chicago, Louisville, etc.)
9:00 A. M. ("Dixie Flyer" for Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Chattanooga, etc.)
6:35 P. M. ("The Flamingo" for Cincinnati, Detroit, Cleveland, Louisville, Indianapolis)
6:45 P. M. ("Dixie Limited" for Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Chattanooga, etc.)

Trains as follows will continue to depart from Union Station, N. C. & St. L. Ry., at 8:15 a. m. for Chattanooga and Nashville; 5:00 p. m. for Chattanooga; 8:30 p. m. for Chattanooga and Nashville. L. & N. R. Ry. at 7:05 a. m. for Knoxville and Blue Ridge; 3:00 p. m. for Cincinnati, Louisville, Knoxville, etc.; 4:10 p. m. for Blue Ridge and Copperhill.

F. T. Alexander, D. P. A., L. & N. R. Ry. Phone Walnut 1400
G. B. Harris, D. P. A., N. C. & St. L. Ry. Phone Walnut 0083
101 Marietta Street, Atlanta
City Ticket Office, 46 North Broad St.

COMPARE! Kibler & Long TOPCOATS

Kibler & Long Topcoats and Overcoats have no equal at our low featured prices for styling—for quality of woollens—for value.

FEATURE VALUES
$15 | $22.50
5 Decatur St. Store | 70 Peachtree St. Store
At Five Points | At Poplar St.

Kibler & Long
CLOTHES
"Most For Your Money"

Beginning Monday, November 21st

And continuing during period of construction of viaduct near the Union Station

The following trains of the Louisville & Nashville R. R.
and
Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Ry.

Will depart from
Terminal Station

7:25 A. M. ("The Southland" for Cincinnati, Chicago, Louisville, etc.)
9:00 A. M. ("Dixie Flyer" for Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Chattanooga, etc.)
6:35 P. M. ("The Flamingo" for Cincinnati, Detroit, Cleveland, Louisville, Indianapolis)
6:45 P. M. ("Dixie Limited" for Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Chattanooga, etc.)

Trains as follows will continue to depart from Union Station, N. C. & St. L. Ry., at 8:15 a. m. for Chattanooga and Nashville; 5:00 p. m. for Chattanooga; 8:30 p. m. for Chattanooga and Nashville. L. & N. R. Ry. at 7:05 a. m. for Knoxville and Blue Ridge; 3:00 p. m. for Cincinnati, Louisville, Knoxville, etc.; 4:10 p. m. for Blue Ridge and Copperhill.

F. T. Alexander, D. P. A., L. & N. R. Ry. Phone Walnut 1400
G. B. Harris, D. P. A., N. C. & St. L. Ry. Phone Walnut 0083
101 Marietta Street, Atlanta
City Ticket Office, 46 North Broad St.

Another
GULF SERVICE STATION

PONCE DE LEON and SEMINOLE AVENUES ATLANTA, GEORGIA
Saturday, Nov. 19, 1927

TO meet the fast growing demand for Gulf Service, we are opening a Service Station at the above location. The usual prompt and efficient Gulf Service will be offered to motorists by courteous attendants

[OUR PRODUCTS]
That GOOD GULF Gasoline or GULF NO-NOX Motor Fuel
and
SUPREME MOTOR OIL

free! One Gallon Supreme Motor Oil
ON OPENING DAY--NOVEMBER 19, 1927 we will present to each purchaser of five gallons or more of
THAT GOOD GULF GASOLINE OR GULF NO-NOX MOTOR FUEL when pumped into tank of car a one gallon can of Supreme Motor Oil

GULF REFINING COMPANY

2 Former Local Newspaper Men Return for Brief Visit

Joseph Johnson and Robert Adamson, former Atlanta newspaper men, returned to the city Wednesday for a brief visit that will combine business and pleasure. They arrived here after an automobile trip down the Appalachian Scenic highway and will be at the Biltmore hotel.

Both men are now in public life in New York city and were prominent figures in newspaper circles in Atlanta about 30 years ago. Mr. Johnson was city editor of The Journal and conducted a special column in which he discussed public and political affairs and current events, while at the same time Mr. Adamson was city editor of The Constitution.

They left Atlanta at about the same time and became connected in newspaper circles in New York and both have also become prominent in Gotham's public life. Mr. Adamson has devoted himself principally to private business during the past few years and is now vice president of the Central Mercantile Bank and Trust company.

Shortly after their arrival here Wednesday both men praised highly the development all through the Appalachian territory and particularly that section of the road southwest from Blairsville, Ga., through New's Gap to Gainesville and to Atlanta.

"For a good many years I ran around over Georgia and thought I knew a good deal about my home state," Mr. Adamson stated, "but this trip down through New's Gap opened my eyes. It is the most beautiful scenic route I have ever traveled. That section will witness remarkable development in the next few years."

Although he was most concerned over his visit here and the opportunity for renewing old ties in Atlanta, Mr. Johnson took "time out" long enough to express his views concerning Governor L. G. Smith's chances as the next democratic presidential candidate. Mr. Johnson, one of the leaders of Tammany hall, is, of course, an ardent supporter of Governor Smith. He believes that he will be the most desirable presidential candidate.

"Although 1928 will be a presidential year, it looks as though general business conditions throughout the country will not be affected as much as usual during such periods," Mr. Adamson stated. "In banking circles and in almost every other line of business in the east, there is a feeling that the business situation is thoroughly here and will not be unduly disturbed by political uncertainty during the coming campaign."

Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Adamson will be honor guests at a dinner given by the President's club, Friday night at the Biltmore hotel.

It is understood that the visitors will discuss national political subjects before the banquet of company and their tour of the south is partially in the interest of sounding out this section on the presidential issue.

Mell Wilkinson will preside at the dinner, tendered as a mark of recognition for the success of the former Atlantans. Alfred Newell, one-time editor of The Journal, and a former New York newspaper man, will introduce the guests to the membership of the club, composed of approximately 60 state presidents of local civic organizations.

GOVERNOR COMMUTES DEATH TO LIFE TERM

Governor L. G. Hardman Thursday commuted a death sentence imposed on John Howell, convicted on a murder charge in Houston county, to life imprisonment. Howell was convicted of killing Harry Green, a deputy sheriff of Bibb county. The governor announced that he had declined to grant a petition for parole sought for Dr. M. C. Mitchell, convicted in Bibb county on a charge of murder and sentenced to serve a life term.

In commuting the death sentence imposed on Howell the governor issued the following statement:

"The prison commission, Chief Justice Russell, Justice Atkinson, Associate Justice Hines, of the supreme court, a large number of the members, officers of the county where the defendant was tried and convicted, also J. W. Woodworth, attorney associated with the prosecution, 10 jurors trying the case and the trial judge, H. A. Matthews, recommended commutation of this case to life imprisonment. The trial judge certifies that the jury could well have found the verdict of voluntary manslaughter. I anticipated that that would be the verdict. A careful reading of the record and the evidence presented to me will show grave provocation given by the deceased, sufficient to arouse passion, and that the killing occurred only very short time after the provocation. In his letter to the governor and the prison commission the trial judge certifies further that 'this provocation may not have reduced the killing to manslaughter; in my opinion, it should have prevented the extreme penalty of death.' Therefore, in view of the foregoing facts and recommendations, it is "Ordered, that the sentence of the said John Howell be, and the same is, commuted to life imprisonment."

LADDERGRAM

Registered U. S. Patent Office

Climb Down!

SCORE

2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Were You One Of The Two Hundred?

THURSDAY'S mail brought to The Constitution more than 200 letters addressed to Dr. Lulu Hunt Peters, author of The Constitution's health and diet department. Constitution readers have given prompt and eager reception to this new feature. It is a welcome well deserved because it contains a wealth of wisdom from a physician who is declared to be the leading woman practitioner of the country.

If you are not a regular reader of Dr. Peters' department, start today.

ELECTRIC LIGHT MEN HEAR LOCAL SPEAKERS

W. E. Mitchell, vice president and general manager of the Georgia Power company; C. A. Collier, vice president and sales manager of the Georgia Power company; and A. B. Collins, of the Alabama Power company, addressed the two dinner held Thursday night at the Biltmore at the close of the second session of the three-day session of the several committees and sections of the southeastern division, National Electric Light association, in session at the Atlanta-Biltmore hotel Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Among the features of Thursday's sessions were the meetings of the public relations section of the association of which Jackson P. Dick, assistant general manager of the Georgia Power company, is chairman.

Several Atlanta men, including F. R. Mitchell, E. H. Martin, Mr. Dick, W. E. Mitchell, Mr. Collier, Carl D. Wadsworth, R. N. Benjamin and F. W. Hadley, all of the Georgia Power company, have addressed the meetings.

Practically the entire program today will be devoted to the executive committee, selecting the location of the 1938 convention of the southeastern division and completing the plans of the convention.

With the announcement Thursday that the county tax books are now open and will remain open until December 19, W. S. Richardson, Fulton county tax collector, said that there was more than $2,000,000 in state and county taxes to be collected before the closing date.

Citizens of Atlanta, East Point and College Park are required to pay $1.60 per $100 and the residents of the county outside of these cities are required to pay $2.25 per $100.

Of the $1.60 paid by the city residents, $1.10 is the amount fixed by the Fulton commission, and the 50 cents is the state tax. Of the $2.25 paid by the other residents, 75 cents is for the county school tax, which they must pay in addition to the regular county and state assessments.

As the result of the referendum vote several months ago East Point and College Park school systems will be subject to the $2.25 assessments. Hapeville citizens are now paying the $2.25 tax, its schools now being operated by the county.

Attorney General George M. Napier Thursday issued an opinion holding that counties of the state and not the state itself must pay costs of electrocuting condemned prisoners at the state prison at Milledgeville. The cost for each county for electrocuting a person is about $125.

Recently Fulton and Bibb counties protested against the imposition of such costs on the counties. The attorney declared that the new electrocution law does not specifically require that the counties pay such cost but said that under the old hanging system such expenses were paid by the counties in which prisoners were condemned. He said the same principle would apply to the new system.

Richard B. Russell, Jr., of Winier, speaker of the house of representatives of the Georgia legislature and the youngest person who has ever held that post in Georgia, returned to the state Thursday after an extended tour of Europe, on which he visited the leading countries of that continent. Speaker Russell declared that he found Europe far ahead of the United States in the development of air navigation. He said the air literally is filled with planes and that regular schedules are maintained between leading cities.

Discussing other interesting features he found on his trip, Speaker Russell said: "Throughout Europe, the belief among natives is that all Americans are rich. This seems to be the result of our great national wealth, and attempts to explain that trips of many Americans to Europe are only the result of several years of saving are all but futile."

"The way the British, from the lowest to the highest classes, keep up with world events and public affairs of their own country is astounding. Every Briton you meet enjoys tremendously having a private little disarrangement conference with you, all in perfect good humor, of course, and has at his finger tips a multitude of reasons why Great Britain should have a greater navy than the United States, or any other country, for that matter."

"In Ireland there is always an opportunity to have an interesting argument about politics. And, believe me, the Irish know their politics, and they take them as seriously as they do in Kentucky."

"In Germany, Austria, France and Belgium the folks take their wars very philosophically. They look upon them as sporting events, and have no great prejudice against the victors."

"The Kaiser apparently is not very popular in Germany. The few natives with whom I talked seemed to think he deserted his country in its hour of great need, and left the country without a government. It is a tribute to the German people that they did not turn communists, since their government had been disrupted," Mr. Russell said.

Persons prominent in both races expressed themselves as highly pleased with the address of Dr. Williams. The speaker stressed, among other things, the need of more workers in the rural communities of the south, better schools for Bible training and a better understanding between the races.

Cherries from Morehouse college, Atlanta, and Central City college, Macon, furnished the music for the occasion. Rev. J. L. Bennett, Augusta, preached the doctrinal sermon at noon today. Florence Read, president of Spellman, addressed the convention. Other visitors presented were Dr. W. M. Jenkins, superintendent of missions for the state of Florida, and Rev. R. W. Coleman, Birmingham, Ala., educational secretary national Baptist convention. The afternoon session was spent in hearing board reports.

Dr. James M. Nabrit was reelected president. The auditors, in their report, showed that $46,248.15 has been raised by the convention this year.

Bandit Gets $1,500.

Dallas, Texas, November 17.—(AP)—A lone unmasked bandit held up the East Grand Avenue State bank here late today, forcing bank employees to hand over $1,500 in cash and escaped in a roadster.

COUNTY TAX PAYABLE BEFORE DECEMBER 19

With the announcement Thursday that the county tax books are now open and will remain open until December 19, W. S. Richardson, Fulton county tax collector, said that there was more than $2,000,000 in state and county taxes to be collected before the closing date.

Citizens of Atlanta, East Point and College Park are required to pay $1.60 per $100 and the residents of the county outside of these cities are required to pay $2.25 per $100.

Of the $1.60 paid by the city residents, $1.10 is the amount fixed by the Fulton commission, and the 50 cents is the state tax. Of the $2.25 paid by the other residents, 75 cents is for the county school tax, which they must pay in addition to the regular county and state assessments.

As the result of the referendum vote several months ago East Point and College Park school systems will be subject to the $2.25 assessments. Hapeville citizens are now paying the $2.25 tax, its schools now being operated by the county.

Attorney General George M. Napier Thursday issued an opinion holding that counties of the state and not the state itself must pay costs of electrocuting condemned prisoners at the state prison at Milledgeville. The cost for each county for electrocuting a person is about $125.

Recently Fulton and Bibb counties protested against the imposition of such costs on the counties. The attorney declared that the new electrocution law does not specifically require that the counties pay such cost but said that under the old hanging system such expenses were paid by the counties in which prisoners were condemned. He said the same principle would apply to the new system.

Richard B. Russell, Jr., of Winier, speaker of the house of representatives of the Georgia legislature and the youngest person who has ever held that post in Georgia, returned to the state Thursday after an extended tour of Europe, on which he visited the leading countries of that continent. Speaker Russell declared that he found Europe far ahead of the United States in the development of air navigation. He said the air literally is filled with planes and that regular schedules are maintained between leading cities.

Discussing other interesting features he found on his trip, Speaker Russell said: "Throughout Europe, the belief among natives is that all Americans are rich. This seems to be the result of our great national wealth, and attempts to explain that trips of many Americans to Europe are only the result of several years of saving are all but futile."

"The way the British, from the lowest to the highest classes, keep up with world events and public affairs of their own country is astounding. Every Briton you meet enjoys tremendously having a private little disarrangement conference with you, all in perfect good humor, of course, and has at his finger tips a multitude of reasons why Great Britain should have a greater navy than the United States, or any other country, for that matter."

"In Ireland there is always an opportunity to have an interesting argument about politics. And, believe me, the Irish know their politics, and they take them as seriously as they do in Kentucky."

"In Germany, Austria, France and Belgium the folks take their wars very philosophically. They look upon them as sporting events, and have no great prejudice against the victors."

"The Kaiser apparently is not very popular in Germany. The few natives with whom I talked seemed to think he deserted his country in its hour of great need, and left the country without a government. It is a tribute to the German people that they did not turn communists, since their government had been disrupted," Mr. Russell said.

Persons prominent in both races expressed themselves as highly pleased with the address of Dr. Williams. The speaker stressed, among other things, the need of more workers in the rural communities of the south, better schools for Bible training and a better understanding between the races.

Cherries from Morehouse college, Atlanta, and Central City college, Macon, furnished the music for the occasion. Rev. J. L. Bennett, Augusta, preached the doctrinal sermon at noon today. Florence Read, president of Spellman, addressed the convention. Other visitors presented were Dr. W. M. Jenkins, superintendent of missions for the state of Florida, and Rev. R. W. Coleman, Birmingham, Ala., educational secretary national Baptist convention. The afternoon session was spent in hearing board reports.

Dr. James M. Nabrit was reelected president. The auditors, in their report, showed that $46,248.15 has been raised by the convention this year.

Bandit Gets $1,500.

Dallas, Texas, November 17.—(AP)—A lone unmasked bandit held up the East Grand Avenue State bank here late today, forcing bank employees to hand over $1,500 in cash and escaped in a roadster.

GIRL AIDS BANDIT IN BOLD ROBBERY

While a beautiful, bobbed-haired and well-dressed girl bandit sat at the steering wheel of an expensive blue roadster one-half block away, an unmasked, unidentified white bandit Thursday afternoon staged a bold daylight robbery of the Rogers store at 925 Oak street.

Detectives A. G. Stone and Hugh T. Brown were told that the young bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

The officers were told that the girl bandit walked into the store and at the point of a pistol held up the manager, J. Hamilton, and a customer, and rifled the cash drawer of $14.57.

Winter's Advent Increases Your Need for Insurance

"Two Grave Deaths as Car Plunges Over Bank."

"Three Miraculously Escape Death as Train Wrecks Auto."

These are just two of many headlines appearing in Atlanta newspapers during the past few days, illustrating the increase of accidents as winter makes its advent. Cold rains that frost windscreens; slippery streets, ice and high winds make hazards greater both to the driver and the pedestrian.

Now is the time to protect yourself against this common menace. Don't delay; it's a duty you owe to yourself and your loved ones.

Cheapest and most efficient protection is offered you by The Constitution in the form of the famous $7,500 travel accident policy issued by the North American Insurance company, of Chicago. This old and reliable concern already has paid more than $23,000 in claims to Constitution policyholders.

The policy, which costs only $1.25 per year, provides for payment of sums ranging from $7,500 in case of death resulting from certain accidents; heavy cash payment for permanent injuries and $10 weekly indemnity for disability resulting from the stated accidents. And the cost is only a fraction of a penny a day.

A train wreck, a crash of automobiles, the speeding wheels of an on-rushing car or a burning building may leave you a victim of the ever-growing wave of accidents today.

In this paper appear regular advertisements supplying full details of the great offer. Watch for them.

This $7,500 travel, $2,000 auto and $1,000 pedestrian accident policy is issued only to subscribers of The Daily and Sunday Constitution and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 17 and 70 at $1.25 per year.

One who is now taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution or will subscribe for same through carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for his paper weekly, monthly or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Those taking The Daily and Sunday Constitution by mail, either through a postoffice or rural route delivery for one year are eligible by paying $1.25 per year per policy above the subscription price.

THE GUMPS—THE LAW MUST RULE

They Wouldn't Believe
By Roy Vickers

SYNOPSIS

On the way to Donald Brierly's house at Robinson for luncheon, Connie Elmore, Donald's fiancée, tells her friend, Olive Weston, that Donald stands a chance of inheriting half a million from the estate of old Harrowby, a friend of Donald's father.

Olive and Connie share a flat in London. Olive is secretly in love with Donald but is not pleased at Connie's good fortune in winning him.

Sandle and Querk, solicitors handling the Harrowby estate, are crooked and plot to cheat Donald Brierly of the fortune by having a spurious heir appear whose claim is prior to Donald's. In the midst of the plotting Augustus Harrowby, Donald's father, presumed to have died on the Titanic, calls on Sandle. Querk suggests to Sandle that he invite Brierly to Harrowby house and there, with the assistance of Querk's tool, Wode, dispose of Brierly. Connie decides to visit her old nurse, who is now caretaker of Harrowby house. Mrs. Jones is out, but Connie finds the key and lets herself in to wait for her. She hears strange noises in the library and, going to investigate, she sees Sandle and another man kill Mr. Brierly, whom she recognizes from her portrait. Rushing out of the house, Connie stumbles into Mr. Querk. While telling her story Querk pushes the bell and sends a signal to the murderers. Connie sees a policeman and calling him, the three proceed to the library and Connie asks Querk to open the secret panel in the wall where she had seen the men place the body. It is empty. Querk accompanies her to the police station, where she tells her story to the police superintendent. Querk intimates that he imagines the scene, and, in exasperation, Connie goes to see Olive, who believes her story.

Querk requests Sandle to come to the superintendent's office, and he presents his story, which the officer accepts. The two lawyers proceed to Wode's office, where old man Turle and his son, the spurious heir, await them. The old man dies just after they walk into the office.

The next morning Connie calls on Querk and meets young Jones there. She recognizes him as her old nurse's son, but does not know that he has been posing as Henry Turle, Jr. Querk later pretends that Connie imagined she saw young Jones. He tells her that Sandle is about to bring criminal suit against Connie unless Olive, as her nearest friend, has her committed to a private institution at Merton which he recommends. While Donald is visiting Connie at Merton house a body is found buried in his garden. Olive, sent out on the case by her newspaper, meets and warns Donald. She arranges a hiding place for him in London. She later helps Connie to escape from Merton.

INSTALLMENT LXXXV

He sat up in bed for a moment after he had replaced the receiver and nodded slowly then picked up the telephone again and gave a number.

"Is that you, my dear Wode?" he was saying a moment later. "I am so very sorry to disturb you—I am sure you have had a hard day. Tell me, Wode, can you drive a motor boat? It is of rather high power and you would, of course, have no assistance. You can, I am vastly relieved. If it isn't troubling you too much, I would be so greatly obliged if you would meet me at the Marble Arch in—twenty minutes? . . . Goodbye, my dear fellow."

Olive, with Rason by her side, knocked on the door of No. 27. A light flashed in the hall and Sandle himself, fully dressed, opened the door.

"Good evening, Mr. Sandle," said Olive. "You know me, don't you? This is my friend, Detective Inspector Rason of New Scotland Yard. May he come in?"

Sandle's breath was coming unevenly. He had seemed more shocked at sight of her than of the detective. She could see him struggling for self-mastery.

"Come in," he invited, and led the way unsteadily to the dining room.

"Before we deal with the object of our visit, Mr. Sandle," said Olive, "it would save time if you were to read this. It's rather patchy, but the patches are numbered. It is an advance proof of what will appear in the Record tomorrow morning."

"Really?" protested Sandle. "Are you sure it is of any interest to me?"

"Quite," answered Olive amiably. "We will wait while you read it. You don't mind if we smoke, do you?"

She offered her case to Rason, who declined, then lit her own cigarette.

She watched Sandle as he read—watched his hands tremble. He had tried to get Donald changed. For him there was no pity in his heart.

"What—what is this?" asked Sandle unsteadily, glancing from her to the detective.

"King's evidence," said Olive. "If you've mastered the contents of that, we can begin to talk."

"One minute," put in Rason. "It is my duty to warn you that anything you say may be used in evidence against you."

"Huh!" snorted Sandle. "That hardly troubles me. As far as I can gather, this is a statement by Ned Jones that his name is not Turle, but Jones, and that the man he brought to me as his father was some one else. If there has been a conspiracy, I have been the victim of it."

"Myer," said Olive doubtfully. "Rather difficult to explain away the old man dying, though, isn't it?"

Sandle glanced again at the sheets. "That one—near the bottom," Olive helped him.

"A tissue of lies!" exclaimed Sandle. "I was not present at any such scene. This is an infamous attempt on the part of this young man, Jones."

"Quite!" agreed Olive. "Only there's been another equally infamous attempt on the part of the old man Querk. And he has done rather more than did the Jones and cross the 'T's. Mr. Sandle, he was very nearly involved himself, but when you come to work it out, nothing is known against him that is any use in a court of law. He told us that you were the moving spirit."

A sound like a cough broke from the terror-stricken man.

Rason rose to his feet.

"I cannot—"

"You are incurring Mr. Sandle," cut in Olive. "Mr. Querk very nearly cried," she continued to Sandle. "He said he had only discovered a few hours ago that you were not the upright man he had always believed you to be. He said he knew it was his duty to come to the police at once, but he couldn't bring himself to do it though he knows he will have to give evidence against you. In fact, I think he appears as prosecutor on one count. He says he thinks that Wode will get off, as he was only your assistant—as you struck the actual blow."

As if by magic, all trace of fear disappeared from Sandle. Instead, his eyes blazed with anger.

"That is a lie. And Querk knows it!" he said perky. "It was Wode who actually killed Brierly, and not I. As for Querk, both Wode and I have been loyal in his hands. Why do you think we took that body out of the panel when we had put it there? Because Querk sent us a warning. While that girl was talking to Querk he was ringing a code signal on the bell. I lost my head. Wode kept his, and together we got the body into the car."

"His voice began to rise."

"It was Querk who knew what to do when the old man died in Wode's office. It was for dropping the whole story," Querk suggested that the body of Brierly should be mutilated so the paper he had faked up for the old man put in the sole of Brierly's boot. Querk invented the whole scheme by which the body should be planted in the garden. Querk arranged the whole fake with the taxicab, and Querk got the girl certified—and, unless he was lying, tried to get her murdered with the aid of that nurse of his. I may be done for, but I'm almost glad this has happened."

"How did Brierly come into it at all?" asked Olive.

"How do I know? He walked into my office just after the Turles arrived. He couldn't have been drowned on the Titanic. And I suppose he came over on the same ship as the Turles. What does it matter, anyway?"

"He turned to Rason. 'Is that enough for you to get Querk?' he demanded."

"Good enough," said Sandle. "Well, I shan't give you any trouble, Mr. Rason. I suppose you'll let me pack a few things?"

"Yes," said Rason. "But I must come with you while you pack."

"There's no hurry," said Sandle, took out his cigarette case, and put a cigarette in his lip.

The next morning there came from him a burst of demoniacal laughter.

"Mind you hang Querk! You've got a witness of all I've said," he cried, and fell in a heap on the floor.

"Quick! You run for a doctor. I'll stay here," said Rason to Olive.

Olive smiled.

(Continued Tomorrow)

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

JIMMY JAMS

HERE COMES BOBBIE, AND I CAN TELL HE'S GOT SOME CANDY 'CAUSE HE'S WALKIN' SLOW SO HE CAN FINISH IT BEFORE HE GETS HERE.

NO FINANCIAL BOOKS DON'T INTEREST ME!

BOOKS

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

SALLY'S SALLIES

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

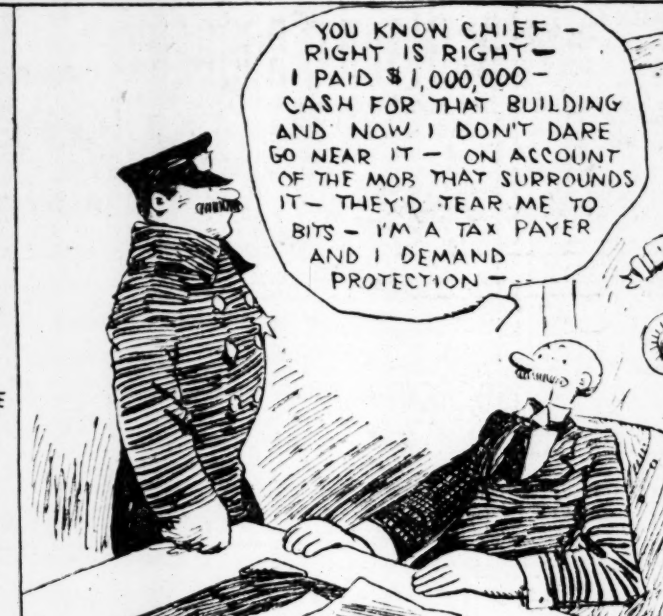

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

AFTER PAYING $1,000,000—FOR AN IMMENSE BUILDING TO SERVE AS HEADQUARTERS FOR HIS CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION—ANDY FINDS IT IMPOSSIBLE TO APPROACH ON ACCOUNT OF A MULTITUDE OF GOLD HUNTERS THAT ARE SURROUNDING THE BUILDING IN THE HOPE OF RECEIVING SOME OF THE BILLION DOLLARS WHICH ANDY HAS IN HIS POSSESSION—

YOU KNOW CHIEF—RIGHT IS RIGHT—I PAID $1,000,000—CASH FOR THAT BUILDING AND NOW I DON'T DARE GO NEAR IT—ON ACCOUNT OF THE MOB THAT SURROUNDS IT—THEY'D TEAR ME TO BITS—I'M A TAX PAYER AND I DEMAND PROTECTION—

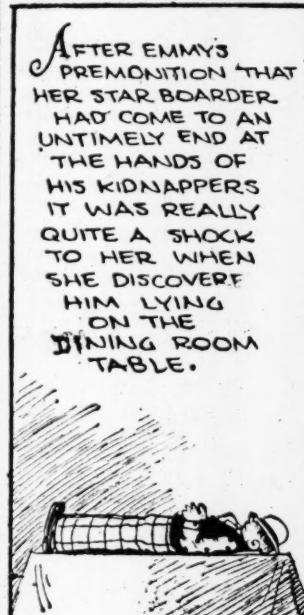

I WILL GIVE ORDERS TO HAVE THE STREETS SURROUNDING YOUR BUILDING CLEARED AND WILL ASSIGN A SQUAD TO GUARD YOUR BUILDING NIGHT AND DAY—THE POLICE DEPARTMENT'S FIRST DUTY IS TO ENFORCE LAW AND ORDER—AND IF NECESSARY THE ENTIRE FORCE SHALL BE MOBILIZED FOR YOUR PROTECTION—

THANKS CHIEF—I LIKE THAT NICE BLUE SUIT YOU ARE WEARING—ALL IT NEEDS TO BE PERFECT IS A REAL DIAMOND STAR—AND I'M GOING TO SEE THAT SANTA CLAUS SENDS YOU ONE—

MOON MULLINS—EMMY DON'T KNOW WHAT SHE DOES IN HER GRIEF

AFTER EMMY'S PREMONITION THAT HER STAR BOARDER HAD COME TO AN UNTIMELY END AT THE HANDS OF HIS KIDNAPERS IT WAS REALLY QUITE A SHOCK TO HER WHEN SHE DISCOVERED HIM LYING ON THE DINING ROOM TABLE.

OH—THE POOR DEAR, SWEET BOY—WHY DID I EVER SPEAK SASSY TO HIM WHEN HE WAS WITH US? OH, MOONSHINE, IF YOU COULD ONLY COME BACK I WOULD KILL YOU WITH KINDNESS—OH-OH BOOO!

MOONSHINE! ARE YOU REALLY ALIVE?

AS MUCH AS A GUY COULD BE AFTER FINDIN' ALL TH' BEDS FULL AND HAVIN' TO PARK ON TH' TABLE HERE ALL NIGHT, EMMY.

YOU WHIEP! I'LL LEARN YOU TO DECIEVE ME LIKE THAT.

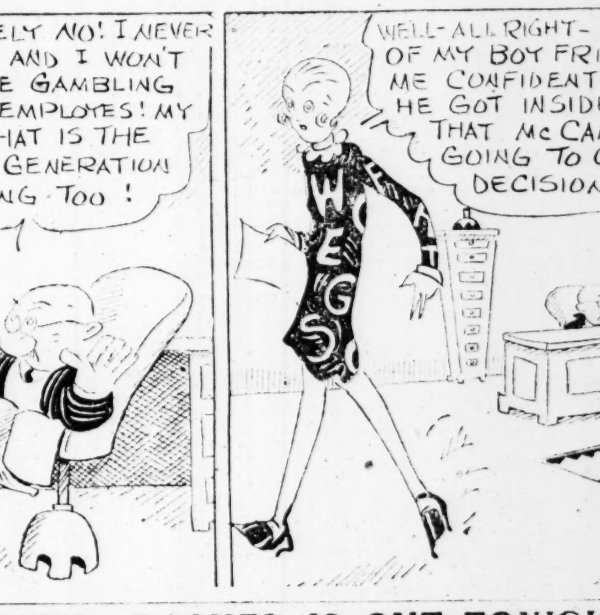

SOMEBODY'S STENOG—What's the Odds?

MISTER SMITHERS—CAN I HAVE A FINE DOLLAR ADVANCE ON MY SALARY? I WANT TO MAKE A BET ON THE DUFFY—MC CANN FIGHT.

NO! ABSOLUTELY NO! I NEVER BET MYSELF AND I WON'T ENCOURAGE GAMBLING AMONG MY EMPLOYEES! MY MY—MY! WHAT IS THE YOUNGER GENERATION COMING TOO!

WELL, ALL RIGHT—ONLY ONE OF MY BOY FRIENDS TOLD ME CONFIDENTIALLY THAT HE GOT INSIDE DOPE THAT MC CANN'S GOING TO GET THE DECISION.

SAY, FLANNERY—WHAT DO YOU SAY TO A LITTLE BET ON THAT SCRAP TONIGHT?—I GOT FIFTY SMACKERS SAYS MC CANN WILL WIN—

GASOLINE ALLEY—RACHEL IS OUT TONIGHT

MIS WALT, IF YOU AIN'T GOIN' NO PLACE WOULD YOU MIND IF I WENT OUT THIS EVENIN'?

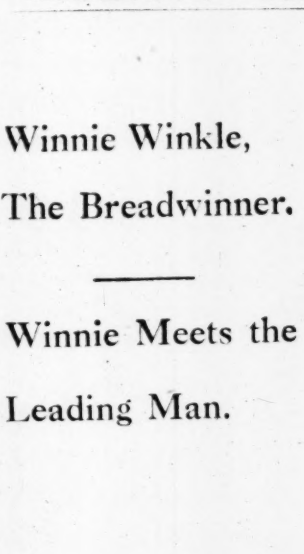

IT WILL BE ALL RIGHT, RACHEL. I'LL BET YOU HAVE A DATE WITH YOUR BOY FRIEND.

YOU MEAN HENRY? NO MAM. THIS MAN IS A SUBSTANTIAL CITIZEN—NOT ONE O' YOUR FLIGHTY KIND. HE GOT POSE AN' DIGNITY.

NO MAM. HE OPENS THE DOOR AT A FUNERAL ESTABLISHMENT AN' WEARS A COAT THAT MAKES A ADMIRABLE IN THE NAVY LOOK SICK. HE GOT PERSONALITY PLUS, BUT HE AIN'T NO SHIEK.

THIS MAN GOT BRAINS. SOMETHIN' I AIN'T GOT NO TIME FOR IS LOUNGE LIZARDS AN' GARTA SNAKES.

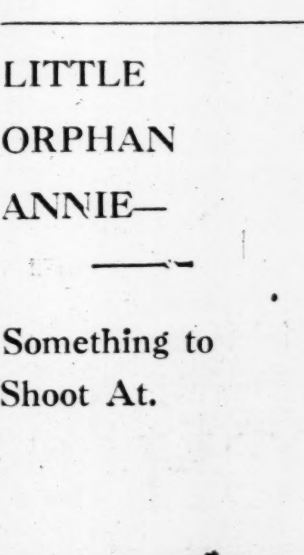

WELL, GERTIE, I MUST KEEP TRYING AT THE CASTING OFFICES FOR A JOB! BUT I HOPE I DON'T RUN ACROSS THOSE PESTS FROM THE PARTY LAST NIGHT! THEY CERTAINLY WERE AN EYE-SORE!!

WELL, WELL—WELL!! IF IT AIN'T MY LITTLE PAL FROM TH' PARTY!! GEE, I'M GLAD TO SEE YOU!! WHERE BOUND, KID? LOOKING FOR ME??

BUT I HAVEN'T TIME TO BOTHER WITH YOU!! I'M OUT HERE IN HOLLYWOOD LOOKING FOR A JOB IN THE MOVIES AND—

OH, I GUESS EVERYBODY IS BETTER OFF IF THEY HAVE ENOUGH TO DO TO KEEP THEM BUSY—I DON'T MIND WORKING HARD IF I CAN ACCOMPLISH SOMETHING—

IT'S THE CHILDREN I'M THINKING OF—MR. PEWTER AND I HAD SUCH FINE PLANS FOR THEM—NOW THAT HE'S GONE IT'S UP TO ME—THAT'S ALL—THEY'LL BE OLD ENOUGH TO GO TO SCHOOL BEFORE LONG—THAT COSTS MONEY—BOOKS, CLOTHES—LOTS OF THINGS—

BUT IF I CAN KEEP MY HEALTH AND KEEP GOING TILL THEY'RE THROUGH SCHOOL AND DO ENOUGH TO LOOK OUT FOR THEMSELVES, I'LL BE SATISFIED—SOME TIMES I GET SO TIRED IT DOESN'T SEEM LIKE I COULD GO ANOTHER DAY BUT WHEN YOU HAVE SOMETHING TO WORK FOR I GUESS YOU CAN DO ALMOST ANYTHING—

HUH! YUH HEAR WOMEN WITH NOthin' TO DO BUT KILL THEM, SQUAWKIN' 'BOUT EVERYTHING—NOthin' PLEASES 'EM—BUT MRS PEWTER DOESN'T KICK AN' SHE'S GOT PLENTY TO KICK 'BOUT—GUESS TH' TROUBLE WITH LOTS O' RICH FOLKS IS THEY SPEND ALL THEIR TIME THINKIN' 'BOUT THEIR TROUBLES STEAD O' THINKIN' ABOUT HOW MUCH TROUBLE THEY'VE MISSED—

Just Nuts

HAVE YOU READ DARWIN'S 'ORIGIN OF SPECIES'?

NO FINANCIAL BOOKS DON'T INTEREST ME!

BOOKS

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

SALLY'S SALLIES

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

HERE COMES BOBBIE, AND I CAN TELL HE'S GOT SOME CANDY 'CAUSE HE'S WALKIN' SLOW SO HE CAN FINISH IT BEFORE HE GETS HERE.

NO FINANCIAL BOOKS DON'T INTEREST ME!

BOOKS

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

SALLY'S SALLIES

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

WHY PAINT TH' LILY, DEAR?

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—

Something to Shoot At.

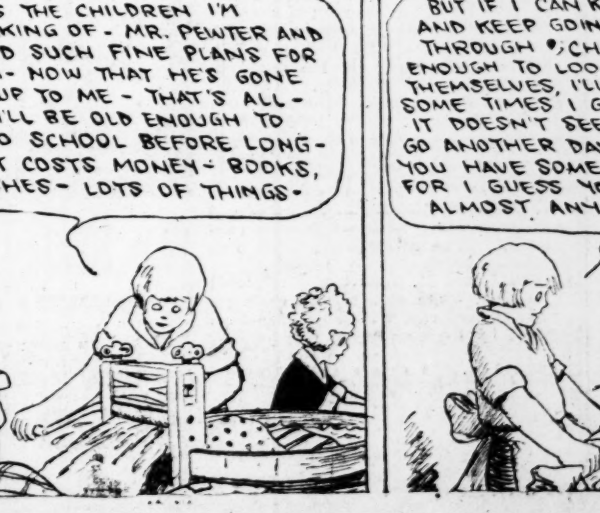

Something to Shoot At.

Something to Shoot At.

Something to Shoot At.

OH, I GUESS EVERYBODY IS BETTER OFF IF THEY HAVE ENOUGH TO DO TO KEEP THEM BUSY—I DON'T MIND WORKING HARD IF I CAN ACCOMPLISH SOMETHING—

IT'S THE CHILDREN I'M THINKING OF—MR. PEWTER AND I HAD SUCH FINE PLANS FOR THEM—NOW THAT HE'S GONE IT'S UP TO ME—THAT'S ALL—THEY'LL BE OLD ENOUGH TO GO TO SCHOOL BEFORE LONG—THAT COSTS MONEY—BOOKS, CLOTHES—LOTS OF THINGS—

BUT IF I CAN KEEP MY HEALTH AND KEEP GOING TILL THEY'RE THROUGH SCHOOL AND DO ENOUGH TO LOOK OUT FOR THEMSELVES, I'LL BE SATISFIED—SOME TIMES I GET SO TIRED IT DOESN'T SEEM LIKE I COULD GO ANOTHER DAY BUT WHEN YOU HAVE SOMETHING TO WORK FOR I GUESS YOU CAN DO ALMOST ANYTHING—

"Men may work hard, but on Sunday they don't do nothin' but loaf and eat; and I ain't had a good rest since I had that spell of sickness three years ago."

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

Unlike bills, compliments are easy to pay.

(Copyright, 1927, for The Constitution.)

THE CONSTITUTION EXPRESS

Boys

Girls

It's Easy

ONLY 3 NEW { Daily and Sunday } SUBSCRIPTIONS NEEDED

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION makes it possible for thousands of boys and girls in Georgia, and especially the city of Atlanta and suburbs, to possess the "Constitution Express."

This smooth-running, balloon-tired COASTER WAGON wins its way into the heart of every child that sees it. It's the dandiest COASTER WAGON ever given away by any newspaper. It has a large-sized hardwood body (16x36 inches) finished with glistening varnish and brilliant paint. Heavy steel bolsters front and rear are extra braced. Silent running roller bearings and extra heavy single disc wheels make this the fastest and hand-somest COASTER WAGON that you have ever seen. Tires are solid rubber and are of the full one-inch balloon type.

Strong—Swift—Silent

You cannot surpass this handsome "CONSTITUTION EXPRESS" wagon for strength and durability. No old-fashioned wood bolsters to split and crack — The "CONSTITUTION EXPRESS" has bolsters of heavy steel. Wheels have roller bearings, just like the big automobiles, and the full one-inch balloon-type tires make the coaster whiz by almost without a sound.

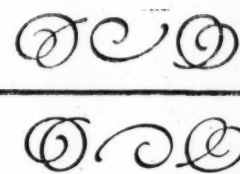

Read These Instructions:

New subscriptions must be from persons not at present subscribers to the Daily and Sunday Constitution, nor have been for the last thirty days, and must not, directly or indirectly, take the place of someone who is now or has been a recent subscriber.

Such new subscriptions will be acceptable in Atlanta and in any town where The Constitution has a carrier delivery service, provided the new subscriptions are acceptable to the carrier.

CLIP THE COUPON

And bring or mail it today for a Contest Book

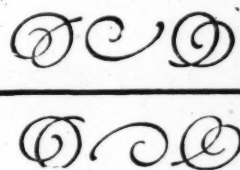

MAIL OR BRING THIS
"COASTER WAGON" COUPON
To THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION Office,
Forsyth and Alabama Sts., Atlanta, Ga., for Contestant's SUBSCRIPTION BOOK

Gentlemen:
Deliver or mail to me your COASTER WAGON book for subscription blanks and instructions for securing three new six-months subscriptions to The Daily and Sunday Constitution for the "CONSTITUTION EXPRESS," as advertised by you in The Constitution.

Name

No. Street or Avenue

P. O. Box No. State

Balloon Tires Heavy Steel Bolsters

HOW TO EARN ONE

If you want one of these beautiful "CONSTITUTION EXPRESS" wagons, the first thing to do is to clip out the coupon at the left, bring or mail it to The Constitution for a Contest Book. When you get the book, if "Dad" isn't a subscriber to the Daily and Sunday Constitution, get his subscription first and then you will need two more.

THREE DAILY AND SUNDAY NEW SIX-MONTHS' SUBSCRIPTIONS.

That's all! Just three new Daily and Sunday six-months' subscriptions are required to earn one of these beautifully finished "CONSTITUTION EXPRESS" wagons. You are not to collect any money.

IT'S EASY WORK!

It will take you only a short time to get three new subscribers to The Constitution, because everyone knows that The Atlanta Constitution is Atlanta's outstanding newspaper. Besides helping you earn your "CONSTITUTION EXPRESS," the people who sign the agreement or contract for you are receiving the news of the world, interesting reading articles and features for every member of the family for six months.

Start out right now! It's more like fun than work. Get a contract book, secure from good, reliable, financially responsible subscribers, "signature of each," bring or send it to The Constitution office. After the subscriptions are verified and found "O. K.," the wagon is yours.

Read These Instructions Carefully:

Out-of-town workers must turn their coupon book of subscriptions, after it has been filled out with the required number of subscriptions, each signed by the subscriber himself, over to the local Constitution dealer for his acceptance of the new subscriptions.

Newsdealer will indicate his acceptance by writing on the back of the subscription agreement "O. K., accepted by me," and sign his name. Then the book with required number of accepted subscriptions to be sent to The Constitution.

COASTER WAGONS will be shipped by express (collect) to out-of-town workers. Those who live in Atlanta and suburban towns will get the wagons at The Constitution office.

$250,000 Oglethorpe Drive To Be Opened Today at Noon; Volunteer Workers Needed

President Thornwell Jacobs Enthusiastic on Eve of Campaign To Match Lupton Donation.

With enthusiasm running high among the workers and a total of $50,000 unsolicited subscriptions already made, the official opening of the Oglethorpe drive today at a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at the Wincoff hotel.

A larger force of workers is the greatest need of the campaign at this time, officials state, a minimum of 100 persons being slated to enroll at the luncheon. It will be attempted at the luncheon to secure about 250 workers in the campaign.

Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe, is unusually enthusiastic over the possibilities of the campaign. He states that in his opinion, there has never before been a campaign staged in the history of Atlanta for which prospects were so bright.

It is pointed out that no worker need devote more of his time than can be freely given. Each worker will be given a list of 10 or 15 prospective subscribers, and he may communicate with these at his convenience.

Members of the City club Thursday heard Robert H. Jones, Jr., chairman of the fund-raising committee, in a plea for more workers. Judge Edgar Watkins, president of the board of fund-raising, is presiding officer of the luncheon.

The alumni committee of the institution will hold its meeting today with the other three committees at the luncheon, although many members of this committee have already secured subscriptions. Officials of the drive are especially pleased at the activity of the alumni, it is stated.

The $250,000 drive in Atlanta is occasioned by the magnificent gift of an equal amount by J. T. Lupton of Chattanooga. Mr. Lupton gave $250,000 provided a corresponding sum was raised in this city. Mr. Lupton also has contributed to the university on several other occasions. Lupton hall having been made possible by his gifts.

MRS. L. B. ROYAL DIES AT SYLVESTER

Sylvester, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. L. B. Royal, 65, died at the home of her son, W. D. Royal, here Tuesday. She was a member of a prominent family of this country. She had been in ill health for a long time.

Interment was at Poulan Wednesday.

An Easy Way to Soothe and Heal Skin Eruptions

If you suffer from skin eruptions of any kind, pimples, itch, tetter, ring worm, eczema, etc., a pleasant ointment, known as Tetterine, containing highly effective germ-destroying and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief.

Tetterine, through its clean, cooling, soothing, antiseptic effect, kills the germs that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c for a large box, or sent direct, postpaid, upon receipt of price. Shiptrine Co., Desk A, Savannah, Ga.—(adv.)

2,000 Yards New $1.50 to $2.50 Silks

—4-in. Heavy Charmeuse
—4-in. Flat Crepe
—4-in. Glaze Ray Satin
—25-in. Brocade Faille
—4-in. Sport Satin
Main Floor

Regular 98c Heavy Men's Unions

Natural color, heavy ribbed unions in long sleeve, ankle length styles. Come early!

Main Floor

Boys' $2.48 Lumberjacks and Wool Sweaters

Lumberjacks and all wool cricket sweaters in slip-over and coat styles. Stripes, plaids and solids.

Main Floor

Look! Children's $1.50 Bath Robes

Children's good, heavy quality bath robes in plain and conventional designs. Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Third Floor

$2.48 Corduroy & Blanket Robes

Women's wide wale corduroy and heavy blanket robes in a large variety of plain colors and fancy combinations. Kimono and long sleeve styles.

GILES POSTPONES HONOLULU FLIGHT

San Francisco, November 17.—(AP) Adverse elements today again balked Captain Frederick A. Giles, British aviator, in his projected hop to Hawaii, the first lap of his overseas flight to Wellington, N. Z.

Heavy fog shrouded Mills field this morning and prevented a take-off, although weather conditions at sea were reported to be the best that could be expected at this time of the year. Captain Giles planned to point his biplane, the Miss Wanda, toward Honolulu again tomorrow, hoping for an early lift of the morning fog.

The captain had planned to start at 9:30 a. m. today, so as to permit him to make accurate sextant "shots" of the sun in mid-morning. The fog still was heavy at 10:15 a. m. and the flyer decided it was too late to start the flight today. Captain Giles will fly alone, doing his own navigation.

LONDON IS ANXIOUS OVER FLIERS' FATE.

London, November 17.—(AP)—An anxious London still awaited word tonight of the fate of Captain R. H. McIntosh and Bert Hinkler, in the monoplanes "The Winnie," which was many hours overdue at Karachi, India, on its attempted record-breaking distance flight.

The plane left Papan early Tuesday with enough gasoline for approximately fifty hours in the air and observers are sure that the plane must have gone down somewhere, for this time as its flight could not have lasted this afternoon.

Not one report indicates where, in the vast spaces in the 4,000 miles intervening between England and India, the flyers might have come down, as they have not been heard from since they passed over the Munster air-drome, 120 miles from their starting point.

COHMAN COMPLETES FIRST LEG OF TRIP.

Southampton, Eng., November 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. R. E. Everitt, of Covington, England's premier long-distance flyer, arrived at Humber airport today from Rochester with his wife, two mechanics and a cameraman aboard their seaplane, thus completing the first leg of their 20,000-mile trip to South Africa and return.

The trip, scheduled to be made in 43 stages, will give Lady Cohman the distinction of being the world's longest distance aviator.

Cohman, who is making the flight to blaze new air trails, will continue to Bordeaux Friday.

Mrs. R. E. Everitt, Of Covington, Wins National U. D. C. Prize

Covington, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. R. E. Everitt, of Covington, has received a letter from Mrs. John L. Woodberry, historian general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, informing her that she has won the $50 prize offered by the U. D. C. member of any chapter comprising the 31 states of the national division of United Daughters of the Confederacy, for the best essay on a tribute to General Paul Jones Semmes.

This prize will be presented at the general convention in session this week at Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. Everitt is one of Covington's most prominent members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, having been registrar for a number of years. She is also prominent in the D. A. R., W. C. T. U. and Woman's club work.

LUCIAN COCKE, SR., DIES AT ROANOKE

News has been received in Atlanta of the death this week of Lucian H. Cocke, Sr., honorary president of Hollins college, and general counsel for the Norfolk & Western railroad, who died in Roanoke, Va. Funeral services and burial were in Roanoke.

Mr. Cocke's wife, who survives him, before her marriage 25 years ago was Mrs. Hugh Hagan, of Atlanta, formerly Miss Sallie Johnson, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. John M. Johnson, pioneer Alabamians. She is a sister of Mrs. Wellborn Hill, of Atlanta.

Mr. Cocke was a member of one of the most prominent families in Virginia. Hollins college, a female institution in that state, and of which Mr. Cocke was honorary president, was founded by the Cocke family.

He was one of the most widely known baristers in the south, and as counsel for the Norfolk & Western railway he established a distinguished record of service.

Mr. Cocke's death came after an illness of about six months. Besides his wife Mr. Cocke leaves two sons, Francis Cocke and Lucian H. Cocke, Jr., both of Roanoke; two daughters, Mrs. King Funkhouser, of Roanoke, and Mrs. William Goodwin, of Charlottesville, Va.; two step-sons, Jr. E. J. Hagan, of Roanoke, Va., and Willis C. Hagan, of Birmingham, Ala. He also leaves eight grandchildren, Miss Jane King Funkhouser, Carl Funkhouser, Michael Cocke, Lucian H. Cocke, III, Miss Sarah Hagan, Willis C. Hagan, Jr., Hugh Campbell Hagan and Robert Campbell Hagan.

LAST RITES HELD FOR OTIS L. BRITT, KILLED BY POLE

Funeral services for Otis L. Britt, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Britt, Jr., of 1262 East Fair street, who was killed Wednesday morning when struck by a telephone pole on a truck trailer, were held Thursday afternoon from the Fellowship church near Tucker, Ga. The Rev. J. M. Hisey, of the Rev. C. C. Singletary, officiated and interment was in the cemetery.

The youth was on his way to the White school, a private school, when he was struck by the pole at the intersection of Arkwright place and Dahlgren street as the truck turned into Dahlgren street. W. H. Threlkeld, driver of the truck, told officials that he did not see the youth before the accident, and W. B. Butts, a lineman who was riding on the truck, stated that he shouted to the lad to fall to the ground, but his advice was not heeded in time to prevent the accident.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR J. P. SORROW SET FOR SUNDAY

Funeral services for John P. Sorrow, 42, of 289 Georgia avenue, S. E., an employee of the city sanitary department, who died suddenly Thursday morning at his home, while seated at the breakfast table, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. Paul Methodist church. The Rev. R. F. Fraser will officiate and interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Members of the Oglethorpe lodge, No. 635, F. & A. M., will have charge of the services at the graveside. J. Austin Dillier company will be in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Sorrow had been a resident of Atlanta for many years and was one of the most popular members of the city sanitary department. He was active in fraternal circles of the city, and was a member of the Oglethorpe lodge of Masons, the Grange, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, No. 5, Jr. O. U. A. M., Commanche tribe, No. 6, I. O. O. F., Capital City lodge, No. 60, I. O. O. F., and Nathan Bedford Forrest clan, No. 240. He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Misses Edna Mae, Marjorie and Dorothy Sorrow, and a son, J. P. Sorrow, Jr.

E. H. ACKER FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TODAY

Funeral services for E. H. Acker, veteran Atlanta railroad man, who died early Thursday morning at the residence, 561 Page avenue, will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning at the church of H. M. Patterson & Son, funeral directors. The Rev. S. R. Belk will officiate and burial will be at Anderson, S. C.

Mr. Acker was an employee of the Southern railway for 28 years, serving both as conductor and yardmaster, after coming here from South Carolina, his native state. He was for several years connected with the Southern Demurrage and Storage company, but for slightly more than a year he had been retired from active work.

He was a member of a Masonic lodge at Anderson, S. C., and a member of Grace Methodist church, here. Mr. Acker leaves three sons, W. H. Acker, of New York; E. H. Acker, Jr., of Amherst, Texas, and W. D. Acker; three daughters, Mrs. E. K. Prevost, of Anderson, S. C.; Mrs. C. R. Fox and Mrs. S. T. Brown; two brothers, J. W. Acker, of Atlanta, and John Acker, of Easley, S. C., and one sister, Mrs. Tom Archer, of Anderson, South Carolina.

BROWN IS CAPTURED BY MACON OFFICER

Macon, Ga., November 17.—(AP)—Melvin L. Brown, who escaped from several days ago from a Macon, Ga., Terminal station here early this morning by Patrolman Evans.

Brown was serving a life term, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

He had changed his prison garb, with others, in connection with the murder of a mail carrier in Fayette county several years ago.

ARMS FURNISHED LIBERALS BY CALLES

New York, November 17.—(AP)—The Hearst newspapers tomorrow, in the fifth of a series of articles copyrighted by the Washington Herald, will say that "strong-arm" methods were used by President Calles, of Mexico, in getting rifles and ammunition into the hands of Nicaraguan liberals to aid their revolt last year.

A ship in the service of the Mexican government was used by Calles to transport munitions, the article will say, and the captain was removed summarily when he refused to accept the mission, partly because he feared American warships and partly because of bad treatment of the hands of Nicaraguan rebels on a previous gun-running expedition.

Several small shipments of munitions were landed in Nicaragua during the months of August, September and October, last year, the Hearst papers will say, principally by the Mexican ships Superior and Tropical and the Nicaraguan ship Foam.

Recounting repeated pleas of his Nicaraguan allies, the articles will say, Calles caused a great store of war materials to be collected at Vera Cruz and on December 1 directed that 2,000 boxes of this material be shipped on the Mexican ship Superior. The order was sent through General Jose Alvarez, chief of Calles' staff, to General Arnulfo R. Gomez, then chief of military operations in the state of Vera Cruz and recently executed on charges of fostering a revolt in Mexico.

NEGROES UNVEIL BISHOP HOLSEY MONUMENT HERE

The Colored Methodist conference at West Mitchell church, presided over by Bishop Carter, finished its reports Thursday through Presiding Elders J. E. Murray, Elberton, and W. M. Jenkins, Athens. The minister, leading in these reports were: J. W. Glenn, Elberton; Horace Davis, Sharon; A. G. Beckham, Washington; S. H. Harris, Royston; M. A. Davis, Toccoa; L. W. McSair, Hartwell; J. W. Wilson, Washington; J. H. Hardaway, Augusta, and E. L. Greene, Athens.

For the purpose of unveiling the Holsey monument several hundred visitors came from all sections of the state and from other states as far north as Massachusetts. Bishop Holsey's daughter, Ella D. Holsey, Miller, and husband, from Boston, Mass.; Bishop Isaac Lane, Jackson, Tenn.; G. E. Porter, R. H. Anderson, Jackson, Tenn.; H. W. Evans, St. Louis, Mo.; W. M. Warner, Louisville, Ky., and J. A. Bray, Birmingham, Ala., were among those who came for the purpose of participating in the exercises at South View cemetery where the monument of Bishop Holsey was unveiled.

The veil was raised by his great granddaughter, five-year-old child of Rev. A. B. McCoy. Rev. J. A. Ragan, of Americus, Ga., was master of ceremonies, and presented Bishop Carter, who delivered the principal address with very great effect. The bishop emphasized that Bishop Holsey was born in the country in the year 1812, and thus lived "in two civilizations and kept pace with the rising generation of the emancipated negro while at the same time he could appreciate the days of reconstruction. In this respect the Colored Methodist church and the people of the south were very fortunate in having a man of this type to help organize the Colored Methodist church in the year 1850.

Fully 500 people were at the cemetery; they were taken there by automobiles and three busses furnished by the Georgia Power company and street cars.

Rev. J. H. Wiggins preached the annual conference sermon Thursday night to nearly 1,000 people. Rev. A. G. Beckham preaches tonight.

DR. JOSEPH MUIR, SENATE CHAPLAIN DIES IN CAPITAL

Washington, November 17.—(United Press.)—The Rev. Dr. Joseph J. Muir, aged 80, chaplain of the senate, died at his home here today. Death was caused by heart disease, which afflicted him suddenly. Last night Dr. Muir addressed the Columbia association of Baptist churches here and

MAN KILLS WOMAN THEN SLAYS SELF

Savannah, Ga., November 17.—(AP) Mrs. Viola Ray, wife of D. M. Ray, who was convicted in superior court here Monday on a charge of voluntary manslaughter for slaying Thomas F. Page, was shot to death today by Harry Sincath, who then killed himself.

Sincath testified at the preliminary hearing of Ray on the manslaughter charge and his name was brought into Ray's testimony at his trial Monday. Sincath is alleged to have threatened Mrs. Ray's life several days after hearing her name linked with another man.

The shooting today occurred at the home of Mrs. Anna Roach, where Mrs. Ray is said to have fled after an argument with Sincath at her home nearby. Sincath is said to have followed her to the Roach apartment, where Mrs. Roach said he entered and began shooting Mrs. Ray. He then turned the pistol on himself, she said.

At his trial Monday Ray stated he had killed Page in defense of himself and Mrs. Ray. He declared Page had cut him with a butcher knife and hit him with Ray's policeman's club. When Page got him on the floor after cutting and striking him, Ray said, Mrs. Ray and Sincath pulled Page off. Page then struck Mrs. Ray with his fist and knocked her down, and following this Ray killed Page with his pistol in order to protect himself and his wife, he claimed.

Mrs. Ray yesterday visited her husband in jail, she told him Sincath had found someone who would go on his bond, which has been fixed at $5,000.

ATLANTA COMPANY GETS PAVING BID AT SANDERSVILLE

Sandersville, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—The McDonald Construction company, of Atlanta, today was awarded the contract to pave 25,000 square yards of streets here, the area around the courthouse. Warrenton bitulithic material will be used.

The contract was let by Mayor Gordon S. Chapman and members of council and represents the first unit in a paving program here that will total 100,000 square yards, which will take in practically all of the business section of the city.

Paving of the streets here will mark a progressive step in Sandersville, that being the principal plan upon which Mayor Chapman was elected, he advocating paved streets for the city.

MRS. JANE BEDELL DIES AT FOLKSTON

St. Marys, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Funeral services for Mrs. Jane Bedell, of Folkston, who died Wednesday at noon will be held Friday at her home in Folkston and interment will be in the family lot in Oak Grove cemetery at St. Marys. Mrs. Bedell was born and reared in Camden county and was a member of one of the most prominent families in southern Georgia. She was a member of Christ Episcopal church, St. Marys.

She is survived by her husband, L. M. Bedell, of Folkston, and a son, Ben Bedell, of Ridgeland, S. C., and six daughters, Mrs. J. C. Proctor, Jr., Mrs. Dan Proctor and Mrs. W. D. Broadwell, of Woodbine, Ga., and Mrs. Marwood Bedell, Miss Jamie Bedell and Miss Mallie Bedell, of Folkston.

Mrs. Clark Injured.

Mrs. John N. Clark, 51, of 106 South Chandler street, was treated at Grady hospital, Thursday night for minor injuries received when struck down by an automobile. She was not badly injured and did not give hospital attaches any details of the accident and police have no report of it.

FUNERAL IN ROME FOR L. B. GAMMON

Rome, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—Funeral services were held here Wednesday for Langdon B. Gammon, 53, who died suddenly Tuesday at his home on Second avenue. Services were conducted by Dr. W. D. Furry and Dr. E. R. Leshburn. Interment was in Myrtle Hill cemetery.

Mr. Gammon had been in the clothing business in Rome for many years. After receiving his preparatory education in schools in Rome he went to Alabama Polytechnic institute and graduated there. On June 9, 1900, he was married to Miss Edith Smith, and she with their son, Langdon B. Gammon, Jr., and four sisters and one brother survive him. They are: Mrs. H. D. Cochran, New Orleans; Mrs. E. H. Osborne, Savannah, Ga.; Miss Isabel Gammon, Miss Lillie Gammon and Melvin Gammon, of Rome.

19 MINERS TRAPPED IN SOUTH AFRICA

Johannesburg, South Africa, November 17.—(AP)—Eighteen native miners and one European were entombed today 2,000 feet underground in the Crown mines by a fall of rock from a roof.

Rescuers established communication with some of the buried natives and fed one of them through a pipe. Four natives, two dead and two alive, were extricated. The lone European, a man named Dutoit, had not been located tonight.

Don't Get Caught

Without A Good Warm OVERCOAT. The Price You Pay Is The Best And Most Sensible Investment You Could Make—

Smart And Beautiful Overcoats In Light—Medium And Heavy Weights On Our Calendar Today

$30 To $75

Underwear—Pajamas—Reefers

Parks-Chambers

INC.

1,000 Pairs Novelty Fabric Gloves

48c

2,000 Pairs Pure Thread Silk Hose

$1.19

4.98 Part Wool Blankets

$3.19

$1.00 Single Cotton Blankets

58c

$1 Children's Nazareth Unions

74c

2,000 Yards New $1.50 to $2.50 Silks

89c

Regular 98c Heavy Men's Unions

69c

Boys' $2.48 Lumberjacks and Wool Sweaters

$1.79

Look! Children's $1.50 Bath Robes

89c

$2.48 Corduroy & Blanket Robes

$1.79

The L. F. M. Store

LEONARD, FITZPATRICK, MUELLER STORE CO.

Star and Crescent Sale!

10,000 Yards for Gift Making!

$1.75 to $2.95 Quality Silks!

Duplan's Sol Ray Art Satin
Printed Snake Skin Satin
Multi-colored Satin Brocades
Multi-colored Printed Satins

$1

Japanese Kimono Silks
Printed Glo-Ray Satins
Novelty Chiffon Taffetas
Imported Crepe Chiffon
Darbrook Satin Charmeuse

—Never have we seen such an array of silks at just $1! Fresh, new bolts, just in from the mills—selected by our buyer last week—for the gift-making season!—Satin and brocades for kimonos and lounging pajamas. Art satins, taffetas and Glo-Rays for pillows. Silks for table runners and gift novelties—women glory in! Chiffon for scarfs—and even little dance frocks!

40-in. Crepe de Chine

$2.95 Satin Crepe

—In the loveliest selection of pastels for gift lingerie! Heavy quality that tins beautifully and wears wonderfully. Full to in wide. But you must see it—before you realize the full saving!

$1.44

—Those delicate pastels for lingerie—and those new chalk tones that make the most gorgeous negligees! And, of course—nothing is lovelier than a dress length boxed charmingly—for a gift—you will find all the street shades!

$1.64

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Special Purchase Makers' Lengths!

54-In. $6.95 to $8.95 3,000Yds. $1.19 to Coating Woolens $1.95 Dress Woolens

Suede Finish Velours
Velour de Laine
Fine Valorias
The Finest of Camel's Hair
Kitten's Ear Cloth

$3.48

54-in. Jerseys
54-in. Tweeds
54-in. Novel Checks
40-in. Kasha
40-in. Wool Crepes
32-in. Challis
27-in. Flannels

79c

—One of those tid-bits that manufacturers save for the largest customers—special lot of lengths—cut where the looms had woven too much for one bolt—fine, fresh goods—seasonable! But judge for yourself! Lengths 1 to 5 yds.—the longer ones will be cut if you desire!

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$4.95 Crystal and Lapis Chokers
$2.69

—Real crystal and real lapis chokers make treasured gifts. Graduated lengths with sterling clasps. The crystal is fine cut with colored rods between. The lapis is lovely shade of blue.

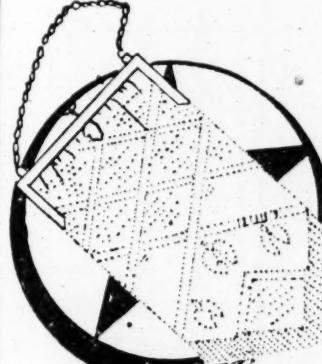

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

$3.95 Unusual Antique Rings
$2.95

—Antique rings set with semi-precious stones. Beautifully engraved. Novelty shapes with stones of lapis, cornelian, topaz and amethyst.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

$4.95 Cut Steel Beaded Bags
$3.95

—Square-shaped cut steel beaded bags. White metal frames, chain handles, deep fringe.

—$6.96 cut steel beaded bags. Gold and silver frames. Chain handles. $4.95.

—$12.95 square-shaped extra large beaded bags. Pastel and dark shades. $9.95.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

$3.95 Imported Tapestry Scarfs
$1.95

—Tapestry scarfs for the living room, dining room or sun parlor. Made of beautiful tapestry in unusual designs. Size 12x45 inches. In green, black and rose.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Rogers $3.95 Carving Sets
$2.49

—Two-piece carving set of Rogers silver. Hollow handle stainless steel knife. Boxed individually. Lovely for gifts.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$15 Fur Shawl Collars
$8.95

—Shawl Collars of fluffy, long-haired Thibetian. Lynx or brown shades.

—Also $9.95 Mushroom collars, $6.50.

—Four-inch Thibetians for cuffs. Usually $9.95. On sale, yard, $4.50.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$2.50 to $4 Imported Brass
$1

—Useful and charming brass ware pieces. Toaster and forks, hearth brooms, candlesticks. Antique finish.

—Other Pieces—candlesticks, ash trays, paper knives, and paper weights, 49c.

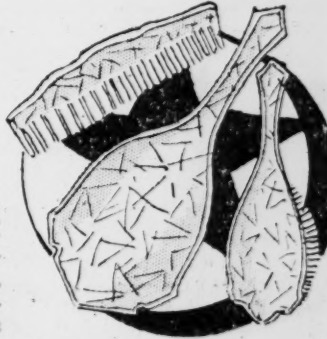

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$2.95 Toilet Sets
$2.39

—Lovely three-piece toilet sets, pearl on amber! In white, pink, blue or maize—to match your own or your friend's dainty boudoir! Sets consist of comb, brush and mirror, in a neat box.

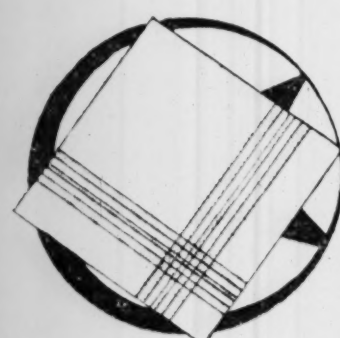

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Wrought Iron Smoking Stands
$1.19

—24-inch wrought iron smoking stands with 12-inch top. Included are three fittings—ash tray, light rest and match holder. Black, red and green trimmed styles.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

$1.95 54-Inch Luncheon Sets
$1

—Luncheon sets, including 54-inch cloth and four 14-inch napkins. Stamped on gold cloth. Stenciled in fast colors.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

98c Hemstitched Stamped Linen Towels
39c

—Linen towels in dainty guest size. Colored woven borders and hemstitched hems. Lovely for Christmas gifts. Stamped on beautiful quality linen.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

49c Imported Crystal Flowers
29c

—Lovely crystal flowers in light and dark color combinations. For hats and tailored frocks. Only 29c each for this sale!

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

$5 Bissell Standard Carpet Sweepers
$4.50

—Wonderful carpet sweepers these—special lot just for Star and Crescent Sale at savings!

—$6 Grand Rapids Carpet Sweepers $5.50

—$7.50 Parlor Queen Carpet Sweepers $6.95

—HOUSE FURNISHINGS DEPT.

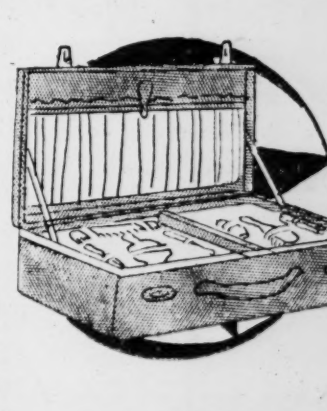

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

$14.95 Fabrikoid Fitted Cases
$12.95

—A marvelous chance to get a suitcase fitted with all the essential toilet pieces. Of fine cobra grain fabrikoid. The saving will be $2 on Friday!

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$4.95 Stork Go-Carts
$2.49

—Baby's first steps won't be hard if he has a stork go-cart to help. Made in white. A gift that's useful—for the youngest member of the family!

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$5.95 Doll Bassinets
$3.95

—A bassinets where little sister's dolly will go sweetly to sleep! Well constructed. Ivory finish. $2 is what Santa will save by buying Friday!

Also $7.95 Doll Bassinets, $4.95

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$12.95 Rolls Racer Wagon
$9.95

—A Rolls Racer wagon that all the "gang" will envy! Made with disc wheels and large rubber tires. Buy on Friday and SAVE!

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$2.95 Fabrikoid Hat Boxes
$2.49

—Sturdy, well-made hat boxes, in fabrikoid or enamel. Size 18 inches. Ideal for a gift or for your own traveling needs.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

$5 Polychrome Mirrors
$2.95

—100 Polychrome mirrors in silver, gold, and pastel tints of blue, rose and gray! With beveled edge plate glass mirror. For yourself and for gifts!

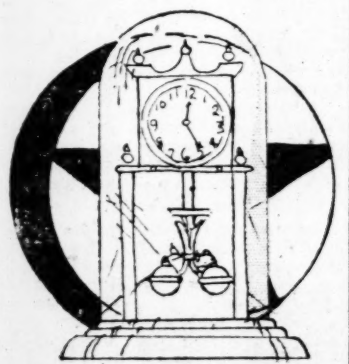

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

$15.95 Glass Covered Clocks
$12.95

—400-Day Clock—yes, that's how long you must wait between windings! Brass base, brass pendulum. Covered with glass.

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

49c Stamped Boudoir Pillows
39c

—Boudoir pillows stamped on voile. Completely finished with shirred top. All necessary is few embroidery stitches. Pastel shades. Novelty shapes.

—RICH'S, SECOND FLOOR

Women's $1 Rayon Bloomers
67c

—Beautiful quality, in pastel shades! Reinforced at wearing points. Every pair perfect! Sizes 25, 27, 29.

Women's $2.98 Rayon Pajamas in dark colors. Sizes 15, 16 and 17 $1.98
$1.59 Rayon Gowns in lace-trimmed styles 89c
$1 Rayon Bodice Vests. Pastel shades, 36 to 42 79c

—RICH'S, STREET FLOOR

Brides-Elect and Debutantes Are To Be Honored at Today's Affairs

Social gaieties honoring brides-elect will hold sway over Friday's calendar, with Miss Mary Sadler and Miss Catherine Candler sharing honors at individual luncheons, teas and buffet suppers, while a charming debutante, Miss Florence Eckford, and the other members of the coterie, Miss Virginia Courts, Mary Harvey, Mary Louise Brumby, Mary Inman Pearce, Anne Kessnich, Anne Spalding, Edna Raine, Catherine Boyd, Gertrude Harris, Mary Wellborn and Mary Matheson will be central figures at the elaborate tea given by the Atlanta Woman's club this afternoon. Mrs. W. B. Frice-Smith, president, acting as official hostess. Washington seminar's fashion show will be an interesting event in the college set of society, the seminary pupils displaying J. P. Allen's models in the brilliantly staged parade, while out at Fort McPherson the military will play bridge in the Officers' Bridge club, the event preceded by a series of informal dinners. Members of the Friday Morning Reading club, that cultural organization composed of prominent Atlanta women, meets with Mrs. Linton Hopkins at her home on Seventh street and the Black Cat club, composed of sub-debts, is to be entertained by Miss Billy Johnson at her home on East Fourteenth street.

Miss Mary Harvey Is Honor Guest.

Miss Mary Harvey, popular debutante of this season was complimented by Mrs. Willis Everett, Jr., Thursday at a morning bridge party at her home on Piedmont road. After the game of bridge, a buffet luncheon was served. The guests included Miss Mary Louise Brumby, Miss Virginia Courts, Miss Ann Spalding, Miss Gertrude Harris, Miss Edna Belle Raine, Miss Mary Inman Pearce, Miss Florence Eckford, Miss Anne Kessnich, Miss Mary Wellborn, Miss Mary Matheson and Miss Catherine Boyd.

Dr. Paul Hudson To Be Host.

Dr. Paul Hudson will be host at dinner Saturday evening at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Miss Catherine Candler and Dr. W. C. Warren, whose marriage will be a brilliant event of November 22. His guests will be Miss Katherine Deane, of Decatur, Miss Eleanor Williams, of Decatur, Ala.; Miss Katherine Boyd, Miss Janet Bailey and Baxter Maddox, Wilbur Glenn, Richard Courts, Jr., Harry Summers, Wadley Glenn and Charles Sheppard.

Mrs. Spencer Atkinson Entertains at Luncheon.

Mrs. Spencer Atkinson entertained at the third of a series of luncheons Thursday at her home on Piedmont avenue. Lewis Jones, a P. Cole, James Dougherty, William Perry, Charles J. Haden, Price-Smith, Norman Sharp and Spencer Atkinson.

Miss Margaret Nelson Is Luncheon Hostess.

Miss Margaret Nelson was hostess Thursday morning at a luncheon at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Miss Mary Sadler, a popular bride-elect. Covers were laid for eight guests, who included only the members of the wedding party.

Mrs. Simpson Draws Spanish Shawl.

Worthy Patrons club, O. E. S., sponsored a benefit drawing last week evening at the Ansley hotel roof garden. Among the draw prizes was a handsome Spanish shawl donated from Jackson Perry, chairman of the order in their ready-to-wear department, including Mrs. Jessie Marbut, of East Atlanta chapter; Mrs. Homer Landrum, of Decatur chapter; and Mrs. Frances Lewis, of Georgia chapter. This shawl was drawn by Mrs. L. L. Simpson.

Atlanta Chapter D. A. R. Holds Interesting Meet.

The Atlanta chapter, D. A. R., met Tuesday, November 15, at Craig House, Mrs. John Williams Smith, president, presiding. At the business session reports were heard from the officers of the chapter. In the absence of the treasurer, Mrs. Frances Brown read a report.

Mrs. Mabel Shaw, magazine chairman, reported a number of subscriptions. Mrs. Smith said, "The D. A. R. magazine makes a useful and interesting Christmas present and I would like to suggest the members of the chapter remember this in making out their Christmas lists."

Mrs. Smith then read a note from the state chairman asking the members to purchase pictures, "Old Friends," to help in the restoration. The chapter has received two shields, gifts of Mrs. J. M. High, one a "Pledge to Our Flag" and "List of the Thirteen Original States." Mrs. B. H. Palmer invited the members to "trip around the world" at the Y. W. C. A., celebrating International relationship week. Informal reports from the state board meeting by Mrs. Ben White, state recording secretary, and Miss Virginia Hardin were of interest.

Mrs. C. V. Lee, chairman of music, presented Miss Jane Uimer, who gave several delightful selections on the violin accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Uimer. Dr. W. W. Memminger, of All Saints' church, gave a beautiful talk linking two important days of November, Armistice and Thanksgiving days.

Howard Candler, Jr., Honors Bridal Party At Driving Club

Howard Candler, Jr., entertained at dinner at the Piedmont Driving club Thursday evening, honoring Miss Catherine Candler and Dr. William Warren, Jr., whose marriage will be a brilliant social event of November 22.

The lovely table around which the party assembled was ornamented with a mound of yellow roses and valley lilies from the center of which arose a crystal vase containing the same flowers, surrounded by crystal candlesticks holding lighted yellow tapers which cast a lovely glow over the scene. At each end of the table was a basket of yellow roses and valley lilies. A feature of the entertainment was the wedding place card, each depicting a scene from some old-fashioned wedding and artistically decorated with a spray of orange blossoms.

Mrs. Howard Candler wore a charming model fashioned with black satin skirt and white chiffon waist elaborately beaded. In crystal. Miss Candler was lovely in a powder blue chiffon model beaded in rhinestones and fashioned with becoming flared skirt. She wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Besides the wedding party the guests included Dr. Mrs. William Warren, Jr., and Mrs. John Candler, Wadley and Wilbur Glenn, Miss Alice Smith and Dr. Paul Hudson.

Y. W. C. A. Reception Features Pageant.

Styles and customs of 15 countries will be shown in a pageant which features the reception this evening at 8 o'clock, will include a general reception in the front parlors of the Y. W. C. A., from which guests will be ushered into various rooms, each representing one country and showing its customs, styles, arts and industries. The program will culminate at 9:30 in the pageant in the gymnasium.

Mrs. B. L. Buzz, chairman of the membership committee, will be in charge of the general reception. Through the courtesy of M. Rich & Brothers Co., costumes from eight European nations will be worn. Members of the membership committee will wear Asiatic costumes and tea will be served from a Russian samovar. Music will be furnished by the Mandolin club of the Girls' High school. The program, "The Folks in Our Neighborhood," has been written and produced by Miss Martha Jarrell, sub-chairman of world fellowship, who has arranged the program for the evening under the general chairmanship of Mrs. J. N. McEachern. Miss Frances Froehner has assisted in the direction of the pageant and the two main roles will be portrayed by Miss Sue Hill and Miss Martha Crowe. The public is cordially invited to attend the entire evening's entertainment.

Social Items.

Mrs. B. C. Neely, of Waynesboro, the guest of Mrs. and John R. Palmer on Myrtle street.

Mrs. Lily Stillwell has returned to her home in Ellenton after a visit with Mrs. J. O. Pitts and Mrs. Lucy Seay on Cascade road.

M. F. McLaughlin, of LaGrange, was the recent guest of his sister, Miss Ella McLaughlin, on Oglethorpe avenue.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. R. Harbour are registered at the Colonial hotel, Washington, D. C.

C. B. Myers has returned from a motor trip to points in Florida.

Mrs. Joe Harvey has returned to her home in Asheville, N. C., after a visit with relatives in West End.

Mrs. E. Magruder Myers, with her little son, has returned from a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Darling, in Waycross.

Mrs. George W. Seay leaves at an early date to spend the winter at her home in Miami.

John F. Hurley has returned from a visit with his mother, Mrs. Hurley, in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Salm, of Norfolk, Va., are visiting Mrs. L. F. Dreyfus at her home on Elmwood drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Collins are in Birmingham, Ala., and Mrs. Collins will visit in St. Andrews Bay, Fla., before returning to Atlanta.

Miss Pauline Dittler left Wednesday for New York.

Mrs. Howard H. McCall, Mrs. John F. MacDonalld and Miss Rose Woodberry motored to Atlanta Friday to attend the convention of the eighth district of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs and will be guests of Mrs. Lamar Tucker at her home on Decatur street.

Mrs. F. W. Millsap, of Nashville, Tenn., will spend the weekend with her sister, Mrs. R. H. Harris, on Peachtree street.

Miss Nell Harris will attend the Kappa Sigma fraternity house party in Athens this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Williams, of Cocoa, Fla., former residents of Atlanta, are spending several weeks at the Georgia Terrace.

Miss Pickett Myers is in Charlotte, N. C., recuperating from a recent illness.

Mrs. E. T. Brown has returned from a visit to Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Raine have returned from a visit to Pinehurst, North Carolina.

Miss Jean Duval, of Tallahassee, Fla., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred R. Connell, at her home on Piedmont road.

Mrs. Jane Pratt and Miss Ethel Bihrey, of Birmingham, Ala., are guests at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, of Provincetown, Mass., are stopping at the Biltmore hotel for a few days.

Miss Dorothy Murphy, of Chattanooga, is a guest at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

Mrs. Joseph Moody leaves Friday for New York where she will attend the marriage of her niece, Miss Betty Kess, and Daniel Elliot Huger, formerly of Charleston, S. C., which will be solemnized at a brilliant ceremony Wednesday, November 23.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The monthly educational meeting of the Atlanta League of Women Voters will be held in Chamber of Commerce hall No. 2 at 3 o'clock.

The Dante circle meets at the Atlanta Woman's club at 3 o'clock.

Hapeville chapter, O. E. S., meets at 7:30 o'clock in Hapeville Masonic hall.

The Atlanta district of the Young People's league meets at the Gordon Street Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock.

Kirkwood W. C. T. U. meets at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles Crane.

The greater council of the Camp Fire organization of Atlanta meets at the Atlanta Athletic club at 4 o'clock.

The Bolton P. T. A. will have daddies' night at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Lakewood P. T. A. meets at the school at 2:45 o'clock.

The State Street School P. T. A. meets at 3 o'clock.

A baby health center opens at 4:30 o'clock at Kirkwood school.

The executive board of Joe Brown Junior High P. T. A. meets at 3 o'clock in the school building.

The Business Women's circle of the Central Presbyterian church meets this evening at 6 o'clock at the church.

Hapeville P. T. A. meets in the Hapeville auditorium at 2:30 o'clock with the teachers and children in charge of the program.

The Charles J. McLendon P. T. A. meets today.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

The Friday Morning Reading club meets with Mrs. Linton Hopkins at her home on Seventh street.

Miss Virginia Courts will entertain the members of the Debutante club at luncheon at Piedmont Driving club.

Mrs. Green Warren will be hostess at luncheon for Miss Catherine Candler.

Mrs. Wayne Martin will honor Miss Mary Sadler at tea at her home on Twenty-eighth street.

Mrs. William Candler will entertain at tea, honoring Mrs. John Candler, a recent bride, and Miss Catherine Candler.

Atlanta Woman's club gives a tea honoring Miss Florence Eckford and the other members of this season's debutante coterie.

Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Barnett will entertain the Sadler-Bailey wedding party at a buffet supper.

Concert-dinner at the Atlanta Biltmore hotel.

The athletic association of Washington seminary presents a fashion show with the models wearing J. P. Allen company costumes.

The Black Cat club will hold its meeting with Miss Billy Johnson at her home on Fourteenth street at 2:30 o'clock.

The E. Rivers school will give a party at 2:30 o'clock at the school.

The Business Women's circle of the Georgia Power Company Women's club will sponsor a benefit bridge party in the clubrooms, 157 1-2 Whitehall street, at 8:30 o'clock.

A concert will be presented under the auspices of the Commercial High School P. T. A. in the auditorium on South Pryor street, near Trinity avenue, at 8:15 o'clock.

An oyster supper will be sponsored by Dixie Lodge No. 810, L. A. to B. R. T., at 6 o'clock at Red Men's wigwag, 86 Central avenue.

The Inman Park Methodist Woman's Missionary society will sponsor an all-star concert at 8 o'clock.

The College Park P. T. A. is sponsoring a Thanksgiving carnival from 3 until 10 o'clock at Temple Avenue school.

The G. C. club will sponsor an informal dance at the Atlanta Woman's club from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Local and visiting Shriners are invited to attend the third of a series of dances given by Yaagab temple at the Druid Hills golf club this evening.

Mrs. Percy H. Plant will entertain the Young Woman's auxiliary of St. Philip's cathedral at her home at 292 Eighth street, N. E., at 6 o'clock.

A bridge party will be given at 2:30 o'clock in the palm room of the Atlanta Woman's club by the local alumnae club of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

A benefit bridge will be sponsored by the piano and ways and means committee of the Garden Hills Woman's club at 2:30 o'clock on the Ansley roof.

A 'Georgia products' barbecue will be given at the West End Woman's club from 6 to 8 o'clock.

The Zeta Tau sorority of Oglethorpe university will be honor guests of Zeta Tau Alumnae chapter at a tea from 4 to 6 o'clock at the home of Miss Dorothy Strihling, 18 Avery drive.

The James L. Mayson class of Grace M. E. church will give a 'kid party' in the recreation room at 8 o'clock.

The bridge party given fortnightly at the Officers' club at Fort McPherson will be held at 8 o'clock at the club.

Weekly luncheon of the Beta Chi alumni will be held at 12:15 o'clock at Davidson-Paxon's dining room.

Miss Raine Makes Formal Bow At Brilliant Reception and Dance

Miss Edna Belle Raine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shelton Raine, was introduced to society Thursday afternoon at an elaborate reception given by Mr. and Mrs. William C. Wardlaw at their handsome home on Peachtree circle.

Several hundred members of Atlanta's fashionable married set called to meet the charming debutante, the occasion marking her formal presentation to society.

Elaborate decorations were arranged throughout the reception rooms. The hostess and honor guest received the guests in the spacious living room standing in front of a bank of palms, ferns and tall baskets of giant chrysanthemums and yellow roses, which were placed before the graceful triple windows at the back of the room. Tall black wickerwork vases filled with large yellow chrysanthemums and crystal candelabra with glowing lighted tapers adorned the beautiful mantel. Miss Raine wore a Parisian model of black chiffon trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. She tooled in the midst of a gorgeous array of bouquets and baskets of flowers sent to the popular young debutante by her many admiring friends.

Mrs. Wardlaw wore a handsome gown of black transparent velvet trimmed with rhinestones. Both Miss Raine and Mrs. Wardlaw wore corsage bouquets of Pernet roses.

Receiving Party.

Receiving with them were Mrs. Joseph S. Raine, mother of the bride; Miss Raine's visitor, Miss Calmar Cole and Mrs. Marion Watson. Mrs. John Slaton, Jr., and the eleven members of the season's Debutante club, who include Miss Mary Louise Brumby, Miss Virginia Courts, Miss Mary Harvey, Miss Anne Spalding, Miss Mary Inman Pearce, Miss Mary Matheson, Miss Florence Eckford, Miss Catherine Boyd, Miss Gertrude Harris, Miss Edna Belle Raine, Miss Mary Wellborn and Miss Mary Matheson.

Mrs. Raine was gowning in white chiffon embroidered in crystals and pearls. Her corsage bouquet was of orchids and valley lilies. Miss Cole wore flash-colored transparent velvet with shoulder bouquet and corsage.

Presiding over the punch tables were a group of the younger members of society, all gowning alike in dainty frocks of blue pink, including Mrs. Dorothy Raine, Miss Marion Raine, Miss Frances Harwell, Miss Laura Hoke and Miss Betty Gregg.

The dining room decorations carried out the color scheme of yellow and green. The large square dining table was covered with an exquisite cloth of Venetian lace and was graced in the center with a plateau of Pernet roses and yellow snapdragons with a shower of blue sweet peas and valley lilies. A tall silver vase of yellow Pernet roses and snapdragons arose from the center of the plateau. At the four corners of the table were silver candelsticks holding tall unshaded yellow tapers alternating with four silver compotes containing bon bons and nuts.

An orchestra rendered a program of musical selections during the afternoon and evening, being seated behind a screen of palms placed in the upper hall at the top of the stairway.

Those assisting in entertaining were: Mrs. R. M. Callaway, Mrs. Harold Blackley, Mrs. Frank D. Harland, Mrs. Earl Cote, Mrs. Edward

Mrs. Putney Gives Scholarship To Tallulah School

Albany, Ga., November 17.—At the birthday celebration honoring the Tallulah Falls school sponsored here today by the Albany Woman's club, Mrs. F. E. Putney, of Putney, Ga., gave a scholarship of $150 to the Tallulah Falls school to be known as the Albany Woman's club scholarship.

Additional gifts to the school were received at the celebration, including valuable clothing, shoes and money gifts of $250. Mrs. Putney is numbered among the earliest members of the Albany Woman's club, having given the clubhouse for the activities of this federated club.

Mrs. H. H. Perry, chairman for the Tallulah Falls school for the Albany Woman's club, which is given annually for the benefit of the school in the North Georgia mountains supported and maintained by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs.

The Albany Woman's club, of which Mrs. J. M. Patterson is president, is among the most progressive clubs in the Georgia federation and sponsors a tag day in early winter of each year for the Tallulah school. Mrs. Patterson is the donor of a perpetual scholarship to Mrs. and Mrs. P. W. Vignaux and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. LaHatte.

The Tech Merrymakers club will hold its weekly dance Friday night at Garber's hall. The affair will be the feature of a Tech-Oglethorpe entertainment.

G. C. Club To Sponsor Informal Dance.

The G. C. club will sponsor an informal dance at the Atlanta Woman's club on Friday evening, November 18, from 9 to 12. Admission by card. The price is $1 per couple.

Chaperons for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Grover Heyser, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Vignaux and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. LaHatte.

Chicken Supper To Be Given.

A chicken supper will be given under the auspices of the Erin Maybly circle at Grant Park Methodist Episcopal Church, South, corner Boulevard and Rosalie street, S. E., Friday, November 18, from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. The price of the supper is 50 cents.

St. Philip's Ladies' Aid To Serve Lunch Friday.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Philip's church will serve luncheon in the lunch room, 112 East Hunter street, Friday, November 18, from 12 to 2:30 o'clock. The committee for Friday included Mrs. Harry G. Greer, chairman; Mrs. Hattie Robinson, co-chairman; Mesdames Eugene Crichton, A. D. Boylston, Mrs. Brader Barker, Ed Williams, R. H. Small, Fanny Ransall, T. A. Clower, W. K. Boatright, Carroll Smith, H. E. Godfrey, Beverly Rogers and Miss Elsie Pioda.

Lady Board of Managers Will Not Meet Friday.

The board of managers of the Kate P. Dawson Good Will center will not meet Friday afternoon, November 18. There will be a special board meeting Friday, December 2. Those desiring information regarding Thanksgiving donations may have same by calling West 1760-J.

Van Winkle, Mrs. C. F. Wolf, Mrs. Erwin Fleming, of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. Albert Waldon, Mrs. Daniel A. Davis, of Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. Josephine Setze, of New York; Mrs. Ransom Wright, Mrs. Robert W. Davis, Mrs. W. C. Jarragin, Miss Martha Bell Waltaire, Mrs. George W. Forrester, Mrs. Henry Davis and Mrs. Michael Hoke.

Later in the evening, members of the 1927-28 Debutante club and other young people of the dancing contingent of society were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wardlaw for a buffet supper, followed by dancing.

One other question threatened complications when Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Washington, demanded that the District of Columbia division be denied its convention votes because of conflicting claims to legality by two factions of officeholders. For the fourth successive year, however, the convention refused to intervene in the division's internal affairs, and Mrs. Odenheimer's motion was decisively defeated.

Selection of today's program, is expected tomorrow, with the Fulton chapter of Atlanta adding its bid to the list of invitations already extended.

Mrs. P. H. P. Lane, of Philadelphia, was re-elected second vice president general; Mrs. Midge Burner, Waynesboro, Miss, was elected third vice president general; and Mrs. L. M. president general, in office by a 1,376-to-942 majority.

One other question threatened complications when Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Washington, demanded that the District of Columbia division be denied its convention votes because of conflicting claims to legality by two factions of officeholders. For the fourth successive year, however, the convention refused to intervene in the division's internal affairs, and Mrs. Odenheimer's motion was decisively defeated.

Selection of today's program, is expected tomorrow, with the Fulton chapter of Atlanta adding its bid to the list of invitations already extended.

Mrs. P. H. P. Lane, of Philadelphia, was re-elected second vice president general; Mrs. Midge Burner, Waynesboro, Miss, was elected third vice president general; and Mrs. L. M. president general, in office by a 1,376-to-942 majority.

One other question threatened complications when Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Washington, demanded that the District of Columbia division be denied its convention votes because of conflicting claims to legality by two factions of officeholders. For the fourth successive year, however, the convention refused to intervene in the division's internal affairs, and Mrs. Odenheimer's motion was decisively defeated.

Selection of today's program, is expected tomorrow, with the Fulton chapter of Atlanta adding its bid to the list of invitations already extended.

Mrs. P. H. P. Lane, of Philadelphia, was re-elected second vice president general; Mrs. Midge Burner, Waynesboro, Miss, was elected third vice president general; and Mrs. L. M. president general, in office by a 1,376-to-942 majority.

One other question threatened complications when Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Washington, demanded that the District of Columbia division be denied its convention votes because of conflicting claims to legality by two factions of officeholders. For the fourth successive year, however, the convention refused to intervene in the division's internal affairs, and Mrs. Odenheimer's motion was decisively defeated.

Selection of today's program, is expected tomorrow, with the Fulton chapter of Atlanta adding its bid to the list of invitations already extended.

Mrs. P. H. P. Lane, of Philadelphia, was re-elected second vice president general; Mrs. Midge Burner, Waynesboro, Miss, was elected third vice president general; and Mrs. L. M. president general, in office by a 1,376-to-942 majority.

One other question threatened complications when Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Washington, demanded that the District of Columbia division be denied its convention votes because of conflicting claims to legality by two factions of officeholders. For the fourth successive year, however, the convention refused to intervene in the division's internal affairs, and Mrs. Odenheimer's motion was decisively defeated.

Selection of today's program, is expected tomorrow, with the Fulton chapter of Atlanta adding its bid to the list of invitations already extended.

Mrs. P. H. P. Lane, of Philadelphia, was re-elected second vice president general; Mrs. Midge Burner, Waynesboro, Miss, was elected third vice president general; and Mrs. L. M. president general, in office by a 1,376-to-942 majority.

One other question threatened complications when Mrs. Frank G. Odenheimer, of Washington, demanded that the District of Columbia division be denied its convention votes because of conflicting claims to legality by two factions of officeholders. For the fourth successive year, however, the convention refused to intervene in the division's internal affairs, and Mrs. Odenheimer's motion was decisively defeated.

Selection of today's program, is expected tomorrow, with the Fulton chapter of Atlanta adding its bid to the list of invitations already extended.

Mrs. P. H. P. Lane, of Philadelphia, was re-elected second vice president general; Mrs. Midge Burner, Waynesboro, Miss, was elected third vice president general; and Mrs. L. M. president general, in office by a 1,376-to-942 majority.

Trammell-Marsh Wedding Plans Are of Cordial Social Interest

Cordial interest centers in the wedding plans of Miss Emmie Louise Trammell and Oscar Wilton Marsh, of New York and Florida, who will be married at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, November 24, at the Oakhurst Presbyterian church, Dr. Philip A. Mickel, pastor, officiating.

Miss Trammell has chosen the sister of the groom, Miss Marian Marsh, of New York, as her maid of honor, Miss Derrille Brownlee, the bride's aunt, and Miss Lucile Arnold will be the bridesmaid. Mrs. Hugh D. Handley, sister of the bride-elect, will act as matron of honor. The junior maid of honor will be Miss Marjorie Trammell, sister of the bride-elect. Miss Trammell will be given in marriage by her father, J. P. Trammell. Mark Trammell, cousin of the bride-elect, will serve as best man. The groomsmen will be Bill Brownlee, Fambrough Brownlee, Hugh D. Handley, Lewis Handley, J. M. Brownlee, J. L. Trammell, E. L. Jakes, uncle of the bride-elect, will act as ushers.

The Albany Woman's club, of which Mrs. J. M. Patterson is president, is among the most progressive clubs in the Georgia federation and sponsors a tag day in early winter of each year for the Tallulah school. Mrs. Patterson is the donor of a perpetual scholarship to Mrs. and Mrs. P. W. Vignaux and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. LaHatte.

The Tech Merrymakers club will hold its weekly dance Friday night at Garber's hall. The affair will be the feature of a Tech-Oglethorpe entertainment.

G. C. Club To Sponsor Informal Dance.

The G. C. club will sponsor an informal dance at the Atlanta Woman's club on Friday evening, November 18, from 9 to 12. Admission by card. The price is $1 per couple.

Chaperons for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Grover Heyser, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Vignaux and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. LaHatte.

Chicken Supper To Be Given.

A chicken supper will be given under the auspices of the Erin Maybly circle at Grant Park Methodist Episcopal Church, South, corner Boulevard and Rosalie street, S. E., Friday, November 18, from 5:30 to 8 o'clock. The price of the supper is 50 cents.

St. Philip's Ladies' Aid To Serve Lunch Friday.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Philip's church will serve luncheon in the lunch room, 112 East Hunter street, Friday, November 18, from 12 to 2:30 o'clock. The committee for Friday included Mrs. Harry G. Greer, chairman; Mrs. Hattie Robinson, co-chairman; Mesdames Eugene Crichton, A. D. Boylston, Mrs. Brader Barker, Ed Williams, R. H. Small, Fanny Ransall, T. A. Clower, W. K. Boatright, Carroll Smith, H. E. Godfrey, Beverly Rogers and Miss Elsie Pioda.

Lady Board of Managers Will Not Meet Friday.

The board of managers of the Kate P. Dawson Good Will center will not meet Friday afternoon, November 18. There will be a special board meeting Friday, December 2. Those desiring information regarding Thanksgiving donations may have same by calling West 1760-J.

Junior Music Club Has 200 Registered Members Enrolled

The Junior Music club under the direction of Mrs. G. Bingham Bach, fourth vice president of the Atlanta Music club, boasts 200 registered members, and according to national rating as given out in the "National Junior Bulletin," the juniors of Atlanta have more points than any club in the United States, standing 200 points. The club meets Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the school room on the fourth floor of the Rich Bros. Department store. The program will be given by the junior members under the presidency of Jo Beth Anderson. A special feature being a piano solo and talk by Francis Mitchell, former president of the club, and now chairman of the past presidents' assembly. He will play "Caprice Espagnole" by Chopin, and give a brief life sketch of the composer, pointing out in something of their lines and know-how, for which points are awarded the club.

Others on the program are June Sager, pianist; Louise Mitchell, violinist; Ernestine Pagan, pianist; Margaret Milan, pianist; a trio including Nell Louise Kurtz and Willa Kurtz, with Mrs. M. L. Wood at the piano; Mrs. E. D. Ivy and Margaret Stokely will act as accompanists; Emily Harrell will give current events and Ingrid Patterson will display public relations for the club during the month. Non-members of the club may attend by paying a guest fee of 25 cents.

The members practice under the direction of William Chase, which will be held at 11 o'clock. Miss Helen Knox Smith will rehearse the "Penny Chorus" at 1:30 o'clock.

H. G. LEWIS & CO

Today!
A Sale of Felts
$1.59

Worth Much
More!
H. G. Lewis & Co.
70-72 Whitehall

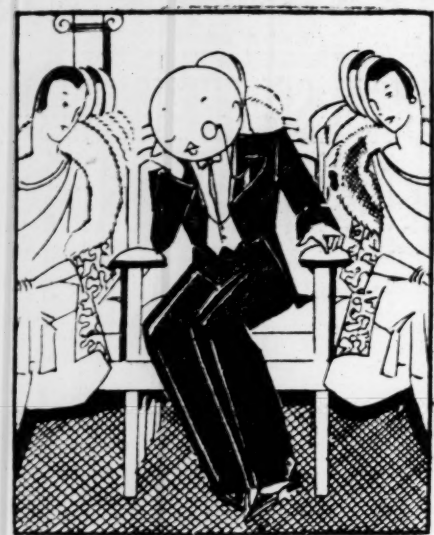

Play Shoes and Oxfords 3,000 Pairs. Valued to $5

"Little Wonder" Shoes for Boys and Girls

MAIL ORDERS FILLED
CHILDREN'S DEPT. RICH'S STREET FLOOR
M. RICH & BROS. CO.

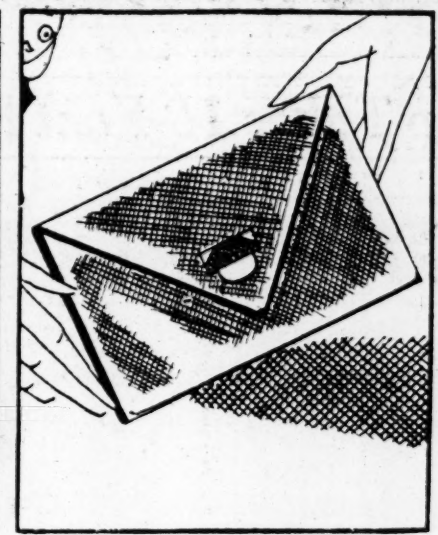

THE CONNOISSEUR

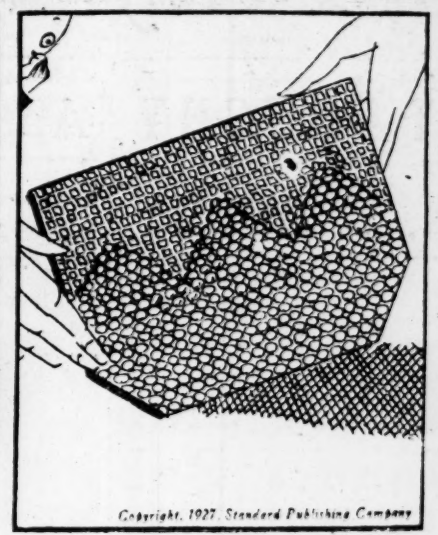

Mr. Van de View, a millionaire, a gentleman of parts, is devoted to the opera and all the classic arts. But the music seems to tranquilize him like a magic potion. And he cannot seem to stay awake in spite of his devotion.

Between the scenes, awakened by the people going out. He stands apologetically and shyly looks about. He blinks his eyes ecstatically when on a lady's arm. He sees a sequin evening bag of gold—a dazzling charm.

The lady just behind her has for him another treat. An envelope of velvet with a pin of marcasite. The bag is of a lovely shade to match her evening wrap. He's glad he was awakened from his accidental nap.

A smart geometric motif made of rhinestone and of pearl. Is upon the bag that's carried by a third attractive girl. And he vows he'll not permit himself to slip into a doze. When he has a chance to stay awake and look at one of those.

Constitution's Patterns

AN ATTRACTIVE MORNING DRESS

5741. Plain, light-colored and white. These are here combined. This model will also look well in striped broadcloth, together with plain broadcloth or organza.

The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38-inch size will require 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material to gather with 5/8-yard of contrasting material for facing on overlap, collar, cuffs and string girdle and for pockets. The width of the dress at the lower edge with plait extended is 1 5/8 yards.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

A PRETTY SCHOOL FROCK.

5983. Wool crepe, serge or cashmere as well as wash materials may be used for this design.

The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. A 10-year size will require 2 3/8 yards of 36-inch material, gathered with 1 1/4 yard of contrasting material for facing on collar, cuffs and belt.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date fall and winter 1927-1928 book of fashions.

In ordering patterns write name and address plainly on a sheet of paper. Order by number and indicate price in silver or stamps. Do not mail letter to The Constitution building in Atlanta, but address as follows: Fashion Department, The Constitution, 11-13 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, New York.

1,000 NEW "BUDDIES" EXPECTED TODAY AT LEGION LUNCH

A record gathering, numbering many of the 1,000 new "buddies" enrolled in the American Legion during the recent membership drive, is expected to attend the regular luncheon today in the Henry Grady hotel at 12:30 o'clock.

A feature act from the current bill at Keely's Georgia theater will form the nucleus of the entertainment program, by courtesy of Manager C. Reddick Eggleston, of that theater. A musical program will be given by Miss Ruth Willis and Miss Helen Traher, pupils of Kimo Kalohi, Hawaiian music school teacher. Peter Brantley has charge of the program.

Down to 98 Pounds—Finally Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cleveland, Ohio.—"After having my first baby, I lost weight, no matter what I did. Then a doctor told me I would be better if I had another baby, which I did. But I got worse, was always sickly and went down to 98 pounds. My neighbor told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I tried it. After taking four bottles, I weigh 116 pounds. It has just done wonders for me and I can do my housework now without one bit of trouble."—Mrs. M. REESINGER, 10004 Nelson Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

If some good fairy should appear, and offer to grant your heart's desire, what would you choose? Wealth? Happiness?

Health? That's the best gift. Health is riches that gold cannot buy and surely health is cause enough for happiness.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound may be the good fairy who offers you better health.

Some good news since Wednesday morning when doctors told him no bones had been broken in an automobile accident near Lavergne.

While Mrs. Howes was at the hospital yesterday thieves broke into their apartment and stole a fur coat, diamond ring, traveling bag and several dresses.

POSTOFFICE LOOTED AT WELLFORD, S. C.

The Wellford, S. C., postoffice was robbed of a small amount of cash and a first-class parcel Wednesday night, according to a wire received Thursday by Inspector in Charge Joe P. Johnston from Postmaster J. J. Verhagen, Jr.

STRUCK BY AUTO, RIBS FRACTURED, LEFT ARM BROKEN

Albert Rice, 47, whose business address is 135 Auburn avenue, suffered a broken left arm, fractured ribs and possible internal injuries Thursday afternoon when knocked down by an automobile on Spring street, near the Pine street intersection.

Rice was carried to the Davis-Fischer hospital by Harvey M. Smith, Jr., driver of the car. Smith later reported the accident to police, stating that Rice stepped suddenly into the path of his machine. No case was made.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

DIET AND HEALTH

BY LULU HUNT PETERS, M. D.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS.

Food and Health.

"It would seem that the principal cause of death lies in food and drink."

Dr. Hindle, of Denmark, published this sentiment when, during the war, he had charge of the food administration of Denmark. He based this startling conclusion upon the fact that when the diet of the people was regulated as it was in Denmark during that period, the death rate decreased in one year 34 per cent. Part of the regulation consisted of this: The cereals and potatoes were taken from the distilleries so that no brands were made; one-half of the cereals were taken from the brewers and the beer was cut down one-half, so there was less alcohol consumption. Practically all of the animals, except the milk animals, were killed, therefore, the diet was a lacto-vegetarian diet. The breads were made of whole rye, with wheat bran and barley meal added. There was a great consumption of potatoes, cabbage and milk, and as I have said, a much lessened consumption of alcohol and practically no meat.

Dr. Hindle's conclusion about a vegetarian diet was that it is more wholesome because "overnutrition, as a result of palatable meat dishes, is one of the common causes of disease."

Would you like our article on the "Balanced Diet"? If so, send a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope with your request.

A Look in the Mirror Satisfies.

"Thanks to you and God, I have found something to reduce me. Dear Dr. Lulu! I did weigh 235, and in two and one-half months I have lost 34 pounds. I am in perfect health and stick to the foundation diet you gave me nearly as possible. I found I couldn't reduce on 1200 C., went down to 1000, but didn't succeed, then went to 800 before I began to lose. I do strenuous exercise every day and walk about three miles. If I get hungry, I look in the mirror—that's enough for me."

MRS. K.

There's one thing that I haven't mentioned frequently enough, perhaps, and that is that you may be a little while on 1200 calories daily before you begin to reduce, Mrs. K. But eventually you will reduce, because no mind-around person can get enough food from a 1200 C. diet to supply all the energy needs, and the surplus body fat must be called upon. However, there are some who undoubtedly have to go on lower than 1200 in order to reduce as much as one and one-half or two pounds a week, which is the amount most people want to lose. But only one pound a week will total 52 pounds a year! Those who can't reduce on 1200 C. are usually short in stature and not active physically. There is another thing to be thought of, and that is, that perhaps the foods are not being counted high enough in calories. For instance, foods that contain more butter and oil than you think, you could count much higher. Perhaps you think amounts to 800 or may be much more!

except for the first week, when you go on the liquid or semi-liquid for three days (shrinking each period), you will lose five to ten pounds, two pounds a week is enough to lose. You have lost at a higher rate than this, which shows that your 800 C. a day reduces you more than necessary. Mirrors certainly are a great help. I know that, Mrs. K. Too bad that more don't use 'em, isn't it? Perhaps if they did they would send for our pamphlet on reducing and gaining weight! It can be obtained for a self-addressed, stamped envelope and ten cents in stamps to cover the cost of printing and handling.

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

"What is the function of the stomach?" teacher asked in the primary physiology class. "I know," one little girl responded.

"It's to hold up the skirt." Is yours functioning in this manner? If so, better send for our list of exercises—Atomic Abdominal Wall, and do especially those under the caption "The Tummy Ten." (Enclose only a self-addressed stamped envelope.)

ALLIGATOR!

... for the GROWING GIRLS!

—Done in Alligator with flexible welt soles and 40's covered heels. Sizes 2 1/2 to 7!

JUNIOR DEPT.

Stewart

GOOD SHOES FOR EVERYBODY

FRED STEWART CO. — 25 Whitehall St.

Whitehall S. W.

59

Today

and Saturday at Keely's

Values Beyond Comparison in

A Specialized Sale of Several Hundred

SMARTLY STYLED

FROCKS

For WOMEN and MISSES

$13.95

Made to Retail Up to $25.00

Materials—

Crepe-back Satin

Hairline-Stripes

Jerseys

Canton Crepes

Georgette-and-Velvet

Fashions—

One and Two-Piece

Straight Silhouettes

Coat Models

Draped—Pleated

Tunic Models

One of the most important value-giving dress events of the new season. Every dress is a supreme value and the character of styling and needlework is that characterizing dresses at double this price.

Keely Company

Whitehall at Hunter, Same Location Since 1869

Tech High To Play Riverside Here on November 29

Smithy-Boys' High Game Is Doubtful

Tech High Off Today for Charlotte and Important Game There Saturday.

Tech High will play Riverside Military academy at Spauld on Tuesday, November 29, at 2:30 o'clock, it was announced Thursday by W. O. Cheney, principal of Tech High.

Tech was originally scheduled to play Boys' High, but there has been considerable wrangling between the two schools as to whether or not the game would be played under G. I. A. A. or prep league rules.

Boys' High was firm in its contention that the game should be played under prep league rules, while Tech High was equally as firm that the game should be played under G. I. A. A. rules. The Tech High team is a strong contender for G. I. A. A. honors this year, and, accordingly, Principal Cheney, when the Boys' High game was still doubtful, he scheduled the game with Riverside.

The Riverside team has lost only to the Monroe Aggies, while Tech High has not yet lost a G. I. A. A. game. Mr. Cheney also said that Tech would not play the game under prep league rules and that in order for the game with Boys' High to be played at all, some written agreement would be necessary.

The Sporting squad will leave today for Charlotte, where Saturday the Tech High team will engage the "Fighting Gents" of Charlotte High school. This game promises to be a good one from beginning to end and each team seems to have an equal record for the current season. Tech High has bowed only to Central High of Chattanooga, this season, having defeated some strong eleven.

Marist will furnish the home grid offering, meeting Newnan High at Spauld this afternoon. Coach Joe Bean's charges have shown considerable improvement and are hoped to win over Newnan.

Boys' High will journey to Macon for an important G. I. A. A. game with Lanier High of that city, in what promises to be a hard battle. Fulton High will also play out at town, meeting Columbus Industrial High, which fell before G. M. A. recently, in Columbus.

COTTON GINNINGS FALL OFF IN TWIGGS

Jeffersonville, Ga., November 17. (Special.)—According to F. N. Vaughan, census agent of Twiggs county, the number of bales of cotton ginned up to November 1 this year was 4,177, as compared with 1927 bales ginned to the same date last year.

Indications now are that the final report will show a decided shortage over last year.

In 1611 the English Parliament ordered that December 25 be kept as a national fast day, and that "all should pass it in humbly bemoaning the great national sin which they and their fathers had so often committed on that day by ramping under the mistletoe, eating boar's head, and drinking ale flavored with roasted apples."

—History.

When he went to the national open of 1927 at Oakmont and finished well down the list, some of the wise birds counted him out of the race, but he went to England and set a record in winning the British open and then set an even greater record in taking the American amateur for the third time this fall at Minneapolis.

This, briefly, is the history of the greatest golfer of them all, but it does not tell the story of his triumph in full. Each victory won him applause and fame, but this applause and triumph were as nothing to the store of friendship he was gathering in his home city and many others.

Tonight that friendship takes concrete shape. Bob Jones, the man, will be presented with a beautiful home of his own choosing by his host of friends. Bob Jones is the greatest golfer of all time, but it is not this fact alone which brings him this expression of regard from his friends. He is a gentleman and a staunch and this is a token to Bob as a gentleman and friend.

Upster Costs Three Women $57,000 Fine

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution and The Chicago Tribune.)

New York, November 17.—Splinterwork of a Chicago society woman with whom one of them had fallen out socially was blamed today for the $57,000 fine imposed upon Mrs. Lila Busch, widow of Adolphus Busch, and two of her daughters for attempting to smuggle wearing apparel and jewelry into this port. The assessing and collection of the fine became public only this morning.

Mrs. Busch's daughters, Mrs. Charles Greenough, of New York, and Mrs. Nellie B. Loeb, of Chicago, arrived from Germany via Cherbourg with their 52-year-old mother, November 4, on the United States liner, George Washington. They had received an "exquisite"—a courtesy, which ordinarily would have exempted them from standing baggage examination—because of Mrs. Busch's age.

It is understood that the Chicago woman traveler, who had returned from Europe several weeks ago, volunteered the information on which the agent acted. She will receive $14,000 reward for her information, and that too, customs officials believe, may have had something to do with her action.

On their return from their last trip to Germany Mrs. Busch and her daughters brought 34 pieces of baggage, 16 belonging to the mother, 12 to Mrs. Loeb and 6 to Mrs. Greenough. All these were seized at the liner's Hoboken pier and hasty examination by the agent showed they contained many articles which had not been declared.

The luggage was sent to the appraiser's office, where the undeclared items were valued at upward of $20,000, and a report of the incident was sent to Philip Elting, collector of the port, who fixed the fine at a hearing attended by Mrs. Loeb and Mrs. Greenough.

The $57,000 represents the domestic value of the articles plus 100 per cent for duty and penalty. Elting explained today it had been levied jointly, as the effects of the three women were scattered through all the trunks and bags indiscriminately.

The collector announced that the $57,000 had been paid.

MUSE'S GLENROCK OVERCOAT $45

Keen as a whip—and warm! That straight boxy-hang that's top-form these important times. Get it this morning. Here's solid protection and style!

MUSE'S

The Style Center of the South

Overcoat Land

PEACHTREE-WALTON-BROAD

Second Floor

Second Floor

Second Floor

Second Floor

Second Floor

FLOWERS LAST FOUGHT AT SCENE OF N. Y. DEBUT

GEORGIA FIGHTER'S BODY ARRIVES THIS AFTERNOON

New York, November 17.—(AP)—The same ring in which Tiger Flowers made his New York debut also was the scene of the last fight in his colorful boxing career, during which the Georgia deacon and the former middleweight champion of the world earned around a half million dollars.

This was disclosed by Walk Miller, first and only manager of the Georgia negro, before leaving on the Coast Limited for Atlanta with the body of Flowers, who died last night after undergoing a minor eye operation.

"The Tiger's first fight here was just like his last," said Miller. "Flowers started against Lee Anderson, a light heavyweight, and knocked him out in the fifth round at the Commonwealth club in Harlem. His last fight was against Leon Gates, a heavyweight, last Saturday, and Flowers won by a knockout in the fourth round in the same arena. They have changed the name from the Commonwealth club to the Olympia, but otherwise it is the same place."

Friends and ring notables, including Gene Tunney and Mickey Walker, the man who took the middleweight title from the negro, paid tribute today to Flowers. Scores visited the funeral parlor where his body was taken after his death at the private hospital of Dr. W. G. Frank.

Miller not only served as manager for Flowers' fights but also was adviser to the boxer in other affairs. Miller estimated Flowers earned half a million dollars during seven years in the ring, not deducting expenses and other details involved in about 200 matches.

Since losing the title to Walker last February Flowers had campaigned against 19 opponents. Flowers was the only negro who ever held the middleweight championship.

Before the operation, Flowers made a will bequeathing property valued at $100,000 to his wife and a six-year-old daughter.

The body of the former champion will lie in state at the Flowers home in Atlanta.

Flowers never prayed before a fight which he carried with him everywhere. He explained this by saying: "I couldn't pray to the Lord for victory before a fight because I might meet a better man, a stronger man, and lose. Then I might think the Lord hadn't answered my prayers and I might be tempted to doubt Him. So I always wait and when the fight is over I thank God for the strength that brought me safely through, and then I read my Bible."

FUNERAL TO BE HELD MONDAY

The body of Tiger Flowers, accompanied by Walk Miller, will arrive in Atlanta late this afternoon and lie in state in the Flowers home on Saturday and Sunday. It was announced here. Funeral services will be held Monday from the Butler street C. M. E. church, of which Flowers was a member.

ATHLETIC CLUB HONORS BOB JONES TONIGHT

Popular and Famous Atlanta Golfer To Be Given Supper.

Continued From First Page.

dred present when the gift is made. The program to be followed at the supper has not been announced nor has the total sum given by the donors, but it is understood that the presentation will be of an informal nature and that the supper will be in charge of President Scott Hudson of the Athletic club and Henry Heinz, chairman of the Bob Jones gift committee.

The actual size of the gift and requirements, if any, which go with it, are known only to the members of the committee and will be revealed as a surprise to everyone tonight.

"Seven Lean Years"

For many years while Robert Tyne Jones was developing himself and his game in preparation for the greatest sporting career in the history of the game, he left Atlanta and returned defeated. His "seven lean years" passed without success on the field of battle but as these years added to his game of golf so they added to his list of friends in the Gate City of the South and other parts of the United States.

As he approached the cherished goal of a national championship he built in Atlanta a monument of regard which grew apace until, when young Volby Jones won his first great title, he was greeted by hundreds upon his return. He had at least come home with the honor he had been seeking.

That was back in 1925, when, at the age of 21, he won the national open championship over the Inwood course. Ever since that date he has been returning every year with at least one national title, either from this side of the water or the other, steadily establishing his right to be called the greatest golfer of all time.

The next year after his first national title he won the national amateur cup over the Merion course, the same course that eight years later had seen his first attempt at a major championship. The next year saw him again win the American amateur and lose the open title by one stroke in a play-off with Willie McFarlane. Last year he won the open at St. Louis and was defeated by George Von Elm in the amateur at Baltusrol.

Won Greater Honors.

When he went to the national open of 1927 at Oakmont and finished well down the list, some of the wise birds counted him out of the race, but he went to England and set a record in winning the British open and then set an even greater record in taking the American amateur for the third time this fall at Minneapolis.

This, briefly, is the history of the greatest golfer of them all, but it does not tell the story of his triumph in full. Each victory won him applause and fame, but this applause and triumph were as nothing to the store of friendship he was gathering in his home city and many others.

Tonight that friendship takes concrete shape. Bob Jones, the man, will be presented with a beautiful home of his own choosing by his host of friends. Bob Jones is the greatest golfer of all time, but it is not this fact alone which brings him this expression of regard from his friends. He is a gentleman and a staunch and this is a token to Bob as a gentleman and friend.

Auto Takes 10-Foot Plunge

Here is the practically brand-new coupe which Wednesday night plunged off an embankment on Spring street, the occupants fleeing. Authorities have been unable to identify occupants of the car, neither of whom was injured in the crash. The car bore a dealer's license tag and belonged to the Duffell Motor company, 780 Gordon street, but officials of that organization told The Constitution Thursday night they were unaware of the identity of the occupants.

MOROCCO MOURNS SIX FRENCHMEN DEATH OF SULTAN

Fez, Morocco, November 17.—(United News.)—Mouley Youssef, the sultan who enriched his nation by the introduction of modern methods of industry and transport, was mourned throughout Morocco tonight in accordance with the ancient rites of the Moslems.

On the deserts thousands of the sultan's subjects knelt in the sands; in the towns they prayed in mosques—all facing Mecca.

Mouley Youssef, who came to the Moroccan throne on August 18, 1912, the day after the massacres of Europeans in Morocco, died after an illness of a year.

"Grand Pacific"

He fought a long victorious campaign against the rebels and Morocco will remember him as the "grand pacifier."

Although a sincere traditionalist, Youssef sometimes strangely mixed tradition with the ultra-modern.

Stepping from under a massive red umbrella—the most outstanding insignia of sultan power—the sultan would mount a bicycle imported from France, gather his flowing robes under the seat and ride for an hour or more in the palace gardens.

Americans succeeded in inducing him to accept a player piano. After that the cool halls of the Fez palace resumed with jazz, while the charley-on program broadcast from Radio Tower amused the sultan's harem; a wireless had been installed.

Raved Over Blondes.

Youssef had four wives and countless concubines, ranging from black Africans to polished Berbers, Circassians and Georgians.

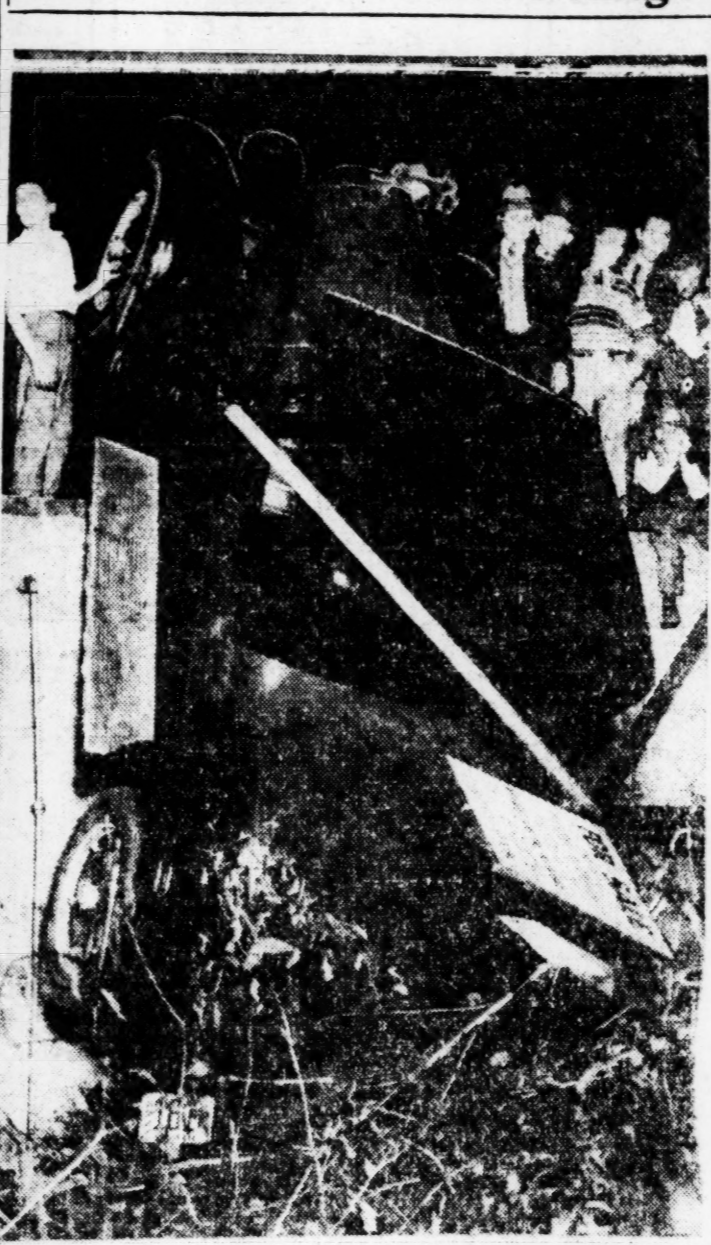

There was not a blonde in the harem. When the sultan visited Paris in 1920 he raved about the beauty of the blondes on the boulevards, but he didn't take any of them back with him.

As a quiet youth, Mouley Youssef lived in the shadow of the court of his brother, Sultan Moulay Abd-El-Aziz, to whom he was bound by close maternal relations, their mothers having entered the imperial harem together.

Both sons were born within a few days of each other at Marrakech. Youssef accompanied the sultan when the latter was defeated and forced to abdicate. He later returned to Fez and joined the new sultan, Moulay Hafid. Youssef saw the massacres of Europeans which followed Hafid's abdication.

At Hafid's suggestion, the council of Oulemas elected Mouley Youssef as sultan. He demobilized the tribesmen and made them till the soil. Knowing little of foreign politics, the

Auto Takes 10-Foot Plunge

Here is the practically brand-new coupe which Wednesday night plunged off an embankment on Spring street, the occupants fleeing. Authorities have been unable to identify occupants of the car, neither of whom was injured in the crash. The car bore a dealer's license tag and belonged to the Duffell Motor company, 780 Gordon street, but officials of that organization told The Constitution Thursday night they were unaware of the identity of the occupants.

MOROCCO MOURNS SIX FRENCHMEN FREED BY RANSOM

Fez, Morocco, November 17.—(AP)—Six French prisoners, two of them women, and two of them little girls, who have been held by Moors for weeks past for ransom in the Atlas mountains, returned to civilization today while 240,000 francs in gold ($100,000) laden on the backs of camels and mules found their way into the mountain recesses.

Stumbling over the snow-covered slopes of the middle Atlas range, Yves Steeg, nephew of the French resident general, Jean Maillet, and their two women companions, Baroness von Strindberg and Miss Marie Prosseroff, and the two children of the A. and family, were delivered into the hands of French officers at Aguenous by Moorish brigands, who have been negotiating with the French protectorate officers.

Girls Freed First.

The 9 and 11-year-old Arnaud girls, whose parents had been held for ransom, were freed first.

sultan spared untold riches by refusing to revolt against the French during the European war.

Trains His Sons.

He trained his sons, Indriss and Hassan, for succession, instilling in them a love of religion.

The sultan was 45. He had had several relapses during his illness. A few weeks ago he decided to find his own cure and discharged his physicians. Travelling incognito, the sultan went to a health resort. He showed improvement and, just before his death, he was planning to visit the city of former sultans.

He died at 9:30 a. m. today, a few minutes after a sudden heart attack.

His successor, probably the 19-year-old son Indriss, will be named at a council of nobles in Fez Friday. It is understood, however, that the question of succession was settled at a secret meeting some time ago.

As a quiet youth, Mouley Youssef lived in the shadow of the court of his brother, Sultan Moulay Abd-El-Aziz, to whom he was bound by close maternal relations, their mothers having entered the imperial harem together.

Both sons were born within a few days of each other at Marrakech. Youssef accompanied the sultan when the latter was defeated and forced to abdicate. He later returned to Fez and joined the new sultan, Moulay Hafid. Youssef saw the massacres of Europeans which followed Hafid's abdication.

At Hafid's suggestion, the council of Oulemas elected Mouley Youssef as sultan. He demobilized the tribesmen and made them till the soil. Knowing little of foreign politics, the when they were abducted, were the first to be surrendered by the mountain brigands. They looked pale and tired, and their feet bled.

Then Steeg and Maillet and the two women were turned over to General Freudenberger, the French commanding officer in the region and hero in the war against Abi-El-Driss, who appeared to relish little the situation.

"Allah is great; he desires us to return the prisoners!" said Sidi Mohammed Ben Nocer.

In order to show what the Moors still possessed ammunition 100 horsemen rode down the plain firing in the air. "Baroud," they cried. "Baroud" means "war."

Will Lack Warmth.

Close friends of the resident general, however, aver that his reception of his nephew Yves is likely to lack the warmth and enthusiasm of the prodigal son's return. M. Steeg is reported to be keenly angry over the activities of his nephew in the desert zone, which caused his capture and the bringing up of the Steeg name before the entire civilized world.

"I will kiss him first," the resident general is reported to have said, "and then I will have something to say to him."

Youssef himself refused to talk until he had seen his uncle. With him and Maillet appeared bearded and healthy, while Baroness von Strindberg and Miss Prosseroff looked pale and peaked.

CHARLES MELLEN, RAILROAD CHIEF, DIES IN CONCORD

Concord, N. H., November 17.—(AP) Charles S. Mellen, formerly president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad and the Boston & Maine railroad, died at 11 o'clock this morning at his home here.

He has been retired from active railroad work for some time.

Mellen, who was born in 1851 in Lowell, Mass., had been in feeble health for some time. He took a sudden turn for the worse this morning and death came suddenly. A physician's bulletin attributed death to cerebral hemorrhage.

Mellen is survived by four daughters and three sons.

BUY YOUR BULOVA WATCH NOW FROM MEGAHEE & TOMLINSON Jewelers

14 Auburn Ave. Walnut 3089

242 million VELVET CIGARETTES ROLLED EVERY MONTH...

Roll one ... smooth rolling!

Taste one ... smooth tasting!

There's no mistaking Velvet in a cigarette.

"Mr. Timken himself never rolled anything smoother!"

Roll a Velvet cigarette!

LIGGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Southern Football Flanked on Par With Rest of Nation

Improvement Noted Over Entire South

Georgia's Record Is Outstanding Along With Other Grid Elevens.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Chicago, November 17.—With the 1927 football season drawing to a successful close it is interesting to note the advance of the game in the south this year. Results of struggles south of the Mason and Dixon line are generally reflected by those in the midwest and east. But the fact remains that a number of the leading elevens in the south are playing just as good football as the championship contenders in the middle west, east and far west.

The big universities and colleges of the southland have had the material for years, but it seldom was properly coached. The attendance at the struggles made it impossible to engage first-class coaches with the result that the squads were under-developed and the best results were not obtained.

Practically the same conditions existed in the far west until expert coaches were sent there. It was not until 1916 that institutions on the Pacific coast conference realized they must have proper coaches if winning elevens were to be developed.

South Follows West's Example.

The south is now following the example of the far west. More of the better known coaches are going into the southland and the teams are being developed to a high point of efficiency. Strength of these elevens may be gathered from the results of the inter-sectional contests played this season.

Early in the season Georgia, one of the strongest contenders for the southern title, defeated Yale, 14 to 10. Bruce Caldwell, the great running back of the Blue eleven, who was declared ineligible on the eve of the Princeton game, was a member of that Yale team. Old Eli, with its running attack, could do nothing against Georgia, which is represented by two of the finest ends in the country. Nash and Shiver would be valuable assets to any football team. Yale's defeat by Georgia is the only blot on its record. Eli afterwards defeated the Army, Dartmouth and Princeton. Crowley, the former Notre Dame back and one of the "Four Horsemen," is one of the assistant coaches at Georgia and has had a lot to do with Georgia's splendid record.

Southern Methodist, coached by Ray

Special Train

For the benefit of Atlantans who want to see the Georgia-Alabama game in Birmingham Thanksgiving day and at the same time take advantage of the reduced rate over the Southern railway tracks, the Southern railway office has a block of 200 tickets which will be sold at the city office of that railway in Atlanta.

The tickets may be purchased by application to Ed Bar, district passenger agent, at the ticket office, Broad and Walton streets, and will be ready for delivery Monday.

They Hate That.

Well, the college football season is about over and, much as the students hate it, there is practically nothing to do now but study.

Morrison, who learned his football at Vanderbilt (trounced Missouri, 32 to 9, Missouri is leading in the championship race in the Missouri Valley conference, but it met a much stronger and alert eleven in Southern Methodist than it had been accustomed to clashing with in the valley section. Captain Gerald Mann, quarterback of the southern team, is a sterling player and entitled to mention when the best players in the country are considered.

Texas Beats Kansas.

The Kansas Aggies, generally a pretty fair football team, took a training from Texas, 41 to 7. The Lone Star state team is coached by Clyde Littlefield who learned his football at Texas. In the Kansas Aggies' game Texas had a minute team at back which included the best formations of the old and new game.

Texas Aggies, leading the pack in the championship race in the south-west, have a great player in Joel Hunt, a quarterback who can do most anything with a football. He scales about 165 pounds but is 50 per cent of his team's attack. He punts, passes and runs with the ball. He is a clever blocker and does all the kicking off. He is looked upon as one of the south's leading luminaries this fall.

Vanderbilt, coached by Dan McGugin who was a member of Fielding Yost's point a minute team at Michigan, has made excellent records. This year Vanderbilt was defeated by Texas 13 to 6 but held Georgia Tech and Tennessee to tie scores. Spears, the Vanderbilt quarterback, is another player who has been among the best in the south for the last two years. He can kick, run, pass and is a very strong defensive player.

Georgia Tech, another strong team of the south, was beaten by Notre Dame, and Indiana won over Kentucky, 21 to 0. But the fact remains the game is advancing rapidly in the south despite the fact the teams are about finished with hot weather early in the season.

Few Games Slated On Saturday Card

Tech Meets Oglethorpe and Georgia Plays Mercer in Outstanding Tilts Over Week-End.

BY WHITTNER CARY.

Unlike most of its hectic predecessors, the coming Saturday, from a southern football standpoint, looms as a day of comparative peace and quiet. In some ways it might be likened to that serenity which is popularly supposed to precede a tropical disturbance. Judging from the list of titanic engagements which dot the Dixie football map for next Thursday, which happens to be Thanksgiving day, there is much need for a day of rest to prepare for the strife that will be loosed on that occasion.

Close inspection informs one that but six of the 22 conference teams will parade their wares on Saturday. One other, Mississippi A. & M., will see action against Millsaps Friday. The other outfits will continue girding their loins and preparing themselves for the big Turkey day classics. What might be considered the most important game in which southern conference teams engage and the only one in which two members of the family appear on the same field is the Vanderbilt-Maryland encounter, which will edit the good people of Nashville. Maryland has done little to make even the wildest doer of favor its chances against the Commodore. Spears and company should have little trouble with the invaders.

Tech Vs. Oglethorpe.

Out at Tech Flats, the Jacket supporters will have ample opportunity to get sweet revenge for the Tornado last year. The Jackets have evidently come fast in the last few weeks and are now probably traveling at the fastest pace they have galloped this season. Little hope can be offered Oglethorpe, which has had a rather distressing season.

The main question appears to be the size of the score. As to this, there is plenty of room for argument. If Coach Alex shoots with full force it should be a most melodramatic afternoon for the Jackets. Should the Tech mentor conserve his strength and take no chances against possible injury, which will likely be the policy, the score should be held to respectable proportions.

Down in Athens the Dream and Wonder team will find Phoenix Smith and the Mercer Bears the guests of honor. Phoenix is a sensational runner that he is liable to score against any team in the country. If too much attention is paid to the young bruiser, there is Mr. Alderman, the gentleman so well remembered by Oglethorpe, to contend with. However, the Georgians take a pardonable pride in keeping the goal line a total stranger to hostile southern hordes and it is needless to say that they will take no undue chances of seeing Mr. Smith or Mr. Alderman do that which no other Dixie warrior has done.

Georgia's First String Stars.

There is hardly any question but Coach Woodruff will start his first team against the Bears. How long the Dynamic Foursome and the Brimstone Quartet will see action is not known, but they will certainly be given full opportunity to gallop. When the members of those two outfits set sail it is worth far more than a trip to Athens to watch. Mercer will most likely shoot hard, but there is hardly anything that points to a Georgia defeat. Whether the score is as large as on former Georgia triumphs this season depends on the length of time the Bulldogs' first stringers stay in.

Peering into other climes, one finds Kentucky and Centre staging a family quarrel that should produce at least some heated action. With a smashing victory over V. M. I. last week still fresh on one's mind and the undoubted improvement of the Kentuckians, it is hard not to see an impressive victory for them over the Praying Colonels.

North Carolina, another conference team which has shown some improvement, goes out into the S. I. A. A. for its week-end entertainment, Duke furnishing the opposition. The Tar Heels will find the going fairly hard, but are picked to win.

Although Hoben and Garvey, two of Yale's injured backs, went through signal drill with the Eli varsity, Captain Webster, crack grid, failed to get into the workout. Hall was in his place and may start against Harvard. Webster's hip injury appeared aggravated by the two minutes he practiced yesterday.

Harvard, after running through plays for the benefit of the student body tomorrow, will dine at a suburban country club and break the tradition of generations by spending the night in Cambridge instead of some secret resting place. Yale will leave for Cambridge tomorrow morning and practice later in the day in the stadium.

With a dearth of feature games on the Saturday schedule, other "eleven" trained their sights on the classics on Thanksgiving day. Although hampered by bad weather, Army and Navy polished passing weapons and defense. Rain that fell on other fields gave coaches an opportunity to acquaint their men with mud conditions absent in most of the games this fall.

Harvard, after running through plays for the benefit of the student body tomorrow, will dine at a suburban country club and break the tradition of generations by spending the night in Cambridge instead of some secret resting place. Yale will leave for Cambridge tomorrow morning and practice later in the day in the stadium.

With a dearth of feature games on the Saturday schedule, other "eleven" trained their sights on the classics on Thanksgiving day. Although hampered by bad weather, Army and Navy polished passing weapons and defense. Rain that fell on other fields gave coaches an opportunity to acquaint their men with mud conditions absent in most of the games this fall.

Piedmont Lions Play Tennessee Wesleyan

Demorest, Ga., November 17.—(Special.)—The Lions of Piedmont college leave Friday for Athens, Tenn., and their annual game with Tennessee Wesleyan at 3 o'clock. The Lions have just returned from a non-victorious trip in Florida, where they played Miami, losing 46 to 0, and also losing to Rollins by the close score of 19 to 18.

Coach Forrester put his team through hard workouts during the past week, getting his men in shape for the game with the Tennesseans, and believes that this will be an easy victory. Captain Chambers will lead his men into the fray.

Ring a Goal.

The students shouldn't be too down-hearted. It won't be long now until they can throw their backs at the professors and plunge into the business of basketball.

Harvard Looks To Old 'Jinx' For a Victory

Crimson Line May Also Be Able To Cope With Yale's Straight Driving Attack.

New York, November 17.—(United News.)—Harvard is preparing for another gallant defense of the Cambridge stadium goal line that has been crossed only once in 19 years by a figure in blue.

Yale and Harvard meet for the 46th time Saturday at Cambridge. The outstanding team in the east, Yale is an overwhelming favorite to batter down the thin crimson line that couldn't check Purdue, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania.

Yet Yale has a habit of going into the Harvard game a top-heavy choice to win about as it pleased. In 1923 Ducky Pond picked up a Harvard fumble and waded 45 yards through mud and water for the only touchdown old Eli has made at Cambridge in 19 years. A powerful Yale team with Mac Aldrich, Mallory, Neidinger and others went to Cambridge in 1924 a 2 to 1 favorite to win and lost, 10-3.

The last Harvard-Yale game at Cambridge in 1925 resulted in a scoreless tie. Yale had been expected to win about as it pleased. In 1923 Ducky Pond picked up a Harvard fumble and waded 45 yards through mud and water for the only touchdown old Eli has made at Cambridge in 19 years. A powerful Yale team with Mac Aldrich, Mallory, Neidinger and others went to Cambridge in 1924 a 2 to 1 favorite to win and lost, 10-3.

Cambridge Goal Line Jinx. An inspired Harvard team and the Cambridge goal line jinx stand in the way of Yale's claim to the football championship of the east.

Johnny Hoben, Yale quarterback whose daring strategy last week won the Prince game, has a strained arm and shoulder. Captain Bill Webster guard, has a hip injury. John Garvey, who replaced the ineligible Bruce Caldwell in the Yale backfield, has an injured shoulder.

Harvard plans to make extensive use of the lateral pass. The Canadian coach, Frank Shaughnessy of McGill, is aiding Arnold Horween in preparing Harvard for this game. Harvard has made more of the backward pass than any other eastern team and Yale may see a lot of deceptive passes flung this week-end.

Crimson Backs Promising.

The crimson backfield of Dave Guarnaccia, Art French, Joe Crosby and Bill Potter, the 17-year-old full-back, has shown possibilities of greatness on several occasions this season. Crosby has a boil on his nose, but it won't prevent him from playing.

Harvard's defense cracked wide open against runners of the type of Welch of Purdue, Masters and Lane of Dartmouth, and Paul Scull of Pennsylvania. The Crimson line has the physical strength to show well against the straight, driving attack of Yale which has no deceptive runner.

There have been a lot of changes in the Harvard line in an effort to place the strongest defensive combination of the year on the field against Yale.

Terrors Play Saturday.

The Southside Terrors will play the Gordon Street Feds Saturday to see who is to top the list of the sand-bag league.

The clash is to take place on Grady field. The Feds are now leading the league, but the Terrors promise a good fight.

Crashing Football Games Tough-- "One-Eye"

Chicago, November 17.—(United News.)—"One-eye" Connelly, whose gate crashing has taken the curse off many a dull prize fight, revealed himself today as a student of football. "But the going is tough," "One Eye" said sadly, "and if I had known what an experienced gate crasher was up against, I would never have undertaken my study of the collegiate sport."

"The trouble is, they have too many amateurs working for nothing. An honest guy can't get a job peddling peanuts or programs."

And Connelly admitted his average of "push-backs" at football games had been extraordinarily high.

The international sportsman said he was passing through Chicago en route to the Illinois-Ohio game at Columbus Saturday.

There have been a lot of changes in the Harvard line in an effort to place the strongest defensive combination of the year on the field against Yale.

Would, at That.

With these New York-to-Paris planes costing $25,000 apiece (and always falling into the ocean at that) it would seem to be cheaper if they'd just move Paris over here.

All the Rage.

It seems to be the fashionable thing among big college football teams this season to be defeated.

Dempsey Case Is Postponed Until Monday

Broadway Experts Offer To Bet That Case Will Be Settled Out of Court.

BY HENRY L. FARRELL.

United News Staff Correspondent. New York, November 17.—Broadway sharps who profess to know the inside of the boxing business were offering to bet today that the $333,333 suit of Jack Kearns against Jack Dempsey, the former heavyweight champion, never would reach the jury.

Reports that the suit would be settled out of court followed a brief session in the United States district court in Newark when a postponement until Monday was granted because of the illness of Arthur F. Driscoll, chief counsel for Dempsey.

Dempsey could not be reached but it was stated in a reliable source close to Dempsey that—

"Dempsey will never settle out of court unless Kearns pays him money he figures is coming to him."

Kearns returned from Newark to his New York hotel where he remained all afternoon.

"I have heard nothing about a settlement," he said. "If there is to be a settlement they'll have to make it. I wouldn't have gone this far if I had my hand out for a silence."

1902

25 YEARS OF FAITHFUL SERVICE

1927

TRIVERS BLUES For Thanksgiving

"WE'VE GOT THE BLUES"—the blues that you want ---for this season Gentlemen of Atlanta again prefer Blues, especially TRIVERS BLUES, because they know that for Style, Quality, Value and large assortments no other retailer in Atlanta can compare with TRIVERS. Hundreds of Blue Overcoats, in Tube Coats, Box Coats, Dress Coats and Chesterfields, with self or velvet collars, single and double breasted models, in Chinchillas, Meltons, Kerseys, Boucles and Whitneys, all hand tailored and beautifully trimmed, are now ready for your selection. We advise that you visit us without delay on account of the great demand. You will surely find here the Overcoat you like---at a price that you will be pleased to pay.

The Greatest Clothes Values in Atlanta

$22⁵⁰ $35⁰⁰

Blue 2-Pants Suits

Here you will find the greatest assortment of Blue 2-Pants Suits in the City. Blue Serges, Blue Unfinished Worsteds, Blue Cheviots and Blue Fancy Worsteds in all the new weaves. Complete your wardrobe with a fine TRIVERS 2-PANTS SUIT. We have every new cloth, every new model in sizes to fit everyone. Let us serve you and save you $10 to $20 on any garment you will purchase from us.

$28⁵⁰ $35⁰⁰ $45⁰⁰

ESTABLISHED 1902

STORES COAST TO COAST

Lets Go!
Georgia Tech-
Oglethorpe
Football Game
Saturday

Trivers Clothes
35 Peachtree
At 5 Points

Watch the Ramblin' Wreck-
Oglethorpe
Game
Saturday

OPEN SATURDAYS TILL 9 P. M.

With the advent of Puritanism, revelry at Christmas was tabooed entirely. It became a sinful offense to rejoice or make merry.—History.

Muse's OVERCOAT HAT

becomes the correct style now. . . . The icy winds of last night were the signal—

Overcoats bring a deeper note to your appearance, and the entire Hat idea swings in step—

In comes—

THE DISTINGUISHED HAT....FINE COMPANY FOR THE OVERCOAT

Come by and see this Hat today!

$8

MUSE'S
The Style Center of the South
PEACHTREE-WALTON-BROAD

Muse's
Henry
Grady
Shop

Muse's
Biltmore
Shop

Jackets Finish Training Work for Oglethorpe Game

Light Workout Is Scheduled This Afternoon

Dummy Scrimmage and Signal Drills Mark Work of Thursday Afternoon.

The baseball field stood empty and deserted Thursday afternoon at Tech. Empty and deserted after having been so full for the past week or so with something over a dozen young men, clad in golden jerseys, practicing in secret under the direction of Coach Alexander.

For Thursday Coach Alex had the bunch out in the open, that is, on the regular field, where those who could get in the players' gate, were allowed to watch the team work out in dummy scrimmage against the scrubs, who were running formations that one suspected being of the kind used by Oglethorpe.

They were busily engaged in breaking up passes that the scrubs were endeavoring to complete. And most of them the regulars broke up. The team was getting rid of a lot of surplus energy or whatever you want to call it, during lulls in practice in the way of wise cracks and horse play and looked to be in the best of shape and spirits.

After an hour or so of working out against the scrubs Alex sent the

Webb, Goodrich Fight Tuesday

Spike Webb and Ted Goodrich will tangle in the headline of the opening bout of the newly formed Ringside club located on Mitchell at Broad. Tuesday night, it was announced Thursday by Promoter Mason.

The rest of the card has not yet been arranged, but Mason stated that several good bouts were under consideration and that the card would soon be completed.

Construction of the ring and seats in the new club is being rushed and will be ready for Tuesday, it was announced.

Team down the field and back again running signals. A couple of white footballs were brought out and darkness found the gang still on the field.

The rest of the varsity squad worked out for a short time under Bill Fincher perfecting plans for the meeting with Oglethorpe, which will be held on Grant field Saturday.

The workout was an abbreviated one, but during the short period of time Bill put his charges through their paces in quick time and had them end it up with two turns around the track and a sprinting finish. There was no scrimmaging, except of the dummy kind, going on Thursday, and this afternoon will be taken up with the usual punting and passing practice and signal drill.

Petrels End Hard Work For Jackets

Oglethorpe Squad Expected To Put Up Hard Fight Against Tech Saturday.

BY FRED McEACHIN.

With the scrimmage of the second team at Hermance field Thursday afternoon the rough work for the Petrels is ended for the preparation of a formidable machine to combat the Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech on Grant field Saturday afternoon.

Coach Robertson sprang a surprise when he ordered his first string men to the showers without having pitted their strength against the freshmen. After a period of running signals and practicing of new pass formations the varsity left the field and called it a day's work.

But that did not mean that there would be inactivity on the gridiron for the remainder of the afternoon, for the reserves were given a long and tough assignment of battling the frosh.

Asa Wall, giant fullback, who has been nursing a weak knee for the past several days, was started in the skirmish Thursday but was unable to participate in the rough work. It is very doubtful if he will be permitted to get in the approaching contest, which will considerably weaken the Petrels' defensive power. Roy Hancock, regular end, is having considerable trouble with his left eye but it is not thought that he will be kept from playing on that account.

Coach Robertson is rather reluctant about giving any information regarding the lineup against Tech, but it is expected that the same forward wall will see service that has started the most of the contests this year.

In the back field his choices are dubious. Although the Petrels are doomed to lose the game by a huge majority Robertson has been grooming his charges in several new plays and the Petrels will fight hard.

A final light workout will be held this afternoon and then the Oglethorpe boys will be all set to meet their powerful enemies whom they defeated last year by the close score of 7-6.

The Real Reason.

Thanksgiving day, coming at the close of the grid season, must have been originated by coaches whose teams did not come up to expectations.

Londos Wins Match On Auditorium Card

Jim Browning Defeats Sandy MacDougal in Gouging and Biting Affair—Indian Fails To Appear.

Jimmy Londos, brown as a nut and acting more like one than a wrestler at times, again established his right to be rated among the best grapplers in the nation at the Auditorium Thursday night when he won two straight falls from Nick Gotch. He took the first fall in 42 minutes and the last in something less than two minutes.

The match was something of a defensive battle on both sides. Londos, pursuing his usual tactics, evaded around the ring like a demented rabbit until his big opponent became disgusted and lay on the floor with his feet in the air, completely winded from chasing his slippery opponent.

The big fellow managed to keep away from the head holds of the little Greek for a longer time than most men can do but once they were applied there was no question of the result. That second fall found Londos the complete master and no sparing for time was necessary.

The first bout of the evening furnished much of interest to the blood-thirsty fans with Jim Browning and Sandy MacDougal came to blows in their one-hour match.

Fun Begins.

The fun started when, after more than 25 minutes of battling, Referee Launkford gave Browning a fall and MacDougal kicked like a reeling steer about the decision. There seemed to be some doubt in the minds of everyone and finally after Matchmaker Contos had entered the ring as peacemaker, Browning offered to let the fall go and try again.

That suited the Scot and after 20 minutes of hitting, kicking, gouging and other parlor tricks he won the first fall. The second went to Browning in 15 minutes and six seconds.

There might not have been as much wrestling in this bout as some would like to see but the folks who like fighting mixed with their grappling were well pleased. The great Richard Davis would have been green with envy if he could have seen the two brawlers at work.

When Jack Washburn entered the ring to meet Firpo Wileox, the Indian wrestler, he found instead a substitute known as Bill Lewis, of Savannah. The Indian had failed to show up at the last minute and Lewis proved a worthy substitute.

There was much action packed into the 19 minutes of this match but it ended abruptly when Washburn fell across the body of Lewis and injured a rib.

Big Ten Ends Grid Season On Saturday

Ohio-Illinois and Michigan-Minnesota Games Hold the Limelight.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

(By Leased Wire to The Constitution) Chicago, November 17.—With the curtain falling on the western conference football season Saturday, the Big Ten elevens will enter the various struggles with full strength, thereby insuring interesting contests. No excesses will be necessary from the defeated teams and nothing will be held in reserve.

The games between Illinois and Ohio State and Michigan and Minnesota will attract the interest of the football world. The conference championship will hinge upon the outcome of these struggles, as neither Minnesota nor Illinois has been defeated, but opponents will make gallant efforts to close their season with victories over unbeaten elevens.

The Illinois and Ohio State struggle will be decided at Columbus by a somewhat homecoming gathering. In D'Ambrasio, Illinois has a slashing fullback who is nearly the equal of Joesting, of Minnesota, as a line plunger.

Illinois Star Returns.

D'Ambrasio, who has been out of Illinois' last two games because he violated a ruling forbidding students to use automobiles, will play most of the game at fullback. The remainder of the team is in excellent condition.

Kansas City Sports Town

Kansas City, Mo.—(AP)—With the lifting of the ban on race track betting and boxing in Missouri, Kansas City has become a sports center of this section.

The "bang-tails" invaded Smithville track for a 38-day meet immediately after the supreme court's ruling permitting "contributions" betting. Two dog racing courses took form in Clay county nearby, and a half dozen organizations interested themselves in the promotion of fistie bouts.

The Smithville meet drew an average of 3,000 persons a day, between 2,000 and 3,500 lined the greyhound tracks nightly, and still larger numbers flocked to the ring affairs.

Several thousand persons each week motor either to Lawrence, Kans., or Columbia, Mo., to see the state university football games. Immediately after the football season the crowds turn to basketball with enthusiasm.

Now Kansas City is planning for the annual tournament of the American Bowling congress next spring. The goal for booster teams here is 1,500, three hundred more than the record established by Buffalo several years ago.

It has been announced that a Kansas City club of the American Hockey association would begin a season here January 2. Three former members of the Duluth "Hornetts" have been signed to play with the club.

Not Hardly.

Ruth Elder says she knew she would be saved even when her plane dived into the ocean. Now don't tell us the whole business was staged!

That's Strange.

Believe it or not, the reason most folks give for their lack of interest in soccer football is because there is no kick in it.

FOOTBALL SPECIAL BIRMINGHAM VIA SEABOARD

CHOICE RESERVED SEATS FOR GAME ON SALE AT CITY TICKET OFFICE MONDAY. MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW.

ROUND TRIP $6.25
LEAVE ATLANTA 12:00 MIDNIGHT, 23RD

Returning
LEAVE BIRMINGHAM 12:00 MIDNIGHT, 24TH
ARRIVE EACH TERMINAL 7:00 A. M.

R. E. CAMP Phone
District Passenger Agent WA. 5018 or 2708

Removal SALE Removal

MEN'S FINE Suits and Overcoats

1/2 and 1/3

REDUCTIONS IN PRICE

BEST CHOICE NOW

Big Reductions on Men's Fine Hats!

NEWMAN & HOLLEY, Inc., 111 Peachtree
Opp. Piedmont

Announcing the

GIBBS-KENDALL TIRE CO.

73 Ivy Street, N. E.

Distributors of

BRUNSWICK TIRES

The high quality of Brunswick Tires is well established in Atlanta. They are better today than ever before.

You can buy them with a small cash payment down and the balance weekly, semi-monthly or monthly.

Pay As You Ride

No extra charge on this plan—no trouble—no delay—no red tape. Buy on this easy payment plan and forget your tire troubles.

Come in and ask us about it.

FREE Tube With Every Tire

To introduce our store and service to Atlanta motorists, Friday and Saturday with every tire purchased from us we will give away free a first quality tube of corresponding size.

Come around and let's get acquainted.

SOLID CARLOAD BRAND NEW STOCK—All Sizes

GIBBS-KENDALL TIRE CO.

73 IVY ST., N. E., WAL. 4414

R. I. Gibbs

B. P. Kendall

A. A. U. Considers Reinstatements

New York, November 17.—(United News.)—Among 15 applications for reinstatement which will be considered by the annual convention of the Amateur Athletic Union at Cincinnati, this week, is that of Harold C. Cuthill, world's record holder at 1,000 yards, known to track fans as the "Flying Parson."

Cuthill, who was suspended for receiving traveling expenses in excess of his actual expenditures, gave as the reason for his application that he is now a full-fledged clergyman and that he desires to remove the stigma of his suspension in the interests of his congregation.

Together with Joie Ray, of Chicago, the "Flying Parson" set the world's record for 1,000 yards at 2:13.25.

Chesterfield smokers don't change with the fashions

...but watch how other smokers are changing to Chesterfield!

FOR THE BEST OF GOOD REASONS BETTER TASTE!

A. A. C Opens Cage Season With Tech on January 4

Basketball Schedule Is Announced

Coach Bean Has Large Squad of Veterans From Which To Build '28 Team.

BY BEN COTHIAN.

Here we are with Thanksgiving turkey heads still where they belong and the annual Tech-Georgia scrap not over—and basketball makes a bid for the limelight.

Which remarks are occasioned by the fact that Joe Bean, who has coached Atlanta Athletic club teams for longer than most people can remember, has been working with a squad of young men nightly, clad in abbreviated and scanty attire, rounding them into shape for the season, which opens on January 4.

So the schedule, released Thursday by Coach Bean, says:

The complete card follows:

January 4—Tech at A. A. C.
January 7—Oglethorpe at A. A. C.
January 11—J. P. C. at J. P. C.
January 14—Albany V. in Albany.
January 21—Birmingham A. C. at Birmingham.
January 25—Georgia at A. A. C.
January 28—Mercer at A. A. C.
February 1—J. P. C. at A. A. C.
February 8—Tech at Tech.
February 11—Georgia in Athens.
February 15—Oglethorpe at A. A. C.
February 18—B. A. C. at A. A. C.
February 24—Mercer in Macon.
February 25—Albany V. in Albany.

That's a rather healthy and husky schedule that the boys have mapped out at the club, and to win all the games carded will call for a lot of good basketball.

Bean has gathered a bunch of likely-looking engers and is looking for a better-than-successful season.

To head the list is a bunch of veterans. In fact, every man who played last year will be back with the exception of Jimmy Lattimer, who played guard last season. His place will be taken by Ridgway, who played guard on the University of Kentucky team that won the southern conference title in 1923.

Coach Bean has Captain Stephens, Brewer, Johnson and Press at forwards; Joe Bennett and Bill

MOREHOUSE READY FOR TUSKEGEE

With Tuskegee institute of Tuskegee, Ala., undefeated for four years, southern colored champion for the past four years and three times national colored champion, as the opponent for Saturday at 2 o'clock on the Morehouse athletic field, Coach Harvey sent his Tigers through one of the hardest scrimmages of the year Thursday afternoon.

Special attention has been given this week to a new style of play in an effort to stop the backfield, composed of Stewart, Davis, Stevenson and Smith. That combination has run wild in every game this season and reports from Alabama state that they are in the best of shape and ready for the Tigers Saturday.

Morehouse will resort to the aerial game in an effort to stem the tide of the Alabama aggregation and no stone has been left unturned in preparing for the best football game of the colored season here Saturday.

For centers, and a whole flock of guards—Ridgway, Bass, Eckford, Strickler and Morrow. This bunch will compose the regular squad and pile through the club schedule.

The club will also put another team on the floor, in the City League, to be known as the A. A. C. Reds. This team will play through the regular City League schedule.

Some of the squad are: Captain Holmes, Richardson, Meacham and Smith, guards; H. Smith, Andrews, centers; Mason, Woodall, Wilkes, Kornstry, O'Dwyer and Boswell, forwards.

Spider Kelly Quick-Witted As a Second

Fast and Clever Thinking Once Saved a Protege From Sure Defeat.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

Spider Kelly has "gone west," and his old pal, Tim McGuffin, has lost his smile, great pals, these two, and between them tellers of the funniest stories in all sportland. Spider Kelly for more than three years was known as the craftiest and most resourceful of ring seconds. Champions bid high for his services. Spider was not only a quick thinker, but original. He invented most of the corner tricks in the tricky old days when decisions were given by a referee, and some times referees could be fooled by remarks from a fighter's corner—for there was no silence on seconds then, either.

Thinking back over a score of instances of Spider's Kelly's corner tricks there is one that seems to me quite characteristic of the activity of his mind and speed of his action, and the manner in which his brain and eyes never failed to see a chance to aid his fighter.

In that Britt-White fight Jabez brought from England a mascot—a tiny white patch on the corner of his youngest child. He was visiting America for the last time, hoping to win the lightweight title and then return to the quietude of a roadside inn somewhere in England. That has been the dream of English champions for centuries. To get the fight with Champion Joe Gans he had to beat Britt.

Jabez put up an unexpectedly desperate fight. Kelly had been sure Britt could easily beat any English fighter. Yet right up to the end of the nineteenth round Jabez had weathered everything and returned blow for blow. He seemed made of iron. Britt's best punches never shook him. Nineteen furious rounds, and not an inch of advantage either way.

Round after round, as the twentieth and last round came nearer, Spider Kelly peered under the ropes at White's corner trying to figure some way in which Britt could break through the Englishman's perfect de-

Mercer Greets Georgia With New Formation

Loss of Star Quarterback Causes Bears to Change Offensive Style.

Macon, Ga., November 17.—Using a new system, caused by injuries to Buck Loefer, quarterback, the Mercer Bears went through another season of hard work today. Saturday afternoon in Athens the Bears and Bulldogs meet again.

For the next season Loefer had been calling signals and when injuries forced him from practice Coach Moore began grooming new combinations to fit the occasion.

The scrimmage against freshmen saw Art Wright at half calling signals. Slater at quarter, Smith at half and Alderman at full. The new combination worked almost to perfection. Loefer's place as Bear punter will be taken by Alderman and Smith. Alderman was one of the Cub punters last year, his first year in a Mercer uniform. Smith has done quite a bit of the punting during his three-year reign as premier Mercer athlete.

Thirty-five years ago Mercer and Georgia were playing their first football game on what was Herty field in Athens, and incidentally, the game was the first to be played in the south.

The two teams met on the plain unmarked soil in Athens and kicked the ball back and forth.

A few fans had gathered; there were no cheering lines; there was no gallery of spectators as at present-day games.

The final score of that first game was 50-0, favoring Georgia, and not one of the Bears had been victorious over the Bulldogs.

During that first game a big strapping young fellow broke loose and ran down the field, seemingly out of a cloud of dust. He swept down the field.

"Whence comes that bear," some one cried.

That, in the opinion of Dr. S. V. Sanford, is how Mercer's athletic teams came to be known as the Bears. A colorful throng of 5,000 people is expected to fill the stadium to capacity Saturday.

fense, offset his hard straight punching, and bring him down. Kelly had noticed that in the first round White stood in his corner and tied something to the top rope, where he could look at it in each rest minute. He saw White, lying back against the ropes, stare up as the minute drew near an end, and then leap from his chair to rush out fighting with renewed fury. Sometimes White even glanced cornerward when the fighting was hottest, and Kelly seemed to go on with renewed strength.

Watching Jabez at the beginning of the nineteenth round the Spider had his hands in the middle of the ring near enough to White's corner to see what was hanging on the ropes. He was surprised when he saw that the tiny white patch was a baby's shoe tied to the upper rope by its braided string.

Second With a Split Second Mind.

Just at the end of the round the fight surged into a neutral corner. The spectators were yelling wildly. White's seconds were yelling wildly. Kelly saw the little English champion. No one saw Kelly as he slipped swiftly into the White corner, reached up with an open pocket in his hand, cut the string and snatched down the baby shoe. Kelly coiled his way silently back to Britt's corner and was there to receive the punting Frisco boy as he came wearily back for the last minute's rest. Kelly jumped up beside Britt as the fighter flung himself into the chair.

"You've got him now," he whispered. "The instant the bell rings run across and fight as fast as you can. Don't give him time to even look at his corner."

Worried.

Jabez had missed the baby shoe as he glanced up at the top rope just before the bell. He was startled—worried. His mascot, from which he drew strength and courage, was gone. The bell rang and he had to come up fighting, for Britt was rushing wildly across the ring. Yet time and again he tried to glance toward his corner and see if the shoe wouldn't appear again. His mind divided between the fight and his lost mascot, Jabez fought unsteadily. Britt rushed him to the ropes, but did not follow there, and in the last half minute of the last round got over the punch at last and knocked him out.

Spider Kelly's trick won that fight. If it hadn't Jabez White might have fought Joe Gans for the world's championship. Not that it would have changed any maps. Nobody could beat Gans in those days.

(Copyright, 1927, by the Bell Syndicate.)

Apologia.

Dear O Dear! Again we have made a mistake and most humbly seek forgiveness for our error. In this column of Thursday we referred to the Trojans of the University of South California as the "Golden Bears." The University of California team is known as the Golden Bears and always has been. This fact has been known to us for some time but in the haste of composition we picked the wrong name. At least we had the state right and we rescind nothing else in the article except this mistake in names.

One of the most romantic stories in sports of past years is that dealing with the theft of the Golden Bear of California by Stanford supporters some years ago. Whether this story is true or not is beside the point, but it is just one more reason why there is no excuse for one referring to U. S. C. as the home of the Golden Bear. Again we apologize.

A Season of Upsets.

The season of football which is now approaching the grand climax in the south and which is practically finished in the north has been a baneful season on the experts. It has made dubs out of dopesters and dopesters out of dubs. It has been particularly fruitful in what we choose to call upsets.

We reproduce herewith a poem sent to Dr. S. V. Sanford, of the University of Georgia, by Owen Reynolds, former Georgia football star, and in our opinion it tells a great truth. This season proves the truth of this poem most clearly.

When the sunrise casts its glory
Over fields of sparkling dew
You will hear the same old story
That "Chicago Fears Purdue."
All day long and in the evening,
When the shadows fall, why then
'Tis a cinch some one is saying,
"Big Red Team in Awe of Penn."
"Illini and Boilermakers,
Eli Yale and Notre Dame
Fear John Harvard and the Quakers"—
All this terror is a shame.

"Dartmouth's Line Is Badly Crippled."
"Green Regards Brown Bear a Menace,"
"Doble says, 'Big Red Is Awful,'"
"Princeton Dought to Stick to Tennis,"
"Hoosergow's Loss Will Hamper Purple,"
"Penn State Weak, But Still Will Fight 'Em,"
"Georgia's Backfield Rides in Wheelchairs,"
And so forth ad infinitum.

So the headlines read on Friday
Just before the whistle blows,
But it's different far on Sunday—
Here's the way the story goes:
"Dartmouth Wins—Great Play by Linemen Shatters Each Attack of Bear."
"Cornell Scores Eleven Touchdowns," "Princeton's Triumph Shows It's There,"
"Hoosergow's Touchdown Wins for Purple,"
"Penn State Takes Its Games With Ease," "Georgia's Backfield Stars in Victory,"
Laugh it off, the same old wheeze.

Never more a pre-game headline
In a fashion like this, sprightly,
"Army Has a Cinch in Navy"
And "The Bulldog Holds Penn Lightly."

Here's a tip I've learned from football,
And if a bet you want to gim,
Listen, see who moans the loudest—
Put your sugar down on him.

Boys Get 'Scoop' Yankee Stadium Increases Seats

Washington—(AP)—In leaving the ranks of active baseball players, as in leading them, Walter Johnson thought first of the boys.

Reporters and friends were eagerly awaiting his decision whether to sign the contract with the Newark Bears of the International League. All day his telephone was ringing or "buzzy." All day he replied that he probably would have "something to say in a few days."

But that night he was making a little talk over the radio to boys. When he felt their presence on the invisible side of the microphone he told them all about it. Not many of them realized they were getting a choice news "beat."

Not until the radio station had signed off were the reporters and friends able to get the "Big Train" to own up that he had signed to manage the Bears.

Dupont Is Ill.

Philadelphia, November 17.—(AP)—William Dupont, of Bellevue, Del., former president of the Hercules Powder company, is ill at the University of Pennsylvania hospital, it became known today. His condition was reported as fairly good. He has been a patient at the hospital for several days.

New York, November 17.—(AP)—The Yankee stadium will come a bit closer next year to seating the hundreds of thousands who applied this fall for tickets to the Army-Notre Dame and Army-Navy football classics.

The business office of the American league club has announced that stands adding 15,000 to the seating capacity of the park would be ready for the fall rush of 1928. The new tiers, to be added to the left field side of the present stands, will bring the seating to 85,000, largest in the east with the exception of the sesqui-centennial stadium at Philadelphia, and exceeded in the west only by Soldiers' field in Chicago.

Ford Head Resigns.

Detroit, November 17.—(AP)—Another department head of the Ford Motor company has resigned, it became known today. He is Fred H. Diehl, for several years purchasing agent for the company. About a fortnight ago the resignation of W. A. Ryan, for many years sales manager for the Ford company, was made known.

Georgia Squad Routs Scrubs In Scrimmage

Bulldogs Show Great Form, Both on Offense and on Defense Thursday.

BY BOB SHERROD.

Athens, Ga., November 17.—Displaying a smashing, driving offense and an unpenetrable defense, the Georgia Bulldogs put in one of their best hours' work of the season on Sanford field Thursday afternoon.

For the first half hour of scrimmage the entire line put up an excellent defense against Alabama plays, run by the Red Devils. Especially well did Lattzenhiser, Smith and Bear Morris show up. The Red Devils got away a couple of times on some crafty play, but on the whole were unable to get in much ground. Myers and Jackson accentuated the Fire-cracker attack by some good runs.

Then Coach Woodruff gave the ball to the varsity. The running legged a bit at first but when that four of the "thousand backs" got going there was no stopping them.

Here Roy Estes entered the picture. This boy did some of the prettiest running and passing of the season Thursday afternoon. Estes is undoubtedly one of Georgia's most valuable players with the triple threat he always carries to the opposing team.

The other three backs, McCrary, Dudley and Johnson, aided Estes materially in the afternoon's ground gaining. McCrary got away for at least three touchdowns. Henry Palmer, substituting for Captain Shiver at right end, was the offensive star of the line. Time after time Palmer would block the last would-be tackler.

Thursday's workout ended the active practice for the Red and Black eleven before the Mercer game in Athens Saturday. The Bulldogs have spent little time in perfecting a defense against Mercer this week, devoting most of their time to Alabama.

The Mercer game will mark the last local appearance of Captain Shiver, Tom Nash, Bear Morris, Gene Smith, Bob McTigue, Roy Estes and Johnny Broadnax.

Georgia and Mercer have been rivals for a long time, this being their 35th meeting. The Bears held the Bulldogs to a one-touchdown victory several years ago, but have yet to triumph over the Red and Black. Although Mercer is not a conference team and the Georgians are favored to win by a safe margin, Coach Woodruff is taking no chances and will "shoot the works."

FLORIDA RACE TRIAL BEGINS AT MIAMI

Miami, Fla., November 17.—(AP)—Today's court proceedings, which started a civil test of the Miami Jockey club's plan for operation in 1928 under a "brokerage system of speculation," to replace the pari-mutuel wagering of previous years, was begun, formed only one skirmish preliminary to what Robert R. Taylor, Dade county solicitor, says will be a first-class battle before it is done.

"Unless this case has been carried to the supreme court, and the plan upheld there, when the Miami Jockey club's meet starts January 19, I'm going ahead with arrests regardless of the outcome of this case in the lower courts," he said.

Judge Paul D. Burns took under advisement a motion of five lawyers, intervening as amici curiae, for the dismissal of the test suit, on the ground that it was a collusive action, brought by agreement between plaintiff and defendant for the purpose of testing the legality of the plan rather than a bona fide effort of a stockholder to protect his own interests.

OUR BETTER CLOTHES ARE TAILORED AT FASHION PARK

NOTABLE

Pollock & Berg present a notable selection of suits, and overcoats, tailored at Fashion Park in high character fabrics of unique pattern. Every style preference of the well groomed man is available.

$45 AND MORE

THE PARKMAN, A WARRANTED SILK LINED SUIT, $75

Pollock & Berg

79-81 Peachtree Street

BANISTER SHOES C. & K. HATS

Your Overcoat for the Game and Months to Come

Daniel's Fine Topcoats

for Style---Quality and Service Satisfaction or Money Back

THREE-YEAR $30 GUARANTEE

You'll see lots of 'em at the game tomorrow—all the young fellows, the style leaders who know value, will have one. They're here in all the wanted fabrics.

Daniel Bros. Company

"The Home of the Overcoat"

Founded

45-47-49 Peachtree

1886

Cotton Suffers Under Private Crop Estimate and Weather

NEW YORK COTTON RANGE.
Open High Low Close
Dec. 1924 19.10 19.15 19.10 19.10
Jan. 1925 19.15 19.20 19.15 19.15
Feb. 1925 19.20 19.25 19.20 19.20
Mar. 1925 19.25 19.30 19.25 19.25
Apr. 1925 19.30 19.35 19.30 19.30
May 1925 19.35 19.40 19.35 19.35
June 1925 19.40 19.45 19.40 19.40
July 1925 19.45 19.50 19.45 19.45
Aug. 1925 19.50 19.55 19.50 19.50
Sept. 1925 19.55 20.00 19.55 19.55
Oct. 1925 20.00 20.05 20.00 20.05
Nov. 1925 20.05 20.10 20.05 20.05
Dec. 1925 20.10 20.15 20.10 20.10

NEW YORK SPOT COTTON.
New York, November 17.—Cotton futures closed steady, 30 to 35 cents lower, spot, quiet; middling, 19.75.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON RANGE.
Open High Low Close
Dec. 1924 19.10 19.15 19.10 19.10
Jan. 1925 19.15 19.20 19.15 19.15
Feb. 1925 19.20 19.25 19.20 19.20
Mar. 1925 19.25 19.30 19.25 19.25
Apr. 1925 19.30 19.35 19.30 19.30
May 1925 19.35 19.40 19.35 19.35
June 1925 19.40 19.45 19.40 19.40
July 1925 19.45 19.50 19.45 19.45
Aug. 1925 19.50 19.55 19.50 19.50
Sept. 1925 19.55 20.00 19.55 19.55
Oct. 1925 20.00 20.05 20.00 20.05
Nov. 1925 20.05 20.10 20.05 20.05
Dec. 1925 20.10 20.15 20.10 20.10

NEW ORLEANS SPOT COTTON.
New Orleans, November 17.—Spot cotton closed steady, 30 to 35 cents lower, spot, quiet; middling, 19.75.

CHICAGO COTTON RANGE.
Open High Low Close
Dec. 1924 19.10 19.15 19.10 19.10
Jan. 1925 19.15 19.20 19.15 19.15
Feb. 1925 19.20 19.25 19.20 19.20
Mar. 1925 19.25 19.30 19.25 19.25
Apr. 1925 19.30 19.35 19.30 19.30
May 1925 19.35 19.40 19.35 19.35
June 1925 19.40 19.45 19.40 19.40
July 1925 19.45 19.50 19.45 19.45
Aug. 1925 19.50 19.55 19.50 19.50
Sept. 1925 19.55 20.00 19.55 19.55
Oct. 1925 20.00 20.05 20.00 20.05
Nov. 1925 20.05 20.10 20.05 20.05
Dec. 1925 20.10 20.15 20.10 20.10

NEW YORK, November 17.—(AP)—Some larger private crop figures and the failure of meteorological reports to stimulate buying materially seemed responsible for further declines in the cotton market today. January contracts sold off to 19.15 and 19.20, and within a point of the lowest level touched on the decline last week, and closed at 19.37. The general market closed steadily, at net declines of 33 to 38 points.

The market opened easy at a decline of 11 to 15 points in response to relatively heavy liquidation the overnight selling orders from the south, and a renewal of commission house liquidation. A private report issued before the opening placed the gains prior to November 14 at 11,078,000 bales, and the indicated crop at 12,943,000 bales, compared with an indication of 12,572,000 bales in the same authority at the end of October.

There may have been a little selling on this report, but the market increased on a report from Memphis estimating the gains at 11,550,000 bales to November 14 and the total crop at 12,572,000 bales. The market continued buyers of December at differences of about 25 to 27 points.

Atlanta Live Stock
By Drake, Miller & Blackwell
PORK
Dressed long hog, 19.10; short, 18.75; mixed, 18.50; 19.10; 18.75; 18.50; 18.25; 18.00; 17.75; 17.50; 17.25; 17.00; 16.75; 16.50; 16.25; 16.00; 15.75; 15.50; 15.25; 15.00; 14.75; 14.50; 14.25; 14.00; 13.75; 13.50; 13.25; 13.00; 12.75; 12.50; 12.25; 12.00; 11.75; 11.50; 11.25; 11.00; 10.75; 10.50; 10.25; 10.00; 9.75; 9.50; 9.25; 9.00; 8.75; 8.50; 8.25; 8.00; 7.75; 7.50; 7.25; 7.00; 6.75; 6.50; 6.25; 6.00; 5.75; 5.50; 5.25; 5.00; 4.75; 4.50; 4.25; 4.00; 3.75; 3.50; 3.25; 3.00; 2.75; 2.50; 2.25; 2.00; 1.75; 1.50; 1.25; 1.00; .75; .50; .25; .00

Cotton Statement
New Orleans, November 17.—Receipts, 20,000; exports, 10,000; stock, 10,000.

Cottonseed Oil.
New York, November 17.—The cottonseed oil market was more active and liquid today, closing at 19.10, 19.15, 19.20, 19.25, 19.30, 19.35, 19.40, 19.45, 19.50, 19.55, 20.00, 20.05, 20.10, 20.15, 20.20, 20.25, 20.30, 20.35, 20.40, 20.45, 20.50, 20.55, 21.00, 21.05, 21.10, 21.15, 21.20, 21.25, 21.30, 21.35, 21.40, 21.45, 21.50, 21.55, 22.00, 22.05, 22.10, 22.15, 22.20, 22.25, 22.30, 22.35, 22.40, 22.45, 22.50, 22.55, 23.00, 23.05, 23.10, 23.15, 23.20, 23.25, 23.30, 23.35, 23.40, 23.45, 23.50, 23.55, 24.00, 24.05, 24.10, 24.15, 24.20, 24.25, 24.30, 24.35, 24.40, 24.45, 24.50, 24.55, 25.00, 25.05, 25.10, 25.15, 25.20, 25.25, 25.30, 25.35, 25.40, 25.45, 25.50, 25.55, 26.00, 26.05, 26.10, 26.15, 26.20, 26.25, 26.30, 26.35, 26.40, 26.45, 26.50, 26.55, 27.00, 27.05, 27.10, 27.15, 27.20, 27.25, 27.30, 27.35, 27.40, 27.45, 27.50, 27.55, 28.00, 28.05, 28.10, 28.15, 28.20, 28.25, 28.30, 28.35, 28.40, 28.45, 28.50, 28.55, 29.00, 29.05, 29.10, 29.15, 29.20, 29.25, 29.30, 29.35, 29.40, 29.45, 29.50, 29.55, 30.00, 30.05, 30.10, 30.15, 30.20, 30.25, 30.30, 30.35, 30.40, 30.45, 30.50, 30.55, 31.00, 31.05, 31.10, 31.15, 31.20, 31.25, 31.30, 31.35, 31.40, 31.45, 31.50, 31.55, 32.00, 32.05, 32.10, 32.15, 32.20, 32.25, 32.30, 32.35, 32.40, 32.45, 32.50, 32.55, 33.00, 33.05, 33.10, 33.15, 33.20, 33.25, 33.30, 33.35, 33.40, 33.45, 33.50, 33.55, 34.00, 34.05, 34.10, 34.15, 34.20, 34.25, 34.30, 34.35, 34.40, 34.45, 34.50, 34.55, 35.00, 35.05, 35.10, 35.15, 35.20, 35.25, 35.30, 35.35, 35.40, 35.45, 35.50, 35.55, 36.00, 36.05, 36.10, 36.15, 36.20, 36.25, 36.30, 36.35, 36.40, 36.45, 36.50, 36.55, 37.00, 37.05, 37.10, 37.15, 37.20, 37.25, 37.30, 37.35, 37.40, 37.45, 37.50, 37.55, 38.00, 38.05, 38.10, 38.15, 38.20, 38.25, 38.30, 38.35, 38.40, 38.45, 38.50, 38.55, 39.00, 39.05, 39.10, 39.15, 39.20, 39.25, 39.30, 39.35, 39.40, 39.45, 39.50, 39.55, 40.00, 40.05, 40.10, 40.15, 40.20, 40.25, 40.30, 40.35, 40.40, 40.45, 40.50, 40.55, 41.00, 41.05, 41.10, 41.15, 41.20, 41.25, 41.30, 41.35, 41.40, 41.45, 41.50, 41.55, 42.00, 42.05, 42.10, 42.15, 42.20, 42.25, 42.30, 42.35, 42.40, 42.45, 42.50, 42.55, 43.00, 43.05, 43.10, 43.15, 43.20, 43.25, 43.30, 43.35, 43.40, 43.45, 43.50, 43.55, 44.00, 44.05, 44.10, 44.15, 44.20, 44.25, 44.30, 44.35, 44.40, 44.45, 44.50, 44.55, 45.00, 45.05, 45.10, 45.15, 45.20, 45.25, 45.30, 45.35, 45.40, 45.45, 45.50, 45.55, 46.00, 46.05, 46.10, 46.15, 46.20, 46.25, 46.30, 46.35, 46.40, 46.45, 46.50, 46.55, 47.00, 47.05, 47.10, 47.15, 47.20, 47.25, 47.30, 47.35, 47.40, 47.45, 47.50, 47.55, 48.00, 48.05, 48.10, 48.15, 48.20, 48.25, 48.30, 48.35, 48.40, 48.45, 48.50, 48.55, 49.00, 49.05, 49.10, 49.15, 49.20, 49.25, 49.30, 49.35, 49.40, 49.45, 49.50, 49.55, 50.00, 50.05, 50.10, 50.15, 50.20, 50.25, 50.30, 50.35, 50.40, 50.45, 50.50, 50.55, 51.00, 51.05, 51.10, 51.15, 51.20, 51.25, 51.30, 51.35, 51.40, 51.45, 51.50, 51.55, 52.00, 52.05, 52.10, 52.15, 52.20, 52.25, 52.30, 52.35, 52.40, 52.45, 52.50, 52.55, 53.00, 53.05, 53.10, 53.15, 53.20, 53.25, 53.30, 53.35, 53.40, 53.45, 53.50, 53.55, 54.00, 54.05, 54.10, 54.15, 54.20, 54.25, 54.30, 54.35, 54.40, 54.45, 54.50, 54.55, 55.00, 55.05, 55.10, 55.15, 55.20, 55.25, 55.30, 55.35, 55.40, 55.45, 55.50, 55.55, 56.00, 56.05, 56.10, 56.15, 56.20, 56.25, 56.30, 56.35, 56.40, 56.45, 56.50, 56.55, 57.00, 57.05, 57.10, 57.15, 57.20, 57.25, 57.30, 57.35, 57.40, 57.45, 57.50, 57.55, 58.00, 58.05, 58.10, 58.15, 58.20, 58.25, 58.30, 58.35, 58.40, 58.45, 58.50, 58.55, 59.00, 59.05, 59.10, 59.15, 59.20, 59.25, 59.30, 59.35, 59.40, 59.45, 59.50, 59.55, 60.00, 60.05, 60.10, 60.15, 60.20, 60.25, 60.30, 60.35, 60.40, 60.45, 60.50, 60.55, 61.00, 61.05, 61.10, 61.15, 61.20, 61.25, 61.30, 61.35, 61.40, 61.45, 61.50, 61.55, 62.00, 62.05, 62.10, 62.15, 62.20, 62.25, 62.30, 62.35, 62.40, 62.45, 62.50, 62.55, 63.00, 63.05, 63.10, 63.15, 63.20, 63.25, 63.30, 63.35, 63.40, 63.45, 63.50, 63.55, 64.00, 64.05, 64.10, 64.15, 64.20, 64.25, 64.30, 64.35, 64.40, 64.45, 64.50, 64.55, 65.00, 65.05, 65.10, 65.15, 65.20, 65.25, 65.30, 65.35, 65.40, 65.45, 65.50, 65.55, 66.00, 66.05, 66.10, 66.15, 66.20, 66.25, 66.30, 66.35, 66.40, 66.45, 66.50, 66.55, 67.00, 67.05, 67.10, 67.15, 67.20, 67.25, 67.30, 67.35, 67.40, 67.45, 67.50, 67.55, 68.00, 68.05, 68.10, 68.15, 68.20, 68.25, 68.30, 68.35, 68.40, 68.45, 68.50, 68.55, 69.00, 69.05, 69.10, 69.15, 69.20, 69.25, 69.30, 69.35, 69.40, 69.45, 69.50, 69.55, 70.00, 70.05, 70.10, 70.15, 70.20, 70.25, 70.30, 70.35, 70.40, 70.45, 70.50, 70.55, 71.00, 71.05, 71.10, 71.15, 71.20, 71.25, 71.30, 71.35, 71.40, 71.45, 71.50, 71.55, 72.00, 72.05, 72.10, 72.15, 72.20, 72.25, 72.30, 72.35, 72.40, 72.45, 72.50, 72.55, 73.00, 73.05, 73.10, 73.15, 73.20, 73.25, 73.30, 73.35, 73.40, 73.45, 73.50, 73.55, 74.00, 74.05, 74.10, 74.15, 74.20, 74.25, 74.30, 74.35, 74.40, 74.45, 74.50, 74.55, 75.00, 75.05, 75.10, 75.15, 75.20, 75.25, 75.30, 75.35, 75.40, 75.45, 75.50, 75.55, 76.00, 76.05, 76.10, 76.15, 76.20, 76.25, 76.30, 76.35, 76.40, 76.45, 76.50, 76.55, 77.00, 77.05, 77.10, 77.15, 77.20, 77.25, 77.30, 77.35, 77.40, 77.45, 77.50, 77.55, 78.00, 78.05, 78.10, 78.15, 78.20, 78.25, 78.30, 78.35, 78.40, 78.45, 78.50, 78.55, 79.00, 79.05, 79.10, 79.15, 79.20, 79.25, 79.30, 79.35, 79.40, 79.45, 79.50, 79.55, 80.00, 80.05, 80.10, 80.15, 80.20, 80.25, 80.30, 80.35, 80.40, 80.45, 80.50, 80.55, 81.00, 81.05, 81.10, 81.15, 81.20, 81.25, 81.30, 81.35, 81.40, 81.45, 81.50, 81.55, 82.00, 82.05, 82.10, 82.15, 82.20, 82.25, 82.30, 82.35, 82.40, 82.45, 82.50, 82.55, 83.00, 83.05, 83.10, 83.15, 83.20, 83.25, 83.30, 83.35, 83.40, 83.45, 83.50, 83.55, 84.00, 84.05, 84.10, 84.15, 84.20, 84.25, 84.30, 84.35, 84.40, 84.45, 84.50, 84.55, 85.00, 85.05, 85.10, 85.15, 85.20, 85.25, 85.30, 85.35, 85.40, 85.45, 85.50, 85.55, 86.00, 86.05, 86.10, 86.15, 86.20, 86.25, 86.30, 86.35, 86.40, 86.45, 86.50, 86.55, 87.00, 87.05, 87.10, 87.15, 87.20, 87.25, 87.30, 87.35, 87.40, 87.45, 87.50, 87.55, 88.00, 88.05, 88.10, 88.15, 88.20, 88.25, 88.30, 88.35, 88.40, 88.45, 88.50, 88.55, 89.00, 89.05, 89.10, 89.15, 89.20, 89.25, 89.30, 89.35, 89.40, 89.45, 89.50, 89.55, 90.00, 90.05, 90.10, 90.15, 90.20, 90.25, 90.30, 90.35, 90.40, 90.45, 90.50, 90.55, 91.00, 91.05, 91.10, 91.15, 91.20, 91.25, 91.30, 91.35, 91.40, 91.45, 91.50, 91.55, 92.00, 92.05, 92.10, 92.15, 92.20, 92.25, 92.30, 92.35, 92.40, 92.45, 92.50, 92.55, 93.00, 93.05, 93.10, 93.15, 93.20, 93.25, 93.30, 93.35, 93.40, 93.45, 93.50, 93.55, 94.00, 94.05, 94.10, 94.15, 94.20, 94.25, 94.30, 94.35, 94.40, 94.45, 94.50, 94.55, 95.00, 95.05, 95.10, 95.15, 95.20, 95.25, 95.30, 95.35, 95.40, 95.45, 95.50, 95.55, 96.00, 96.05, 96.10, 96.15, 96.20, 96.25, 96.30, 96.35, 96.40, 96.45, 96.50, 96.55, 97.00, 97.05, 97.10, 97.15, 97.20, 97.25, 97.30, 97.35, 97.40, 97.45, 97.50, 97.55, 98.00, 98.05, 98.10, 98.15, 98.20, 98.25, 98.30, 98.35, 98.40, 98.45, 98.50, 98.55, 99.00, 99.05, 99.10, 99.15, 99.20, 99.25, 99.30, 99.35, 99.40, 99.45, 99.50, 99.55, 100.00, 100.05, 100.10, 100.15, 100.20, 100.25, 100.30, 100.35, 100.40, 100.45, 100.50, 100.55, 101.00, 101.05, 101.10, 101.15, 101.20, 101.25, 101.30, 101.35, 101.40, 101.45, 101.50, 101.55, 102.00, 102.05, 102.10, 102.15, 102.20, 102.25, 102.30, 102.35, 102.40, 102.45, 102.50, 102.55, 103.00, 103.05, 103.10, 103.15, 103.20, 103.25, 103.30, 103.35, 103.40, 103.45, 103.50, 103.55, 104.00, 104.05, 104.10, 104.15, 104.20, 104.25, 104.30, 104.35, 104.40, 104.45, 104.50, 104.55, 105.00, 105.05, 105.10, 105.15, 105.20, 105.25, 105.30, 105.35, 105.40, 105.45, 105.50, 105.55, 106.00, 106.05, 106.10, 106.15, 106.20, 106.25, 106.30, 106.35, 106.40, 106.45, 106.50, 106.55, 107.00, 107.05, 107.10, 107.15, 107.20, 107.25, 107.30, 107.35, 107.40, 107.45, 107.50, 107.55, 108.00, 108.05, 108.10, 108.15, 108.20, 108.25, 108.30, 108.35, 108.40, 108.45, 108.50, 108.55, 109.00, 109.05, 109.10, 109.15, 109.20, 109.25, 109.30, 109.35, 109.40, 109.45, 109.50, 109.55, 110.00, 110.05, 110.10, 110.15, 110.20, 110.25, 110.30, 110.35, 110.40, 110.45, 110.50, 110.55, 111.00, 111.05, 111.10, 111.15, 111.20, 111.25, 111.30, 111.35, 111.40, 111.45, 111.50, 111.55, 112.00, 112.05, 112.10, 112.15, 112.20, 112.25, 112.30, 112.35, 112.40, 112.45, 112.50, 112.55, 113.00, 113.05, 113.10, 113.15, 113.20, 113.25, 113.30, 113.35, 113.40, 113.45, 113.50, 113.55, 114.00, 114.05, 114.10, 114.15, 114.20, 114.25, 114.30, 114.35, 114.40, 114.45, 114.50, 114.55, 115.00, 115.05, 115.10, 115.15, 115.20, 115.25, 115.30, 115.35, 115.40, 115.45, 115.50, 115.55, 116.00, 116.05, 116.10, 116.15, 116.20, 116.25, 116.30, 116.35, 116.40, 116.45, 116.50, 116.55, 117.00, 117.05, 117.10, 117.15, 117.20, 117.25, 117.30, 117.35, 117.40, 117.45, 117.50, 117.55, 118.00, 118.05, 118.10, 118.15, 118.20, 118.25, 118.30, 118.35, 118.40, 118.45, 118.50, 118.55, 119.00, 119.05, 119.10, 119.15, 119.20, 119.25, 119.30, 119.35, 119.40, 119.45, 119.50, 119.55, 120.00, 120.05, 120.10, 120.15, 120.20, 120.25, 120.30, 120.35, 120.40, 120.45, 120.50, 120.55, 121.00, 121.05, 121.10, 121.15, 121.20, 121.25, 121.30, 121.35, 121.40, 121.45, 121.50, 121.55, 122.00, 122.05, 122.10, 122.15, 122.20, 122.25, 122.30, 122.35, 122.40, 122.45, 122.50, 122.55, 123.00, 123.05, 123.10, 123.15, 123.20, 123.25, 123.30, 123.35, 123.40, 123.45, 123.50, 123.55, 124.00, 124.05, 124.10, 124.15, 124.20, 124.25, 124.30, 124.35, 124.40, 124.45, 124.50, 124.55, 125.00, 125.05, 125.10, 125.15, 125.20, 125.25, 125.30, 125.35, 125.40, 125.45, 125.50, 125.55, 126.00, 126.05, 126.10, 126.15, 126.20, 126.25, 126.30, 126.35, 126.40, 126.45, 126.50, 126.55, 127.00, 127.05, 127.10, 127.15, 127.20, 127.25, 127.30, 127.35, 127.40, 127.45, 127.50, 127.55, 128.00, 128.05, 128.10, 128.15, 128.20, 128.25, 128.30, 128.35, 128.40, 128.45, 128.50, 128.55, 129.00, 129.05, 129.10, 1

Funeral Notices

BENTON—Mrs. W. P. Benton, aged 75, died last night at the residence, 627 Echo street. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. J. T. Kish, of Columbus, Ga., and Mrs. T. J. Keheler; two sons, Mr. E. D. Benton and Mr. W. B. Benton; two sisters and two brothers. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Harry G. Poole.

MORGAN—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Morgan, Miss Alice Mae Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kishberry, of Acworth, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Macdonald, of Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gibson and Mrs. Mola Varney, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. C. F. Morgan, which will take place this (Friday) morning, at 10 o'clock, at the chapel of Awtry & Lowndes Co., Rev. S. A. Cowan will officiate. The burial will be in the are requested to serve as pallbearers and will please assemble at the chapel; J. J. Morgan, L. L. Edmondson, R. H. Conway and T. E. Clyatt, Interment, Kennesaw, Ga.

RAINWATER—The friends and relatives of Mr. James W. Rainwater, of Alpharetta, Ga., are invited to the funeral of Tatum, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Queenie Rainwater, of St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Rainwater, of Alpharetta, Ga., and Miss Cleo Rainwater, of Alpharetta, Ga., are invited to the funeral of Mrs. James W. Rainwater, from the Alpharetta Methodist church, Saturday morning, June 10, at 11 o'clock, at the funeral home of the Rev. J. H. Burtz and L. G. Martin officiating, Interment, Alpharetta cemetery. Louise Rainwater, funeral director, in charge.

BUNN—Mr. J. L. Bunn, 65 years of age, died at his home, 1201 Taylorville, Ga., Thursday afternoon, June 10, 1933.

ember 17, 1927. He is survived by his wife; one son, Mr. J. W. Bunn; one daughter, Mrs. Selix Coghurn, of Marietta, Ga.; two brothers, Mr. John Bunn, of Marietta, Ga.; Mr. R. M. Bunn, of Chattanooga, Tenn.; and one sister, Mrs. F. E. Hairston, of Roswell, Ga. Funeral services will be held from Second Baptist church at Marietta, Ga., tomorrow (Saturday) morning, November 19, 1927, at 11 o'clock. Interment at city cemetery. A. C. Hemperley & Sons, funeral directors.

street, College Park, Ga., at the age of 62. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. G. W. Kelley; four sons, Mr. Joe and Mr. W. H. Kelley, College Park, Ga.; Mr. T. Kelley, Wheeling, W. Va., and Mr. T. E. Kelley, of Warthen, Ga.; five daughters, Mrs. Z. B. Cummings, of Warthen, Ga.; Mrs. G. T. Shell, of Apalachia, Ga.; Mrs. D. G. Muse, of Hapeville, Ga.; Mrs. W. H. B. Shell, of Atlanta, Ga.; and Mrs. A. J. Brown, of College Park, Ga.; four sisters, Mrs. M. J. Winn, Mrs. Joe Hollis, Mrs. Missouri Irish and Mrs. Emma Jennings, of Atlanta, Ga. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Howard L. Carmichael.

BYERS—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Byers, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Byers, of Thart, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Byers, of Louisville, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Byers, Mrs. W. S. Shelton, both of Atlanta; Mrs. Lucy Roper and Mrs. J. B. Sosebee, both of Murraysville, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. William L. Byers, at 10:45 A. M. on Friday morning, at the chapel of Autry & Lowndes Co. Rev. J. S. Strickland will officiate. Red Men, Mohawk Tribe, No. 5, and Brick Union No. 14, of Georgia are especially invited to attend in a body. Pallbearers will be selected from the friends.

(COLORED)
HUGHES—John Edward Hughes died November 16, 1927, at the residence, 81 Richmond street, S. E. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by C. B. Montgomery, funeral director.

(COLORED)
FLOWERS—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Flowers, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Flowers

Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mrs. George Fennell, Mrs. M. E. Williams, Mrs. A. B. Flowers, Mr. Fred Flowers, Mr. Cecil Flowers and Verne Lee Flowers are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Theodore (Tiger) Flowers on Monday, November 21, at 12:00 noon, from Butler Street C. M. E. church. The body will lie in state at the home, No. 1607 North Broadway road, W., from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Rev. J. L. Word will officiate. Interment in South View cemetery. The following gentlemen will please act as bearers and meet at the home on Simpson road at 11:30 a. m. Monday: P. L. Taylor, Mr. Marcus Blaylock, Mr. H. R. Aiken, Mr. J. S. Smith, Mr. Edgar Brown, and

J. I. Robinson and Mr. Percy Harris, Members of Pledge of Atlanta lodge, K. A. F. & A. M.; Gate City lodge, B. P. O. E., and Independent lodge, K. P. of Brunswick, Ga., will take charge of the remains at the cemetery. Hensley company, funeral directors, in charge.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our many thanks to the friends and relatives who were present for the sympathy and floral offerings in the recent bereavement of our little daughter, ELEANOR, who died at the home of MR. AND MRS. N. L. CLEATON, on the 10th inst.

MR. AND MRS. D. W. POWELL.

Card of Thanks.
The children of the late Mr. John W. Lynn wish to thank their friends for their kindness during the illness and death of their father.

Ed. Bond & Condon Co.
Funeral Directors

AMBULANCE LADS' ATTENDANCE
25 Ivy Street N. E. 312 & 314 N. E.

— Walnut 3216

FUNERAL DESIGNS
Gresham
West View Florist
115 PRACHTREE

N4612
Joys Flowers
WE ARRANGE YOUR MESSAGE

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Albert Howell, Jr. W. F. Bloodworth
Arthur Herman Herman Herman
Hugh Howell Mark Bolding

DORSEY, HOWELL & HEYMAN
Lawyers
06 to 520 Connally Bldg. Atlanta, Ga